Colorado on a Rampage.

The Colorado river is on a rampage owing to the heavy rains of this week. The Alton bottom has been a regular sea. The crops on the lower river bottoms have been flooded and ruined. At the hour of closing our forms, at noon yesterday, the river had reached a height of 36 feet and was on a stand still at Columbus, and the water was red, showing that the waters from Austin had reached that point. At eleven o'clock yesterday morning the water was just at the top of the Faber Planting Company's levees, and a force of 200 men was sand-bagging the levees. Up to that hour no material damage had resulted in that vicinity from the high water.

News was brought to town at noon yesterday that the river was breaking over at the mouth of Old Campy in the Thatcher field.

Special prices in job printing next week at this office.

Our sympathy is extended Mr. J. P. Anderson in the death of his sister, Mrs. M. E. Stafford, which occurred in Wharton Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, while she was on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Neal, at that place. The body was brought up on the Cane Belt Wednesday night and shipped to Columbus and buried in the family burying grounds there Thursday morning. Mr. Anderson is at present in Richmond, Va., attending the Confederate reunion, where the sad message was sent him.

Mrs. Hart of San Antonio, State Commander of the Ladies of the Maccabees of the World, spent Monday in the city. The local hive gave a reception for her at the opera house in the afternoon, during which time delightful ice cream and cake were served. In the evening Mrs. Adamson entertained Mrs. Hart and the officers of the local hive at dinner. Mrs. Hart is expected to visit this hive again in July.

The Eagle Lake base ball team will go to Wharton on the early Cane Belt train tomorrow morning where a match game of ball will be played with the team of that place if the weather permits. The line-up for Eagle Lake is as follows: Cooper, catcher; Walker, pitcher; Harbert, 1st base; Guyann, 2nd base; Roberts, 3rd base; Sanders, (field captain) short stop; Lengerke, right field; Nathan, center field; Strahan, left field; Mercer, substitute; John C. York, team manager.

NOTICE—I now have the agency formerly handled by Mrs. J. T. McCarty, for Levy Bros., of Houston, and will appreciate your orders. Phone 42.

Mrs. L. E. Fell.

Dr. and Mrs. F. O. Norris left last night on the Cane Belt for a visit to Atlantic City. They will also stop in Washington, Chicago and Philadelphia, and on their return will visit Jamestown and see the exposition.

Mayor J. C. worth of the season's most wanted merchandise must be reduced as quickly as possible. Everything to be sold is First Class. No shoddy or shop-worn goods in this sale.

OUR MOTTO: Your money back if you are not satisfied.

It is a well known fact to the patrons of this store that we have purchased a big stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Ladies' and Gent's Furnishing Goods for the Spring and Summer. Owing to the bright prospects in February and March, we purchased very heavily, but the unexpected cold weather gave our business a setback and we find ourselves overstocked for this time of the year, hence, the only way to unload this big stock to the public is to cut and slash the prices. You are in need of Spring and Summer goods, and we must have the money, so you know the rest when you come to H. NUSSBAUMS store in the Norris Building, next to Eagle Lake Drug Company.
