VA Benefit Increases In Feb. Checks

Five to 10 percent increases authorized for 2.5 million veterans and survivors by two bills signed December 15 will be reflected in February checks until early February. The increases will cost an estimated $195 million the first year.

VA officials stressed that no application for the increases will be necessary. They will be included automatically on February checks.

Under PL 92-198, the administrator explained, current payment and income limitation tables are eliminated. They are replaced by an innovative formula approach which provides better allocation of pension benefits according to relative need and also avoids disproportionate reductions of VA pensions when outside income increases.

The other new law, PL 92-197, provides a 10 percent increase for 186,000 widows of veterans who died of service-connected causes. Called dependency and indemnity compensation, such payments are also made under some circumstances to children and parents of veterans. About 53,000 children will receive five percent and 66,000 parents 6.5 percent increases under the law which will cost an estimated $67.5 million the first year.

VA officials stressed that no application for the increases will be necessary. They will be included automatically on February checks.

Avoid Simple Errors On Tax Returns

Simple errors on 1971 Federal income tax returns can delay refunds and cause taxpayers trouble, according to Allison B. Clark, administrative officer of Internal Revenue for Brenham.

Here is a suggested simple check list:

1. Use the preaddressed peel-off label or print or type name and address, including zip code.
2. List your Social Security number correctly on a joint return, both husband's and wife's numbers should be reported.
3. Use correct tax table.
4. Total your deductions if you itemize them on Schedule A.
5. Check arithmetic.
6. Attach Forms W-2 from all employers to the back and top of Form 1040.
7. Sign your return. Both husband and wife must sign a joint return.

CLASSIFIED PAYS OFF!!!

If you don't believe that it pays to advertise in the Headlight, just ask the Windel Bells. They offered a couple of dog houses, free, in an ad in last week's paper and received over fifty calls the first few days the paper was out.

Mr. Bell said they finally had to take the phone off the hook to get a break from the flood of calls.

HAS OPERATION

Alvin W. Kohleffel underwent an emergency appendectomy in Eagle Lake Community Hospital last week and was quite ill. Friends will be glad to hear the Councilman Kohleffel is improved and he hopes to be out of the hospital soon.

The paramount question before the country today is, "How much is the down payment?"

Rotarians Hear Program By Floral Designer

Mrs. Helyn Farris, owner of Helyn's Flower Basket in Eagle Lake, who has gained wide renown over the Southwest for her talented floral designs, presented the program to Eagle Lake Rotarians last Wednesday, describing some of her experiences while participating as a designer at schools in Texas, Louisiana and Monterey, Mexico.

Mrs. Farris is one of the few women designers featured at floral design schools. She showed by slide film some of her designs that won wide acclaim from varied audiences.

She stressed some of her experiences at the Monterey School where she was the only woman designer from the U.S.

Mrs. Farris uses the materials produced by the chamber of commerce to advertise this community as the "Goose Hunting Capital of the World," in many of her presentations and she commented that Eagle Lake gets a lot of publicity and interest from florists attending the schools.

She told the Rotarians that they in Eagle Lake have an excellent opportunity to promote this community worldwide at the Rotary International convention to be held this summer in Houston.

She had on display a coin given to her in appreciation for her work at the Monterey show which commemorates the 375th anniversary of that city. The coin is only one of 1,000 issued for the commeration and is one of her most prized possessions.

She was introduced by her husband, William L. Farris, program chairman for the day. Mr. Farris stressed the importance of the floral business to the economy of the state and nation.

Medicare Hosp Deductible Up To $68

"The hospital deductible under the Medicare program went up to $68 beginning January 1972," said Fenner Roth of the Houston social security office today.

Since hospital costs rose substantially in 1970, the law requires that a higher deductible be set up beginning effective next January; under the formula in the law, the new hospital deductible is based on the ratio between hospital costs in 1970 and the costs in 1966, the year Medicare began. That ratio is multiplied by $40 and the result rounded to the nearest $4. The result is an increase from $66 to $68.

Miss Pamela Derrick, Jerome Laskoskie Exchange Vows Here

MR. AND MRS. JEROME LASKOSKIE

Miss Pamela Kaye Derrick of Eagle Lake became the bride of Jerome Laskoskie of Orchard in a pretty double ring ceremony at the First Baptist Church in Eagle Lake at 2:30, Sunday afternoon, January 9. The Rev. Raymond Woodruff officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Derrick, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Laskoskie of Orchard are parents of the groom.

Mrs. Clara Mae Nash served as organist for the occasion. She accompanied Miss Lule Derrick and Bob Griffith as they sang "It's The Morning of Our Lives" preceding the ceremony. - Mr. Griffith also accompanied on the piano.

