Sheridan News By Velma Kutzer

The following children from the Sheridan Kindergarten class received their diplomas last Tuesday from W. C. Gohlke: Johnny Shaevinski, Amanda Ross, James Boisiou, Adrian Garza, Leslie Kershner, Stacy Rodriguez, David Rangel, Kim Smith, Tommy Garza, Trish Chisum, Christine Scott, Lucas Poole, Paul Hadac. The class presented a program of songs prior to their commencement.

A reminder that Thursday (today) is the monthly W.M.U. Friendship Fellowship Dinner. All senior citizens and retirees are invited.

The First Baptist Church will honor the nine Seniors from Sheridan next Sunday morning during the 11 o'clock worship services. So seniors be sure and attend! The church is proud and pleased to have Rev. Scott Jordan and his family move to Sheridan into the parsonage in full service to the church and community. The new pastor attends seminary classes each Monday in Houston and has 12 years of teaching experience in public school. His wife Carolyn was a physical therapist in the Lufkin School District this year. Their children are Laurean 5, Eric 3 and Sara 18 months.

Marie Vavrusa and Eunice New left Friday and returned Monday evening from a trip to Liberty where they visited Marie's relatives. An exciting part of the trip was to "Jones Country", where the two ladies saw Loretta Lynn and Conway Twitty perform.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ashley and John had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Werner and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Wroblushie, April and Buddy Jr. and Mark and Sylvia La Vine. The La Vine's have recently purchased the home belonging to B. J. Burris and are in the process of getting settled in. He is employed by Shell Oil Co. We welcome them to Sheridan.

The community was shocked and saddened Saturday morning to learn of the death of Vernon Haines. He was working cattle on his place north of Sheridan when he became ill and was rushed by ambulance to the Eagle Lake hospital. He passed away at 10.28. Services were held Monday from Kubena Funeral Home in Hallettsville with Rev. Bernie Hefer of Seguin officiating. Burial was in Cheetham Cemetery. A complete obituary can be found in the paper. Sympathy and prayers go out to his wife and family.

BODY LANGUAGE & DENTURES

Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could be sweet sixteen for life. Unfortunately as age rolls on, our bodies (including our gums) do change. What this means to the denture-wearer is that - no matter how perfect your dentures fit when you walk out of the office - eventually, they will have to be adjusted to harmonize with the changes in the gums and bony ridges which provide its support.

It's not hard to determine that a denture no longer fits properly. It feels loose, moves when it shouldn't, is uncomfortable and may interfere with speaking and eating ability. This is the time for action. Poorly-fitting dentures can harm your mouth. Constant irritation over a long period of time can contribute to the development of sores or tumors. This is not the time to adjust or repair them yourself. Improper home repair can cause serious harm.

See your dentist for any problems with your denture. Normally an adjustment for irritation or a relining for looseness may be the answer to your discomfort. Let's face it. We all change and our gums are no exception. If you're looking for someone to blame, try Mother Nature.

Presented as a public service to promote better dental health. From the office of DAVID W. EUERS, D.D.S., 704 S. McCarty Avenue, Eagle Lake, 234-3525.
