Mr. And Mrs. Tanner Walker Honored On 50th Wedding Anniv.

Mr. and Mrs. Tanner Walker of Columbus were honored on Sunday afternoon, December 28th, between the hours of three to five o'clock, in observance of their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Hosts for the special occasion were their children, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. (Sally) Voskamp, Jr. of Halletsville and Mr. and Mrs. Massey (Mari Hannah) Duncan of Columbus, assisted by grandchildren Walker Duncan of Columbus, Mrs. Elizabeth Kerr of Big Spring, and Tanner Voskamp and Mrs. Johanah Boerwald, both of Halletsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker were married in a lovely Christmas wedding ceremony in the home of her mother, Mrs. Sallie Castles, on the morning of December 25th, 1925, on Hickory Street in Abilene, Texas. Judge J. E. Robinson of Anson, uncle of the bride, gave her in marriage, and Dr. J. W. Hunt, president of McMurry College, read the wedding vows.

The couple has lived all their married life in Colorado County, with Mr. Walker being engaged in the ranching and cattle business. They purchased the Live Oak Hotel in Columbus in July, 1944, from Mrs. Jack Hillmer and have resided there since. Both have been actively prominent in church, civic, service and social functions for many, many years.

Family pictures were displayed in the living room as well as the bride's book, which contained mementos and clippings from the significant events in the lives of the couple. Close friends assisting in the house party for the reception included the following: Miss Norma Shaw, Miss Helene Monfort, Mrs. Mozelle Dayvault, Mrs. Emma Simmons, Mrs. Johnnie Lee Moore, Mrs. Dorothy Massey, Mrs. Helen Gosch, Mrs. Laura Brasher, Mrs. Margaret Griffith, Mrs. Edith (Peaches) Peters and Mrs. Lois Burt. Also assisting were: Clifford Austin, Lonnie Coleman, Bessie Coleman, Magnolia Waddle and Betty Waddle who have worked for the Walkers for many years.

The serving table was covered with a hand embroidered white cloth and centered with an arrangement of soft, yellow roses and bridal wreath gracefully arranged in a silver compote. A three-tiered wedding cake delicately decorated and topped with a bridal couple, encircled with the inscription "50th", was served from one end of the table and Christmas punch from the other. Refreshments included assorted party sandwiches, nuts and coffee.

Mr. Walker wore a yellow rose in his lapel; the house-party was designated by wearing yellow mum corsages; and Mrs. Walker was graciously gowned in a designer creation of soft yellow hand-printed silk with floral motifs in tones of tangerine, lilac and moss green, and she wore a yellow orchid corsage.

Between two to three hundred guests registered during the reception hours with registrations being from Columbus, Garwood, Eagle Lake, Weimar, Halletsville and other surrounding communities. Special out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nikkel of Tracey, Iowa and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Rozenboom of Blessey, Iowa, who became close friends with the Walkers by staying at the Live Oak Hotel for numerous years on their regular visits to Texas; also, Mr. and Mrs. Q. B. Morrison of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Castles and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Castles of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Moss of Refugio, and Mr. and Mrs. Pryor Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Simmons and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Simmons and daughter, all of Austin.

Lovely floral tributes and arrangements, symbolic of the festive occasion as well as the atmosphere of the holiday season, were evident throughout the entrance hall, foyer, living room, and reception rooms of the hotel; all compliments of relatives and friends. Best wishes and sincere congratulations are extended Mr. and Mrs. Walker by the entire communities throughout the county.

County Judge Proclaims Soil Testing Week

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, agricultural production accounts for an annual income in excess of forty-seven million dollars and is of great importance to the economy of Colorado County; and

WHEREAS, the best use of our soils should be of vital concern to everyone—those living on the farms and ranches as well as those living in the urban areas; and

WHEREAS, high levels of fertilizer and fertilizer materials properly applied are essential for the soils of Colorado County to remain most productive; and

WHEREAS, there exists a continuing need for concerted efforts on the part of farmers, ranchers and business leaders to further increase agricultural income in Colorado County through the use of sound fertility practices; therefore

IT IS RESOLVED that I, as County Judge of Colorado County, do hereby proclaim the week of January 11-17, 1976, as Colorado County Soil Testing Week and call attention to all citizens to this observance.

Lester Cranek,
County Judge
Colorado County, Texas

GLIDDEN WATER DIST. GETS $60,000

U.S. Rep. J. J. Pickle last week announced a new loan for the Glidden Water District.

The Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) has provided a loan of $60,000 to the Glidden Fresh Water Supply District No. 1. This money supplements the original $113,100 loan to the Glidden District given in 1973.

The new loan will be used to provide new water service to 120 families living in the Glidden Community, and will eliminate health hazards of present waste disposal systems and will reduce pollution in the area.

Raymond J. Heine, P. O. Box 42, Glidden, Texas, is the president of the Glidden Fresh Water Supply District No. 1.

$500 Reward Offered For Garwood Thefts

The county sheriff's office received a call at 11:25 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 2 from Art Willis reporting that a building which he owns near Garwood had been broken into and a number of items taken. He said that the building has been broken into several times.

He reported taken in the last entry a Clarion quadraphonic stereo, one steel belted tire and wheel, two small antique angels, a hammer and a prospector's pick and leather case.

Mr. Willis informed the sheriff's office that he would give a $500 reward for information leading to the arrest of the person or persons who took part in the burglary. Persons who have information may contact the sheriff's office and all information will be kept strictly confidential, said Chief Deputy Sheriff Jim Broussard.

Xi Pi Psi Has Meeting In Mahalitc Home

The Xi Pi Psi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met in the home of Jo Ann Mahalitc on December 9. The table centerpiece, a doll dressed in red, white and blue, carried out the 1976 International Theme of Beta Sigma Phi, "Let Heritage Ring".

President Jo Ann Gertson called the meeting to order. The Opening Ritual was repeated. Service Chairman Cherry Corman reported on plans for the Christmas party at the Opportunity Center. Plans were made to provide a Merry Christmas for an Eagle Lake family. Cherry and Lynda Appelt were to make arrangements. Social Chairman Pat Cook reported on the Christmas social.

Rosebud Girl, Dorothy Baker, informed the chapter it was time to draw for new Secret Sisters for 1976. Thank yous were given.

Political chairman Jane Clipson gave a special report on Drug Education. The members were asked to fill out a questionnaire provided by a state agency on Drug Abuse.

Lynda Appelt and Cherry Corman presented the program, "Women Who Have Made a Difference". A resume of the life and works of Clara Barton, a woman who dared to do something different, was given. Cherry and Linda, assisted by Jo Ann Gertson, a local ambulance corps volunteer, demonstrated the method of artificial respiration. Each member was given an opportunity to practice giving artificial respiration on a "Mani-Dan". "Mr. Yuk", the latest program of poison prevention, was introduced to the group. "Mr. Yuk" stickers were passed out to the group. Both of these first aid measures could help one become a woman who makes a difference, the difference of life and death.

The members repeated the Closing Ritual and Mizpah. An informal social hour followed. The group enjoyed wrapping gifts for the children at the Opportunity Center during the social hour.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 13th. Martha Lockller will serve as hostess.

Tickets On Sale For CC Banquet Jan. 19