An arrangement of large white chrysanthemums and blue iris adorned the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white satin made by Mrs. John Beseda. It was trimmed with scalloped Chantilly lace at the empire waist and around the bottom of the ball-shaped skirt. Tiny covered buttons accented the long sleeves and the bodice which had a scooped neckline. A tiara of fresh flowers held the train of scalloped Chantilly lace in place. She carried a nosegay of white feathered chrysanthemums with blue and green gypsophilla, camellia foliage, and velvet streamers.

Serving the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Miss Lule Derrick. She wore a formal length gown of aquamarine brushed velvet with an empire bodice, scooped neckline, and long sleeves. Ruffles adorned the neckline and sleeves, and tiny covered buttons accented the bodice and sleeves. She carried a rounded style bouquet of blue carnations with streamers of blue and green velvet. A spray of blue and white mums adorned her hair.

James Satterwhite of Sommerville served the groom as best man.

Miss Sandra Lee Sides attended the bride as flower girl. She carried a basket of blue carnations and wore a tiny array of white feathered mums in her hair. The ring bearer was Richard Dodd Rhodes.

Performing usher duties were Louie Wayne Sides, Michael Wayne Lednicky, David Rhodes, cousins of the bride, and Clarence Laskoskie, brother of the groom.

The bride's mother, ushered to her seat by Louis Wayne Sides, a nephew, chose a pale blue knit dress with matching accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Laskoskie chose a light blue dress with beige accessories. Both wore corsages of blue carnations.

At the close of the ceremony Bob Griffith played the guitar and sang the wedding song.

RECEPTION FOLLOWS

A reception followed the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church. Mrs. Nancy Zikuk registered guests in the Bride's Book at a table centered with an anniversary candle with white daisies and blue cornflowers clustered at its base.

The bride's table, covered with a floor length lace cloth, held the three-tiered white wedding cake decorated with blue roses, made by Mrs. Henry Dostal, and a crystal punch service. Serving the cake were Misses Janet Bauer and Elizabeth Reed. Mrs. Wanda Henry and Miss Patty Henkst poured the punch. Centering the table was an arrangement of white gladiola and large white chrysanthemums in a crystal compote.

The round groom's table was covered with a green cloth of linen and lace. An arrangement of blue iris centered the table holding the groom's cake, kolaches, made by the groom's mother and a silver coffee service. Serving the cake and kolaches was Miss Brenda Laskoskie; and Miss Deborah Dye poured the coffee.

The bride chose an A line royal blue knit dress with pearl buttons down the front, long sleeves and navy blue accessories for her wedding trip to Houston.

The couple plan to reside at 1327 South 11th St. in Waco where Mr. Laskoskie will be working while Pam continues her education at Baylor University.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The rehearsal dinner was given on Saturday, January 8 in the W. H. Derrick home. Hostesses for the occasion were the bride's aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rhodes of Buras, La. and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Sides of Houston. The wedding party enjoyed a delicious menu of barbequed chicken, rice salad, baked beans and all the trimmings.

WILD GAME HUNT

If you ever have a Friday night with nothing to do and at least an ounce of energy, try taking thirty kids on a "Coon Hunt". Haven't really decided who had the most fun, the young people or the over "twenty" people? My only thought was: "I wonder what the coon thought when he was faced with forty flashlights?"

Friday night the Live Oak Wildlife Project Group ventured on a coon hunt at Sulden Ranch and had a cook out.

After a hearty supper of hot dogs and marshmallows, graciously served by Austin Bell Muesch, who quickly learned to serve the second hot dog, "same as last time".

The members were divided into groups to take care of the adults, so they wouldn't get lost.

Robert Wayne Dunn of Weimar brought over his tan and blacks and Roy Menke brought "Schultz", no he's not the chihuahua.

Off we were over sand, gravel, brush and various other sundries found in pastures.

Elvera Schneider, Helen Mazac, Mary Menke and yours truly undoubtly had the best time because we gripped the most.

Other brave souls serving as leaders were: Manuel Schneider, Roy Menke, Rueben Muesch, Leland Neundorff, William Neundorff, Billy Jo Neuendorff, Robert Dunn, and W. G. "Grandpa" Schoellmann.

If anyone needs lessons on climbing trees check with Billy Jo Neuendorff, I believe he's the champ.

After all was said and done we had one dead coon, lost one dog and had one HECK of a good time!

Maybe some day we'll figure out what that strange odor was.

P. S. The dog came home later, and it wasn't "Schultz" that got lost either.

The following were elected officers for the next year: President; Michael Urban; Vice-President; Gayle Muesch; Secretary; Robert Goodman; Treasurer: Robert Goodman; Reporter: Johnny Ploido.
