

Notice To Rice Planters:

WE are in the market for your rice and will pay full market value for same. Our modern Elevator will soon be completed, which will enable us to handle your rice in bulk, saving you the cost of sacks. It will pay you to see us when you are ready to sell.

Notice To Cotton Planters

OUR Cotton Gin plant is now being overhauled and expect to be ready to operate same by September 1st. Will give quick service and pay market value for Seed.

Lakeside Rice Mill Company.

Mr. J. J. Raezer made a business trip to Houston Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Dall and children have been spending the week in Galveston.

If you want hose for sprinkling your gardens or flowers, see the Water, Light & Gin Co.

Mrs. E. P. Vin and children left Wednesday for a visit to relatives in Lockhart.

Your name, business and address neatly printed on 100 good envelopes for only 50 cents.

Miss Charles Jarvis, a charming young lady of Terrell, is the guest of Miss Fannie Williamson.

Mr. John Harrington returned Thursday night from a business visit to Wharton.

Dr. J. K. Davidson made a business trip to Columbus Wednesday, returning on the afternoon train.

Miss Libbie Wooten came down from Columbus Wednesday afternoon for a few days' visit to Miss Kate Ernst.

Try Pepsi Punch and Sugar-Lett, at Woodward's. Better than Coca Cola or Beer. New cold non-alcoholic drinks.

Mr. A. A. Murphy of Hallettsville is in the city, having accepted a position at Mr. Mooney's store.

Mr. Lee Sparks, who is this year farming rice in Victoria county, is spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. W. H. Korthauer and daughters, Misses Lorena and Lucie, returned Wednesday afternoon after enjoying a few days' visit to Galveston.

Mr. Geo. A. Hall is now making his headquarters in Eagle Lake buying cotton, having decided that this place is more centrally located than Weimar, at which place he has previously been making his headquarters.

The cotton market has been quite active in Eagle Lake during the past week. There are a number of cotton buyers here now and, so far as we have learned, this town has paid higher prices for cotton this year than any of the towns in this section. Cotton was sold here last Saturday as high as 14 1/2.

Mr. John Logue of Columbus was a visitor in the city Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. LeGendre of Bonus came up Wednesday for a few days in Corpus Christi last week.

Corn by the sack just as cheap as you can buy a carload, at Landa's.

Mr. Glenn A. Harbert of Columbus was a business visitor in the city Thursday.

Mr. M. D. Flowers returned Saturday from a week's visit to his brother near Smiley.

The Eagle Lake baseball team has disbanded and Frank Sisson, Scoury and Aldridge Peebles of Houston who have been here playing with the local team returned home Monday.

Mr. John Harrington returned Thursday night from a business visit to Wharton.

Dr. J. K. Davidson made a business trip to Columbus Wednesday, returning on the afternoon train.

Miss Libbie Wooten came down from Columbus Wednesday afternoon for a few days' visit to Miss Kate Ernst.

Try Pepsi Punch and Sugar-Lett, at Woodward's. Better than Coca Cola or Beer. New cold non-alcoholic drinks.

Mr. A. A. Murphy of Hallettsville is in the city, having accepted a position at Mr. Mooney's store.

Mr. Lee Sparks, who is this year farming rice in Victoria county, is spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. W. H. Korthauer and daughters, Misses Lorena and Lucie, returned Wednesday afternoon after enjoying a few days' visit to Galveston.

Mr. Geo. A. Hall is now making his headquarters in Eagle Lake buying cotton, having decided that this place is more centrally located than Weimar, at which place he has previously been making his headquarters.

The cotton market has been quite active in Eagle Lake during the past week. There are a number of cotton buyers here now and, so far as we have learned, this town has paid higher prices for cotton this year than any of the towns in this section. Cotton was sold here last Saturday as high as 14 1/2.

Mr. Ed. Hatch is now breaking the Cane Belt local.

Mr. John Harrington spent a few days in Corpus Christi last week.

Corn by the sack just as cheap as you can buy a carload, at Landa's.

Mr. Henry Byars of Columbus was here on business the first of the week.

Mr. M. D. Flowers returned Thursday afternoon from a brief business visit to Columbus.

The Eagle Lake baseball team has disbanded and Frank Sisson, Scoury and Aldridge Peebles of Houston who have been here playing with the local team returned home Monday.

Mr. John Harrington returned Thursday night from a business visit to Wharton.

Dr. J. K. Davidson made a business trip to Columbus Wednesday, returning on the afternoon train.

Miss Libbie Wooten came down from Columbus Wednesday afternoon for a few days' visit to Miss Kate Ernst.

Try Pepsi Punch and Sugar-Lett, at Woodward's. Better than Coca Cola or Beer. New cold non-alcoholic drinks.

