Memorial

IN MEMORY
Of Father A. W. Didner
In memory of a voice that was loved by all, who has gone to a home above and left the ones here who miss him so. He never missed a call where he could give comforting kindness to the ones who were in sorrow or trouble.
January 25th is the anniversary of the day when he left the earthly walk six years ago. We pay tribute to his memory.
Selma Wood Falen

Cathy Haines Becomes Bride Of Robert Michael Young

MRS. ROBERT MICHAEL YOUNG

In an impressive double-ring ceremony held at the First Baptist Church in Sheridan at 4:30 P.M. on January 8th, Miss Cathy Maudie Haines became the bride of Lt. Robert Michael Young, United States Army. The Rev. Claude Dunlap, pastor of the church, officiated at the candlelight service. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon D. Haines of Houston and is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haines of Sheridan. The groom is the son of Colonel and Mrs. James J. Young of San Antonio. Wedding music was provided by Wilson Ward of Houston, who sang "Twelfth of Never" and "Wither Thou Goest."
The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a bridal gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta. The antebellum silhouette gown featured a high ring neckline with sheer yoke and full-blown Bishop sleeves. From a busque waistline, fell the very full skirt. Tiers of lace extended to a full sweep of train. She wore the family heirloom pearls and chose a Juliet headpiece of imported lace, encrusted with pearls, from which fell two pearl side panels of illusion and a chapel length panel. Her only jewelry was her mother's pearls. Her bridal bouquet was round-shaped and of white carnations nestled in camellia foliage with long satin streamers.
White baskets holding arrangements of white mums, red stock, and red carnations flanked the altar. Centering the altar background were twin candelabras, holding tall white tapers. Plumouse fern with gypsophila interspersed was used to decorate the candelabras and used also to trail along either side of the altar rail and to frame a wall-decor on the back wall of the sanctuary. An arrangement of white gladioli and red carnations in a milk glass vase was on the piano.
Mrs. Ida Haines of Houston, the bride's sister-in-law, was Matron of Honor. She wore a gown with a ruby velvet bodice and a red printed chiffon skirt of slipper length and carried a white fur muff adorned with deep red roses and red velvet ribbons.
The bridesmaids were Miss Brenda Trojanowsky, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Bill Hueter, cousin of the bride; and Miss Carolyn Crispi. The bridesmaids wore dresses with emerald velvet bodices and green printed slipper length chiffon skirts, and they carried white fur muffs with red roses and green velvet ribbons.
Paul Marshall, United States Army, served as best man. Groomsmen were John Scavone, Gary Kensing, and Charles M. Haines, brother of the bride. Thomas Caldbeck and Bob Marshall were ushers.
The bride's mother wore a pale blue scooped neck dress with a long sleeved matching coat. A white orchid with a yellow center corsage lent the final touch to her ensemble.
The groom's mother was dressed in a long sleeved high neck pale green dress with a gold brooch. Her corsage was a white orchid with a yellow center.

RECEPTION FOLLOWS
Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held at the Sheridan School Cafeteria. Guests were registered by Miss Patricia Kanak as they entered the reception hall at a small lace covered table centered by the white bride's book and a white rice tree with blue rice bags. The bride's table was covered with a full skirted lace cloth, edged in a streamer of plumosus fern and gypsophila. The wedding cake was a white four-tiered confection with connecting columns of doves, and was trimmed in blue sugar-spun roses topped by a miniature bride and groom beneath an archway. Punch was served from a crystal service, Miss Sue Johnson and Miss Aileen Botard served the cake and Mrs. Darwyn Johnson poured punch. Nuts and mints were the bride's items on the bride's table.
The groom's table, covered in lace, was centered by a chocolate groom's cake trimmed in rose buds and topped by the gold rings, signifying wedding bands, with the initials of the bride and groom in each respectively. Sandwiches were served from crystal plates and coffee was poured from a silver service. Miss Cheryl Kay Hinze and Mrs. James Chovanetz served the groom's cake and sandwiches. Miss Carol Botard served coffee.
Members of the houseparty were Miss Sue Johnson, Mrs. Darwyn Johnson, Miss Aileen Botard, Miss Carol Botard, Mrs. Cheryl Kay Hinze, Mrs. James Chovanetz, Miss Patricia Kanak, Mrs. Harry Johnson, Mrs. Howard Criswell, Mrs. J. D. Ashley, Mrs. Barto Wilson, Mrs. Jean Walker, and Mrs. Henry Bena. Helping with the rice bags at the reception following the ceremony were Miss Jackie Trojanowsky, cousin of the bride; Miss Cheri Landry and Miss Mary Young, sisters of the groom. All were presented white carnation corsages.
Cathy and Mike opened the many lovely gifts from a lace covered gift table. For her "going away" ensemble, the bride wore a brown swiss suede suit, with brown matching shoes and bag. Her corsage was white carnations.
The bride is a graduate of North Shore Senior High School, Houston, and attended Sam Houston State University and the University of Texas. The groom is a graduate of MacArthur High School, San Antonio. He attended the University of Iowa and graduated from the University of Texas. He is presently attending University of Texas Medical School in San Antonio.
The new Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Young will make their home in San Antonio.

ATTEND DAR TEA
Mrs. Cardner C. Duncan, Miss Sallie Fletcher Jones, Miss Kathryn McRee, Mrs. W. H. Harrison and Mrs. Travis L. Wegenhoft attended a tea for the Daughters of the American Revolution at the home of Mrs. Lester Hastedt in Columbus, Friday, Jan. 21. Mrs. Mozelle Dayvault was co-hostess for the tea.
