EGYPT NEWS

(MRS. B. H. TOLLIVER)

Friends of Mrs. L. H. Obenhaus regret that she is a patient in Caney Valley Memorial Hospital for treatment. She had the misfortune to fall, inflicting a cut on her head, which necessitated several stitches.

Mrs. G. H. Northington Jr. was able to come home from Caney Valley Hospital last week after several days' stay for treatment.

Raymond and Bobbie Kallas of Houston spent Saturday with their mother, Mrs. A. J. Kallas.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. (Gordon) Peikert are receiving congratulations since the arrival of a little daughter, Denise Lanae, Monday, Jan. 31st, at Caney Valley Hospital. She weighed seven pounds and three ounces. Welcoming her are a brother, Rod, her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker of Glen Flora and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Peikert, also great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Griswold of Cleveland, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Duncan returned home last week [illegible] Phoenix, Arizona.

J. Bruce Hancock and daughter, Miss Jennie Hancock, of El Campo were Egypt visitors Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. Roy Montgomery of Dallas spent a brief time in the George H. Northington III home Saturday.

Miss Mary Lou Krenek attended the Texas Junior College Student Government Meeting in Austin Monday of last week. She also visited with friends in Austin.

Cameron Duncan of San Antonio spent the week-end with his father, F. B. Duncan.

Mesdames L. R. Brittain and Jim Peikert of the Bonus Baptist Church Visitation Committee, visited with the shut-ins of this area Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Mortensen of Houston spent the week-end at their Rocking M Ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Matthys, also of Houston were at the ranch Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 29th and 30th.

Miss Jeanie Parker is the guest of her aunts, Mesdames Gordon and Allen Peikert, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker, of Glen Flora. Albert Pope of Splendora spent the week-end in Egypt and Glen Flora.

Mrs. Mentor Northington visited with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Whatley, in Houston, Friday.

The canasta club enjoyed a pleasant afternoon with Mrs. Kucherka Thursday, Jan. 20, when she had three tables of players at her home on Caney Creek. Refreshments were served by Mesdames C. D. Stephens, L. H. Obenhaus and R. L. Lange. Snacks were served during the games and salad and sweet courses after the games.

Mrs. R. L. Lange was hostess to the club last Thursday afternoon with three tables of players at her home in Eagle Lake. Mesdames Edith Duty, Henry Rutledge, and G. M. Cason were high, low, and guest scorers. Mrs. Lange served snacks and a pleasing party plate to each other guests.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Mt. Gilead Cemetery, for James Cornelius Shelton, age 72. He passed away at his home Thursday following a heart attack. "Neelie", as he was known to his many friends had spent most of his life on the Duncan Brothers farm, where he was a faithful employee. His survivors include sixteen nieces and nephews.

Colorado County 4-H Club News

by DOROTHY SCHOMBERG, and JEFF WALDROP

The St. Mary's 4-H Wildlife Project Group held its regular meeting on Thursday, February 3, 1972 at the St. Mary's school library.

During the meeting the group saw the movie "On the Trail of the White Tail Deer". Also at the meeting Father Edward Schoellmann showed some slides on an elephant that he had killed in Africa.

Present at the meeting were 22 members, 2 leaders and 1 guest. - Stephanie Schneider-Reporter

SHERIDAN MEETS

On Monday, February 7, 1972 the Sheridan 4-H Club held its regular meeting. There were 17 members and 4 parents present.

At the meeting the members discussed programs for the remainder of the year. Also the club played a "Moon Crash" game.

The next regular meeting is scheduled for Monday March 6, 1972.

DRUG PROGRAM

The St. Mary's (Nada) and Garwood - Vox Populi 4-H clubs will combine their regular meetings during the month of March, and have a program on drugs and drug abuse. An officer from the Texas Department of Public Safety will present the program.

The meeting is scheduled for Thursday, March 2, 1972 at 7:00 p.m. at St. Mary's Parish Hall in Nada. All members from both clubs are urged to attend for this should be a very interesting program.

LIVE OAK

Mrs. Saul's Food Project met February 8th in her home. They studied dairy foods and prepared chocolate milk shakes using non-fat dry milk and a vanilla milk using fresh milk.

Mrs. Dulchau's group met at the Agri. Building on February 7th. They discussed the lesson entitled "Lets Explore the Milk Group."

They discussed the dishes they made at home. They went over the lesson and filled in casts of these items: One quart of milk, one-half gallon, one gallon of milk, mild cheddar, sharp cheddar, and extra sharp cheddar. They went over the chart called, "This Thing Called Food", Mrs. Dulchau told each member what they were to do and explained how to do it.

Tammy Novak washed dishes, Susie Henneke dried them, Beth Ellis made orange milk shakes and Marcy Mikeska did a milk experiment.

Each member enjoyed drinking a milk shake and talked about the results of the experiment.
