

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my book on either dyspepsia, the heart or the kidneys. Troubles of the stomach, heart or kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean stomach weakness, always. And the heart and kidneys as well, have their nerves. If you weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Restorative is sold by Eagle Lake Drug Co.

Not "Drifting"

It may be taken for granted that the public will understand the meaning of Editor White of the Emporia Gazette when he says "We are drifting toward simple honesty." It is clear that he seeks to convey the soothing idea that the world is waxing better and that the average of probity is expanding and attaining more symmetrical and robust proportions. Mr. White merely employed the wrong word, rather a singular blunder, by the way, for a person who ought to know as much about the christian warfare as his antecedents and training would lead the public to expect.

Editor White ought to know and does know that people, neither individually nor collectively, drift toward the right. They get there, it is true, by the primal law of self-preservation, but they have to fight to reach the goal.

It is in the direction of moral apathy and sinfulness that people drift. It is when the christian is "at ease in Zion" that he is in danger of "falling away." To hold to the things in this world that are true and lovely and of good report calls for untiring vigilance and it involves a ceaseless struggle. The maintenance of integrity and righteousness is not the fruit of listlessness or inertia. It means perpetual activity in keeping up the bars against temptation and stemming the tide against the forces of evil. There is no drifting about it. That is reserved for idlers and for the triflers who bear the relation of parasites to the social fabric.

From that ample and fruitful cranium of Editor White can he not bring forth from the "things new and old" that are stored there the admonitory lines of Isaac Watts?

Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vain world a friend to peace
To help me on to God?

Kills Johnson Grass.

There is a great amount of prejudice and abuse of the Johnson grass that is not justified. Where stock is raised upon grass and hay the Johnson grass furnished a good hay, and the quantity is more than twice that of timothy. It can be annihilated in two or three ways. If the grass be mowed when the embryo seeds are unpollinated, they are incapable of sprouting, therefore will not reproduce plants. If the land on which the Johnson grass is growing be plowed four inches during the winter and harrowed both ways, 50 per cent of the roots can be extracted from the soil, and the exposure to the freezes will kill them. Don't plow deep, as the soil will recover the roots—plow about as deep as the harrow can penetrate.

Try oats and mow them when in the dough state and the oats and Johnson grass will furnish a good quantity of hay.

Two years' grazing will destroy Johnson grass—nothing can live without a head longer than this period.

Sound Doctrine.

Did you ever happen to think that the newspaper men are among those who don't send out of town for their goods, and this is not because they have to buy at home, but because they have sense enough to know that if everybody sends away when they want goods the other town will survive and grow fat while their own town will soon be no more. There are some of the business men who are not so particular when they want a little printing.

They find out they can get some baking powder firm to furnish them bill heads or some other firm wants goods advertised and will give them a few letter heads or envelopes, and in many cases they think they can get better prices in the larger town, and off goes their order. But within a few days they will hear of some fellow who has ordered dry goods or groceries from some other town, and right away someone will want the newspaper man to "roast" the man who sends out of town for his goods. They forget about that stationery. You know Herald.

Perhaps you need a brace of energy, life and ambition. A suggestion—try I. W. HARPER whiskey. Sold by W. E. Welford.
