J. R. Wooten Will Entertain

On Monday, August 4th, Mr. J. R. Wooten, of Columbus will entertain the editors of South Texas with a free barbecue in honor of the birth anniversary of Col. Sam H. Dixon, editor of the Farm and Fireside, and will also be in the way of a celebration of completion of the first gin in the South for the ginning of long staple cotton exclusively. On that day the first bale will be ginned and the farmers of the entire county are urged to bring in samples of their crops so that the visiting newspaper men will see what Colorado county can do in the way of general crops. Colorado county has here an excellent opportunity to gain liberal publicity throughout the entire state and every farmer should see to it that he has samples of his crop on exhibition.

Mr. Wooten will personally entertain the visiting newspaper men at his new gin east of Columbus where the first bale of Columbia long staple cotton will be ginned at his new plant on that day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brosig and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Cooper motored to Rock Island this morning to attend the barbecue at that place.

Mr. Boon Schleicher has returned from a visit to friends and relatives at Kingsville.

The pretty home of Mrs. Vallie Wagner was the scene of a unique afternoon party on Monday, given in honor of Mrs. Damon of Smithville, formerly a citizen of Eagle Lake. Mrs. Wagner sent an auto around and gathered together Mrs. Damon's old friends, who were her associates and fellow church workers in the 90's, Mrs. McFarland, Mrs. Tatters, Mrs. Anna Newsom and Mrs. J. W. McCarty. From 3 to 6 they talked over old times, of the happenings of a generation ago. Mrs. Frazar and Mrs. Callison were also present. Refreshments were served at five o'clock. It was a gracious and lovely thought of Mrs. Wagner to offer this courtesy to those of an age that is usually overlooked in social functions.

Help for Those Who Have Stomach Trouble.

[illegible] Stomach Trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctors' fees. I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before.—SAMUEL BOYER, Folsom, Iowa. This medicine is for sale by all dealers. —Adv.

The monthly dues are twenty-five cents and it is hoped enough will be collected at this meeting to pay expressage on song books recently ordered by the society.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Moore, Buster and little daughter, and Miss Gertson spent several days at a house party at Mr. Robt. Miller's at Sublime this week.

All the usual services will be held at the Christian church Sunday. Bible School at 10 a. m. preaching at 11 a. m., and 8:15 p. m. MONEY REFUNDED WITH A SMILE

Leading Drug Store Will Give Money Back Should There Be A Case Where Dodson's Liver Tone Fails.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a mild vegetable liver tonic which operates so successfully in cases of constipation, torpid liver or biliousness that it has practically taken the place of calomel—the drug which is so often dangerous. Calvert's drug store who sells Dodson's Liver Tone, recommends it as a reliever of constipation, sour stomach, biliousness and sluggish liver. It works gently, surely and harmlessly. If a bottle should ever fail to give satisfaction Calvert will refund the price paid without question.

The price of Dodson's Liver Tone is 50c per bottle. Be sure you get Dodson's Liver Tone and not some medicine put up in imitation that is not backed up by a guarantee and may contain harmful drugs.—Adv.

The Headlight commends very highly the action of the city authorities in a wholesale arrest of twelve negroes, charged with vagrancy, Wednesday night. Five females and seven females was the net result of the working of the dragnet and in corporation court Thursday morning, with Mayor Putney presiding, there were nine pleas of guilty, a fine of $5.00 and costs, totaling $18.20 being levied in each case. Two of the negro men presented sufficient evidence to prove they had only arrived in the city Wednesday afternoon and were discharged, while the twelfth member of the round-up is having his trial before the mayor as we go to press. Let the good work go on.

Among the many from this city who attended the funeral of Mrs. Warfield Watts at Weimar [illegible] Monday, E. L. Moore, H. Nussbaum, [illegible] Burttschell, Tobie Meyer, Chas. Brosig, A. E. Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Miss Beatribe Qbenhaus of Weimar and Miss Helen Burttschell of Columbus were in the city Thursday, en route to Rock Island to attend the fair and barbecue at that place.

Mrs. J. K. Creech was a pleasant caller at the Headlight office Wednesday and had her name enrolled upon the Headlight's rapidly growing list of subscribers.

Mr. Oscar Westmoreland attended a dance at Weimar Monday night.

NOW HER FRIENDS HARDLY KNOW HER

But This Does Not Bother Mrs. Burton, Under the Circumstances.

Houston, Texas.—In an interesting letter from this city, Mrs. S. C. Burton writes as follows: "I think it is my duty to tell you what your medicine, Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done for me.

I was down sick with womanly trouble, and my mother advised several different treatments, [illegible] didn't seem to do me any good. I lingered along for three or four months, and for three weeks. I was in bed, so sick I couldn't bear for any one to walk across the floor.

My husband advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic. I have taken two bottles of Cardui, am feeling fine, gained 15 pounds and do all of my housework. Friends hardly know me, I am so well."

If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, don't allow the trouble to become chronic. Begin taking Cardui to-day. It is purely vegetable, its ingredients acting in a gentle, natural way on the weakened womanly constitution. You run no risk in trying Cardui. It has been helping weak women back to health and strength for more than 50 years. It will help you. At all dealers.

We build clothes to your own personal measure, the kind that the best dressed men all over the world are wearing. You can not duplicate the material and workmanship in our $25.00 garment for less than $35.00 elsewhere. GEO. REDFORD.

Reels Survey, county of Colorado and State of Texas, and more particularly described as follows, to-wit: The first tract beginning at a stake thirty feet from the corner of a lot previously sold Alsie Harris by J. W. McCarty and on the South side of the Herbert's Ferry road (now Main Street of the City of Eagle Lake) thence with said road N. 42 degrees W. 30 feet; thence at right angles S. 48 degrees W. 105 feet; thence parallel with said road S. 42 degrees E. 30 feet; thence N. 48 degrees E. 105 feet to the place of beginning. List of 'Don'ts' for Housewives

A housewife suggests the following 'Don'ts' in connection with fighting the high cost of living, says the Dallas News:

Don't deprive yourself and family of necessities. Eliminating luxuries merely entails a little self-denial, but doing without the necessities of life undermines our strength and renders us unfit for the battle of existence.

Don't try to stretch your income too far. There is a limit to everything and money, alas, is not made of India rubber.

Don't imagine that pleasure must always be bought and paid for in dollars and cents. Money can not buy the best things in this world—life, love, health and happiness—and there are many simple, wholesome pleasures free for all.

Don't (if you are of the fairer sex) waste your substance in the flimsy pumps that ruin your feet, and flimsier silk stockings that ruin your pocketbook.

Don't (if you are a man) expect the feminine portion of the household to have a corner on economy. Get the habit yourself. Reduce the daily allowance of cigars or cigarettes, purchase a safety razor and shine your own shoes once in a while. The exercise will do you good.

Don't try to cultivate a grand opera taste on a nickel show income. No use of hitching your wagon to a star when there's a horse handy.

Don't let greed for gold overshadow all things else. Life is too short to sacrifice everything to a pursuit of the elusive dollar. Men may come and men may go, but it runs on forever.

And lastly, don't despise small economies. Remember that big banks accounts from little nickles grow.

What Did It Wish?

Jimmy was always very anxious to find the wisbone in his chicken.

One day he looked on eagerly while his mother cut his chicken for him.

Finally he caught sight of the end of the wishbone, but alas! it was broken.

"Oh, mother," he exclaimed excitedly, "the chicken wished before I got it!"—Judge.
