WALKER BROTHERS

NEW MEAT MARKET.

A Curious Letter.

The following letter was sent by a man to his son at college:

"My Dear Son—I wrote to send you socks which your mother has just knit by cutting down some of mine. Your mother sends you ten pounds without my knowledge, and for fear you would not spend it wisely I have kept back half and only sent you five. Your mother and I are well, except that your sister has got the measles. I hope you will do honor to my teaching, if you do not you are a donkey. And affectionately yours,

[illegible]

A FAITHFUL FRIEND.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. It has been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never starts out on a trip without [illegible]," says H. S. [illegible] of Wilmington, Del. When a man has used a remedy for thirty-five years he knows its value and is competent to speak for it. For sale by all druggists.

WHY JAMES LEE GOT WELL.

Everybody in Zanesville, O., knows Mrs. Mary Lee, of rural route 8. She writes: "My husband, James Lee firmly believes he owes his life to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery. His lungs were so severely affected that consumption was his physician's verdict. We could recommend Dr. King's New Discovery to everybody, because we know it, and its use has restored him to perfect health." Dr. King's New Discovery is the King of throat and lung remedies. For cough and colds it has no equal. The first dose gives relief. Try it! Sold under guarantee at Calvert's drug store. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Holding His Own.

Pat and Bridget were deeply in love with each other, and Pat, walking her out very often, didn't know the way to pop the question.

One night coming home from a social with his arm around her waist and thinking a great deal, he at last exclaimed:

"Do you think, Bridget, I'm making any progress?"

"Faith," says Bridget, "I could n't tell you that, but you are holding your own, anyway."

CHRONIC DIARRHOEA RELIEVED.

Mr. Edward E. Henry, with the United States Express Co., Chicago, writes: "Our General Superintendent, Mr. Quick, handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy some time ago to check an attack of the old chronic diarrhoea. I have used it since that time and cured many on our trains who have been sick. I am an old soldier who served with Rutherford B. Hayes and William McKinley four years in the 23rd Ohio Regiment, and have no ailment except chronic diarrhoea, which this remedy stops at once." For sale by all druggists.

Under Compulsion Only.

The conversation had turned upon oldfashioned music. Smithson Jones, who was not musical, was suddenly startled by the lady at his side: "Mr. Smithson Jones, did you ever attempt to play the lyre?"

"The lark! Why, bless my soul, madam, not that I know of. I mean, unless, of course, positively compelled to do so."

GRAVEL AND SORE EYELIDS.

"For twenty years I have suffered from a bad case of granulated sore eyes, says Martin Boyd, of Henrietta, Ky. "In February, 1903, a gentleman asked me to try Chamberlain's Salve. I bought one box and used about two-thirds of it and my eyes have not given me any trouble since." This salve is for sale by all druggists.

Nine Left.

Johnnie—Please, ma'am, ten.

Teacher—Suppose you break a commandment?

Johnnie—Then there will be only nine, ma'am.

McDowell-Newsom Wedding.

At the Christian church at Lockhart, Wednesday evening the McDowell-Newsom marriage was solemnized, uniting Miss Birdie Kate McDowell, one of Lockhart's fairest and most talented daughters, with a young gentleman of sterling qualities, William Dunouint Newsom of Eagle Lake, Texas. Rev. J. J. Cramer, who was pastor for that church for more than fifteen years, came over from Llano to officiate. The church was beautifully decorated in ferns and daisies, the daisy being the club flower of the Girls' Study club, of which the bride has been an active and zealous member since its organization. At 8:30 the processional was sung by the choir, the choir being composed of members of the above named club, followed from the vestry and sang Lohengrin's bridal chorus, "Faithful and True," Misses Birdie Zachary, Victorine Field, Effie Shoat, Verna Glover, Mabel Clark, Effie Denny, Bettie Clark, Bessie Hall, Florence Inman, Lois Mobile, Nix Storey and Mrs. Victor Storey, after which Mrs. C. E. McDonald rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march and the bridal party entered as follows: Ribbon girls, Dallas Reynolds, Maude Dunn, Alma Cardwell and Wilmoth Brock. Then the ushers, Messrs. Reynolds, Westmoreland, Lipscomb and Clay Brock. The bridesmaids were Misses Julia Williams of Austin, Mary Lipscomb, Sallie Bowen Field and Kate Pringle of Marlin. The groomsmen were Messrs. Cusa of Beaumont, Claude Brock, Joe McDowell and Jeff Storey. Then came the maid of honor, Allah Lee McDonald, followed by the little flower girls, Rebecca Brown and Dora Jordan, and last, the bride with her brother, Mr. S. O. McDowell, where she was met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. Martin McDowell. The bride's dress was a lovely creation of crepe de chine and Maltese lace, with a handsome bertha Mexican Brazilian point, and in her bridal robe and veil she was indeed a fair and lovely picture. The only jewelry worn was an exquisite diamond brooch, a gift from the groom. The maid of honor and bridesmaids were all in white with short veils. After the ceremony the bridal party spent an hour or so at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Allah McDowell, and from there escorted Mr. and Mrs. Newsom to the depot, where they boarded the Alamo Special for a few days' visit in Galveston, and will then be at home in Eagle Lake, Texas. The bride's going away gown was a blue cloth suit with hat, gloves, etc., to match.