Mr. A. A. Murphy of Hallettsville is in the city, having accepted a position at Mr. Mooney's store.

Mr. Lee Sparks, who is this year farming rice in Victoria county, is spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. W. H. Korthauer and daughters, Misses Lorena and Lucie, returned Wednesday afternoon after enjoying a few days' visit to Galveston.

Mr. Geo. A. Hall is now making his headquarters in Eagle Lake buying cotton, having decided that this place is more centrally located than Weimar, at which place he has previously been making his headquarters.

The cotton market has been quite active in Eagle Lake during the past week. There are a number of cotton buyers here now and, so far as we have learned, this town has paid higher prices for cotton this year than any of the towns in this section. Cotton was sold here last Saturday as high as 14 1/2.

Mr. John Logue of Columbus was a visitor in the city Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. LeGendre of Bonus came up Wednesday for a few days in Corpus Christi last week.

Corn by the sack just as cheap as you can buy a carload, at Landa's.

Mr. Henry Byars of Columbus was here on business the first of the week.

Mr. M. D. Flowers returned Thursday afternoon from a brief business visit to Columbus.

The Eagle Lake baseball team has disbanded and Frank Sisson, Scoury and Aldridge Peebles of Houston who have been here playing with the local team returned home Monday.

Mr. John Harrington returned Thursday night from a business visit to Wharton.

Dr. J. K. Davidson made a business trip to Columbus Wednesday, returning on the afternoon train.

Miss Libbie Wooten came down from Columbus Wednesday afternoon for a few days' visit to Miss Kate Ernst.

Try Pepsi Punch and Sugar-Lett, at Woodward's. Better than Coca Cola or Beer. New cold non-alcoholic drinks.

Mr. A. A. Murphy of Hallettsville is in the city, having accepted a position at Mr. Mooney's store.

Mr. Lee Sparks, who is this year farming rice in Victoria county, is spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. W. H. Korthauer and daughters, Misses Lorena and Lucie, returned Wednesday afternoon after enjoying a few days' visit to Galveston.

Mr. Geo. A. Hall is now making his headquarters in Eagle Lake buying cotton, having decided that this place is more centrally located than Weimar, at which place he has previously been making his headquarters.

The cotton market has been quite active in Eagle Lake during the past week. There are a number of cotton buyers here now and, so far as we have learned, this town has paid higher prices for cotton this year than any of the towns in this section. Cotton was sold here last Saturday as high as 14 1/2.

Mr. John Logue of Columbus was a visitor in the city Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. LeGendre of Bonus came up Wednesday for a few days in Corpus Christi last week.

Corn by the sack just as cheap as you can buy a carload, at Landa's.

Mr. Henry Byars of Columbus was here on business the first of the week.

Mr. M. D. Flowers returned Thursday afternoon from a brief business visit to Columbus.

The Eagle Lake baseball team has disbanded and Frank Sisson, Scoury and Aldridge Peebles of Houston who have been here playing with the local team returned home Monday.

Mr. John Harrington returned Thursday night from a business visit to Wharton.

Dr. J. K. Davidson made a business trip to Columbus Wednesday, returning on the afternoon train.

Miss Libbie Wooten came down from Columbus Wednesday afternoon for a few days' visit to Miss Kate Ernst.

Try Pepsi Punch and Sugar-Lett, at Woodward's. Better than Coca Cola or Beer. New cold non-alcoholic drinks.

Mr. A. A. Murphy of Hallettsville is in the city, having accepted a position at Mr. Mooney's store.

Mr. Lee Sparks, who is this year farming rice in Victoria county, is spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. W. H. Korthauer and daughters, Misses Lorena and Lucie, returned Wednesday afternoon after enjoying a few days' visit to Galveston.

Mr. Geo. A. Hall is now making his headquarters in Eagle Lake buying cotton, having decided that this place is more centrally located than Weimar, at which place he has previously been making his headquarters.

The cotton market has been quite active in Eagle Lake during the past week. There are a number of cotton buyers here now and, so far as we have learned, this town has paid higher prices for cotton this year than any of the towns in this section. Cotton was sold here last Saturday as high as 14 1/2.

Mr. John Logue of Columbus was a visitor in the city Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. LeGendre of Bonus came up Wednesday for a few days in Corpus Christi last week.

Corn by the sack just as cheap as you can buy a carload, at Landa's.

Mr. Henry Byars of Columbus was here on business the first of the week.

Mr. M. D. Flowers returned Thursday afternoon from a brief business visit to Columbus.

The Eagle Lake baseball team has disbanded and Frank Sisson, Scoury and Aldridge Peebles of Houston who have been here playing with the local team returned home Monday.

Mr. John Harrington returned Thursday night from a business visit to Wharton.

