"Now Is The Time."

The spring-like winter is nearing the end of its last month. There have been no frosts to kill disease germs, which fact renders cleaning up more imperative. Thoroughly over-haul back yards and alleys. For the sake of decency and health don't pile the trash and filth into streets. Light the cleansing fires instead of trusting the winds heaven to blow your dirt into lot of your neighbor's. There's been, recently, a good deal of complaint of that sort of shiftlessness.

Remember you get a chance at a $5.00 gold piece with every 50c purchase at Traylor's.

Mrs. G. W. Deaton.

A deep sorrow was spread over the entire town last Saturday morning when the news was received that Mrs. G. W. Deaton of this city had died at an early hour that morning at 216 Maverick Grove, San Antonio, where she had been a short while over a month, having gone to that city in the hope that the change of climate would restore her failing health. Mrs. Deaton was a conscientious Christian and a devoted member of the Methodist church. She had been in ill health for the past several years, and with her husband and daughter, Miss Margaret, had moved to San Antonio hoping that the move would be beneficial to her. She leaves two daughters, Misses Eula and Margaret, one son, Mr. G. Herman Deaton, and a heart-broken husband to mourn her irreparable loss, to whom the HEADLIGHT extends its sincere sympathy in their sad hour of trouble. The body was shipped to Batesville, Mississippi, Mrs. Deaton's former home, accompanied by all the family, for interment.

Mr. J. B. Clements came in last Saturday morning from Houston and spent the day in the city, leaving on the afternoon train for his home in Louisiana. We regretted very much to learn that Mr. Clements had resigned his position here as rough rice buyer for the Eagle Lake rice milling company. Mr. Clements has been with the Eagle Lake mill for the past four years and has made a great many friends here who regret to see him leave our town. He stated that while he had yet made no definite contract for this year, it is likely that he will engage in the rice business in Eastern Texas.

Mrs. H. W. Rayner entertained a few of her friends at her beautiful home at Lakeside in a most delightful manner last Monday evening, those present being Misses Jaquelin, Bruce, Emma and Letty Lewis and Aubrey Whitten of Richmond, and Messrs. Wm. H. Chancey of St. Louis, John G. York, N. W. Callison and Bruce McCarty. A number of musical selections were rendered during the evening and the vocal solos, by the charming hostess, were greatly enjoyed by the party. Delightful refreshments of cheese sandwiches, bread and butter sandwiches, turkey, pickles, olives and beer were served. All present declare the entertainment to have been one of the most enjoyable ever attended.

The HEADLIGHT for all the news $1.00 a year.
