

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my book on either dyspepsia, the heart or the kidneys. Troubles of the stomach, heart or kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean stomach weakness, always. And the heart and kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Write me today, for sample and free book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Restorative is sold by Eagle Lake Drug Co.

Be careful that you do not catch the moneyphobia—that terrible epidemic which is making life so miserable to so many Americans. The millionaires are not the only people who are thus afflicted. The man with only a few hundreds can suffer equally as much in proportion to his means. Live in a rational atmosphere. Take time for recreation and social intercourse and let the world say that you enjoy life in the right sense—mad—Pittsburg Gazette.

Baseball Players and Foot Racers!
Louis J. Kruger, ex-champion long distance foot racer of Germany and Holland, writes, Oct. 27, 1901: "During my training of eight weeks' foot races at Salt Lake City, in April last, I used Ballard's Snow Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend Snow Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Eagle Lake Drug Co.

The state of New York is the last to know Platt, West Virginia the last to find out Elkins; Ohio still bears with Foraker; Montana is disgraced by Clark; and Texas is willing to be represented by Bailey. These offices go to prove that a public official can fool his home people long after every body else has found him out. Jennings (La.) Times Record.

A Lesson in Health.
Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system. Eagle Lake Drug Co.

San Augustine, Tex. Messrs. Thomas Davis and Sam Parker, two of the most energetic and successful farmers of the red land belt, have been experimenting the last few days with the boll weevil. They both state that since the soil became dry from the extreme hot weather, in plowing their cotton they noticed that when the boll weevils fall off on to the hot ground, they will not live longer than ten minutes; and often not longer than one minute. Their opinion is that if a man will place a soft brush on his plow stocks, so as to shake the plant without injuring it, thereby dislodging the bug so it will fall on to the hot ground that the weevil can be exterminated to a great extent. They are practical farmers and their advice should be heeded.

W. R. Ward, of Dyersburg, Tenn., writes: "This is to certify that I have used Orin's Laxative Fruit Syrup for chronic constipation, and it has proven, without a doubt, to be a thorough, practical remedy for this trouble, and it is with pleasure I offer my conscientious reference." There Are Few people who know how to take care of themselves—the majority do not. The most important organ in the body, the kidneys, will keep it in condition. V. C. Simpkins, Alba, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine for chills and fever and find it the best medicine I ever used. I would not be without it. It is as good for children as it is for grown-up people, and I recommend it. It is fine for la grippe." Sold by Eagle Lake Drug Co.

From a reminiscence article in the Texas Christian Advocate, Rev. H. G. Horton says that the first Methodist circuit in Texas was organized in 1821 by John Wesley Kinney, who held a camp meeting on the circuit in 1824 and among the members who then contributed to his salary were a Mr. Thomson who gave $50, Wm. B. Travis $25, Asa Mitchell $20, John Robb $15, David Ayers $10, A. T. Kerr $10, Wm. P. Smith $10. Travis was the hero who commanded the Alamo when it fell and perished at the head of his devoted band. Mitchell was in the battle of San Jacinto. Smith and Kerr became Methodist preachers and Ayers a noted Methodist layman of Galveston. It has long been known that Christ Church at Matagorda was the first Episcopal church organized in Texas, but this is the first knowledge we have that the first Methodist church was also organized in the county or that Col. Travis ever resided here. However, Hon. Wm. E. Austin tells us that Travis name often appears in the early official records of the county. Bay City Tribune.

NOTICE!
As it is a settled fact that the new liquor law compels saloons all over Texas to close for a period of from 15 to 20 days, it would be a good idea to leave your order with me, to be delivered at your house, the beer which you intend to use during that time. I can supply you with the following bottled beer:
Schlitz, Budweiser and Pilsener at $1.50 a dozen, and allow you to make a dozen for the bottles when returned. I also make reduction on the finest liquors to be had in Eagle Lake: $1.00 quart bottles at 75c; $1.25 quart bottles at $1.00; $1.50 quart bottles at $1.25. This gives you a chance to supply yourself for that period. Remember the date, July 12th all saloons will be closed. Don't miss the opportunity offered by me.

is now merely a memory of the past. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the family liniment of the 20th century. A positive cure for rheumatism, burns, cuts, sprains, neuralgia, etc. Mr. C. H. DOROTHY DIX will get her meed of praise from many a man. She speaks for thousands when she says: "Give me a flirt, give me a red-headed tartar, give me a bargain chaser, give me a woman who doesn't know whether an egg ought to boil two minutes or two hours, bring on your lecture platform ladies, or your Loretta Borgias who are handy with the poison bottle, but, good Lord, deliver me from the woman who whines," says the man who is married to the woman who is a real good industrious complainer. "Yet my wife is continually informing me that if she had not married me—if she had only remained single, instead of being the domestic slave that she now is, tied down to groveling pursuits by a home and family, she would be soaring aloft in the blue empyrean of fame. Put a whining woman in the Garden of Eden, and she'd have all the animals kicking and biting and scratching at each other in five minutes. Marry a complaining woman and she'll turn matrimony into a howling desert before you can say Jack Robinson, and that's the reason that I say that the whiner is the most aggravating thing in married life."

