Keeps the Wheels Moving

SOMETHING broken down? Maybe it's the plo gh or the mowing machine.

What's to be done? Delay means loss.

The nearest supply depot may be miles away. It may be that the necessary part can only be obtained in some distant city.

The Bell Service does the work.

The farmer gets into quick communication with the dealer and shipment is made without delay.

No wonder the enterprising farmer regards the Bell Service as an essential to success.

The Way of a Man and The Way of a Monster.

This is not a romance, but fact. An elderly gentleman bought a farm in Coleman county, making a substantial cash payment and giving notes for the remainder. He built a neat residence on the place and made other needed improvements.

Early in the season he saw that owing to the shortness of last year's cotton crop he would not be able to make the payment due this winter. He accordingly went to the holder of the notes and asked for an extension of time on them until next year. This was granted, seemingly in good faith.

Recently, just two days before the payment fell due, the holder of the notes met old gentleman in Coleman and told him he must have the money or the place. The old gentleman was prostrated with the shock and fear of losing his home, and was carried into a store, [illegible] crowd gathered about him. Fortunately, among the number [illegible] prince, not according to the flesh, but a prince nevertheless and, though the old man was a stranger to him, he drew a check for $3,000 and took up every note against the place and told the grief-stricken old man to have no fear about losing his home.

The moral from this little story from real life is this: Do not lose confidence in humanity because you see one man act as if he was inspired by the devil. There are others who are inspired of God with the spirit of the Good Samaritan.—Santa Anna News.

When you have rheumatism in your foot or instep apply Chamberlain's Liniment and you will get quick relief. It costs but a quarter. Why suffer? For sale by all Druggists.

Who Was There That You Knew?

IN the shadowy ranks of those who marched to defeat or death or victory fifty years ago in the mighty conflict that convulsed this great nation, is there father or grandfather or uncle of yours? Would you like to see a photograph of him in that long ago day of his youth—a photograph that he never knew was taken? Perhaps we can show you one; and in any case, we can tell you a story stranger than any detective fiction of 3,500 priceless photographs that were lost and are found again.

3,500 Long Buried Photographs of the Civil War

THEY were taken by the greatest photographer in the United States of that day; they were bought by the United States Government for $30,000; they were buried in the War Department for 50 years; [illegible] still. But a duplicate set was kept by the photographer—who died poor and broken down; that duplicate set was knocked from pillar to post for nearly 50 years, until it was discovered by a New England collector. A Pierpont Morgan failed to secure the collection—Ex-President Garfield and General Benjamin F. Butler said it was worth $150,000—yet with the help of the Review of Reviews, the entire collection has been gathered into 10 great volumes and is placed within your reach at less than the value of one of the photographs. It is the one accurate, impartial history of the Civil War—for the women cannot lie. It tells the story of the War you never heard before. Taken under protection of the Secret Service, these photographs bring to light thousands of little known phases of the war; they penetrate to strange places and show startling things.
