Master Plan For Sealy Schools

This 30,000-square-foot middle school, now under construction, is the first phase of a 10-year master plan developed for the Sealy Independent School District by Gensler and Associates/Architects and Louis R. Sour & Associates to prepare for rapid outward expansion of the Houston suburbs. The district is 50 miles west of downtown Houston. The two-story facility, shown here in an architect's rendering, is designed with several energy conservation features. – Sealy News

Weimar Auxil. Gives $2000 To Hospital

Mrs. Nora Booth, president of the Weimar Hospital Auxiliary, presented a $2,000 check to Mrs. Jane Rouse, hospital administrator, at a meeting of the auxiliary's executive committee Aug. 1. The money is to be used to help with the purchase of the new defibrillating equipment recently arrived at Youens Memorial Hospital.

Some of the auxiliary members got a quick look at the equipment during the check presentation and while it is not a big piece of equipment, it does big things.

It has been used since its arrival and surely has been appreciated. The presentation of this check is the culmination of many hours of hard work by some very dedicated ladies and the help of a community that cares. -Weimar Mercury.

Sealy School Dist. Faces Tax Suit

A suit has been filed in Austin County by Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation against Sealy Independent School District, the president of the school board, and R. L. Dittert and equalization board, which includes Melvin Meier, Leroy Zapalac and Delmar Tipp. Mrs. Glenda Hillboldt is president of the school board. Dittert is the school tax assessor-collector. The case was due to be held in Bellville Tuesday, Aug. 16.

Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation alleges that the valuation placed on its property in the Sealy school district is too high, contesting the Pritchett and Abbott Reproduction Cost Schedule. The corporation claims the property is worth $186,610. The Pritchett and Abbott firm recommended a value of $511,310, which was approved by Mr. Dittert and the equalization board. -Sealy News.

Weimar School Tax Rate Cut 5c

The teachers got pay raises in the new school finance bill passed in the special session of the legislature, and the kids got five days lopped off the school term. Now there's something for the taxpayer – at Weimar, anyway – a nickel cut in the tax rate.

The Weimar ISD board Monday night adopted a budget of $855,435 for 1977-78, up $113,115 from last year's $742,320, and set the tax rate at 40c per $100. Broken down, 36.5c is for maintenance, 3.5c for debt service.

Supt. M. K. Merrem said the decrease was a direct result of the new bill, which reduced the Weimar district's share of funding by $86,500. The state for the next two years will assume 85 percent of the basic school program cost instead of the current 76 percent.

The budget is a balanced one, with expected income matching the expected $855,435 expenditures. Weimar Mercury.

Columbus Record School Budget

The Columbus school board gave its approval Monday night, Aug. 8 to a record budget of almost $1.4 million for the 1976-77 school year, an increase of less than 1 per cent over a year ago.

The balanced, but tight budget forecasts expenditures of $1,395,850 for general obligations and $139,100 for principal and interest on the school's debt.

Superintendent John Saul said school district's assessed value is down about $1.5 million which means less income from local property taxes. But the state's share of the school program is up enough to offset the loss in local income.

The board also left unchanged the tax rate of $2 per $100 of assessed valuation. Of each $2 in local tax revenue, the school will commit $1.50 for school operations and 50 cents for principal and interest. Colorado County Citizen.

East Bernard Schools To Open Aug. 29

The School Board of the East Bernard Independent School District met in a special meeting on Thursday, July 21 and the school calendar was tentatively approved setting the first day of school on August 29th. This is due to a change in the number of teaching days required by the State.

In other actions, Richard Dupnel of Needville was elected to a teaching and coaching position in high school.

Paul Turner from Brookshire replaces Wilfred Rejsek as coach of the eighth grade team.

Alfred Schaer has been reassigned to the position of business manager. His duties started on August 1st. 1977. East Bernard Tribune.