Dr. J. K. Davidson made a business trip to Columbus Wednesday, returning on the afternoon train.

Miss Libbie Wooten came down from Columbus Wednesday afternoon for a few days' visit to Miss Kate Ernst.

Try Pepsi Punch and Sugar-Lett, at Woodward's. Better than Coca Cola or Beer. New cold non-alcoholic drinks.

Mr. A. A. Murphy of Hallettsville is in the city, having accepted a position at Mr. Mooney's store.

Mr. Lee Sparks, who is this year farming rice in Victoria county, is spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. W. H. Korthauer and daughters, Misses Lorena and Lucie, returned Wednesday afternoon after enjoying a few days' visit to Galveston.

Mr. Geo. A. Hall is now making his headquarters in Eagle Lake buying cotton, having decided that this place is more centrally located than Weimar, at which place he has previously been making his headquarters.

The cotton market has been quite active in Eagle Lake during the past week. There are a number of cotton buyers here now and, so far as we have learned, this town has paid higher prices for cotton this year than any of the towns in this section. Cotton was sold here last Saturday as high as 14 1/2.

Mr. John Logue of Columbus was a visitor in the city Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. LeGendre of Bonus came up Wednesday for a few days in Corpus Christi last week.

Corn by the sack just as cheap as you can buy a carload, at Landa's.

Mr. Henry Byars of Columbus was here on business the first of the week.

Mr. M. D. Flowers returned Thursday afternoon from a brief business visit to Columbus.

The Eagle Lake baseball team has disbanded and Frank Sisson, Scoury and Aldridge Peebles of Houston who have been here playing with the local team returned home Monday.

Mr. John Harrington returned Thursday night from a business visit to Wharton.

Dr. J. K. Davidson made a business trip to Columbus Wednesday, returning on the afternoon train.

Miss Libbie Wooten came down from Columbus Wednesday afternoon for a few days' visit to Miss Kate Ernst.

Try Pepsi Punch and Sugar-Lett, at Woodward's. Better than Coca Cola or Beer. New cold non-alcoholic drinks.

Mr. A. A. Murphy of Hallettsville is in the city, having accepted a position at Mr. Mooney's store.

Mr. Lee Sparks, who is this year farming rice in Victoria county, is spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. W. H. Korthauer and daughters, Misses Lorena and Lucie, returned Wednesday afternoon after enjoying a few days' visit to Galveston.

Mr. Geo. A. Hall is now making his headquarters in Eagle Lake buying cotton, having decided that this place is more centrally located than Weimar, at which place he has previously been making his headquarters.

The cotton market has been quite active in Eagle Lake during the past week. There are a number of cotton buyers here now and, so far as we have learned, this town has paid higher prices for cotton this year than any of the towns in this section. Cotton was sold here last Saturday as high as 14 1/2.

Mr. John Logue of Columbus was a visitor in the city Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. LeGendre of Bonus came up Wednesday for a few days in Corpus Christi last week.

Corn by the sack just as cheap as you can buy a carload, at Landa's.

Mr. Henry Byars of Columbus was here on business the first of the week.

Mr. M. D. Flowers returned Thursday afternoon from a brief business visit to Columbus.

The Eagle Lake baseball team has disbanded and Frank Sisson, Scoury and Aldridge Peebles of Houston who have been here playing with the local team returned home Monday.

Mr. John Harrington returned Thursday night from a business visit to Wharton.

Dr. J. K. Davidson made a business trip to Columbus Wednesday, returning on the afternoon train.

Miss Libbie Wooten came down from Columbus Wednesday afternoon for a few days' visit to Miss Kate Ernst.

Try Pepsi Punch and Sugar-Lett, at Woodward's. Better than Coca Cola or Beer. New cold non-alcoholic drinks.

Mr. A. A. Murphy of Hallettsville is in the city, having accepted a position at Mr. Mooney's store.

Mr. Lee Sparks, who is this year farming rice in Victoria county, is spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. W. H. Korthauer and daughters, Misses Lorena and Lucie, returned Wednesday afternoon after enjoying a few days' visit to Galveston.

Mr. Geo. A. Hall is now making his headquarters in Eagle Lake buying cotton, having decided that this place is more centrally located than Weimar, at which place he has previously been making his headquarters.

The cotton market has been quite active in Eagle Lake during the past week. There are a number of cotton buyers here now and, so far as we have learned, this town has paid higher prices for cotton this year than any of the towns in this section. Cotton was sold here last Saturday as high as 14 1/2.

Mr. John Logue of Columbus was a visitor in the city Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. LeGendre of Bonus came up Wednesday for a few days in Corpus Christi last week.

Corn by the sack just as cheap as you can buy a carload, at Landa's.

Mr. Henry Byars of Columbus was here on business the first of the week.

</