A man who is in perfect health, so he can do an honest day's work when necessary, has much for which he should be thankful. M. A. C. Rodgers, of Branchton, Pa., writes that he was not only unable to work, but he could not stoop over to tie his own shoes. Six bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made a new man. He says, "Success to Foley's Kidney Cure." Eagle Lake Drug Co.

Sunday Services.

The intense heat makes much of the church audiences. Only the "faithful few" will brave the sun's burning rays. Many of the church folk are away looking for cool places, so only a small gathering heard the Episcopal rector's sermon last Sunday morning. The subject of Mr. Hart's discourse was "the Communion." He stated that the view held on this question by the Episcopal church was the "via media," the middle way between the extreme view of the Roman Catholics, "transubstantiation" and the opposite held by the rationalists (the other churches of protestantism) that the Lord's Supper was merely a memento of the Savior. While the Episcopal church protests against the doctrine that the bread and wine are changed into the real flesh and blood, still it teaches that in some mysterious, inexplicable way in the act of communion the partaker participates in the blood of Christ. "He who eats and drinks unworthily, eats and drinks condemnation to himself" does not refer to the sanctity of the communicant's character, but to the purity of motive. No one is good enough to be worthy of the broken body and shed blood, all that is necessary is repentance of sin and faith whereby is discerned the Lord's body.

The beautiful and comfortable new pews were in place for the first time. Mr. Walter Brown with sweet, heart-touching voice, sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," Mrs. Mitty Guynn rendering the beautiful organ accompaniment.

At the Methodist church Bro. Morgan preached morning and night scholarly and sweet-spirited sermons. Mrs. Morgan is recovering from her recent illness.

Services at Baptist Church.
There will be services at the Baptist church both morning and evening Sunday, July 14. Subject of the morning sermon: "Supreme Love to Christ." Subject of the evening sermon: "The Place and the State of the Dead Between Death and the Resurrection." A welcome awaits all. Let none stay away on account of the hot weather. Everyone invited.

OSCAR FERRELL, Pastor.

Bay City Was Defeated.
The Eagle Lake ball team will arrive on Sunday morning's train and at 1:30 in the afternoon, on the diamond back of the ice plant, the Bay City team will take a fall out of this rampant bunch of athletes that will make a noise like the crack of doom. The local team is a strong one, the best ever assembled to defend Bay City on the ball field, and though lacking in practice it will spin out a fine article of ball.

The above was clipped from the Bay City Tribune prior to the ball game there last Sunday. Yes, the Eagle Lake boys went to Bay City, and that noise like the "crack o' doom" was heard, but in the "fall" defeat struck on the wrong side and that "pampered bunch of athletes" returned home with another scalp dangling from their belt of victories, having defeated Bay City in a score of 7 to 4. It doesn't pay to "crow" too much in advance of a ball game, people accustomed to good ball playing don't do it.

Whiskey Did It All.
L. Gartrell out on the scaffold. Around him were stern-faced men, ready to perform an awful duty. On the trap stood an old man. His hair was snowy, his beard was long and white. He had lived two years beyond the span of life allotted to man. Think of passing seventy-two years in this good world, and then within sight of the graveyard, to feel the clutch of the law at one's neck and be hanged.

Once he was a famous lawyer. He had held crowds spellbound by his great eloquence. People used to say: "Great man, that Gartrell; he can be anything, do anything."

He was elected county judge. Then he was sent to the Texas Senate for two terms. He was a man of affairs, highly educated, keen, intelligent. He loved just as other men do—did this hangman's victim. Eight children were born to him, and there was not a happier family in the West. It doesn't seem possible that a human being would deliberately tip over the magnificent structure that had taken the best years of his life to rear.

Dr. Gartrell did that very thing. He trailed his good name in the gutter; he disgraced his sons and daughters; he dissipated his fortune; he became little better than a tramp, and the explanation of his awful fall is found in four words: He became a drunkard. The old man stood on the trap. The rays of the morning sun caught into the jail yard and touched his wrinkled face and massive forehead. He did not look like a murderer or a bad man. You would almost as soon suspect your father of a crime as that old patriarch of murdering a friend for a few paltry dollars. Yet he did it.

Listen! He is speaking. He is telling the white-faced crowd of his fall, and the last words that pass his lips are whiskey: "Whiskey did it all." The trap is sprung, and J. L. Gartrell, patriarch, is shot into eternity. National Advocate.
