J. NATHAN & SON, Eagle Lake.

CURLEY HOWARD KILLED. Accidentally Shot and Killed When Snagging in Hands of Platt Lott.

Mr. Joe Rosinsky came in from the farm, about two miles west of here, Saturday afternoon and reported that Grant Howard, better known among the colored people as "Curley" Howard, had been killed on his place shortly after the noon hour that day by Platt Lott, another negro boy who is only about twelve or thirteen years of age.

The dead negro is about nineteen years old and a son of Chub Howard, a negro well known in this county. Judge J. K. Davidson and Constable J. M. Callison went at once to the scene of the trouble.

Constable Callison placed Lott under arrest to await Judge Davidson's verdict of the inquest. Lott claiming the killing was accidental. The two negroes with several others were preparing to go hunting and began scuffling over a loaded gun when, by some means, the gun was discharged, the whole load of small shot taking effect in Howard's chest, making a hole large enough to put a man's fist in. The evidence taken before Judge Davidson showed plainly that the killing was purely accidental, and this was his verdict. Lott was released from custody.

Read every item in the business local column in the HEADLIGHT this week. This is a department that you can't afford to overlook if you are housekeeping and buy your supplies in Eagle Lake. To economical housekeepers this is the most important department of the paper.

A negro band struck town yesterday and in consequence the young folks of the city enjoyed a dance at the opera house last night. The crowd was not large but the hop was enjoyed by all present.
