ADDRESS: H. Runge & Co., CUERO, TEXAS.

Is your business going to be represented in the HEADLIGHT's special edition? Don't neglect the matter, but attend to it now, for if you are not in it you'll regret it after the paper is issued.

Mrs. M. E. Guyan and little daughter, Virginia, have been spending several days with friends in Lissie this week.

Suit was filed this week by J. F. Frnk at Nada through Brown, Carothers & Brown against the Santa Fe Railway Company for $89,600, for alleged overcharges in freight rates since 1906.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Archer of Havana, Cuba, are in the city visiting Mrs. Archer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Strahan. They will leave Monday for a trip to Colorado, Utah, Washington and other points.

Some thirty or more from here attended the church festival at Nottawa Wednesday night. A large crowd was present and the supper was a big success socially and financially. Those from here who attended say that Milby Guyan "cornered" the peanut market.

The Water, Light & Gin Company has installed a fine new pump in its deep well at the standpipe and there is no end to the water supply.

Mrs. J. R. Westmoreland returned yesterday from Houston where she had been with her aunt, Mrs. Wall, during her fatal illness.

Mr. Hyman Rabinovitz, who has been with the firm of B. H. Daily for some years, resigned his position and left Tuesday night for Rosenberg where he will work in a dry goods store just being opened up there.

Misses Nell Green, Mary W. Jamson and Bessie Lena Yates expect to leave next week for school. The first named two will attend Baylor University at Waco and the latter will enter the Southwestern University at Georgetown.

Mrs. Wm. Wall died at her home in Houston at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon and was buried in Columbus yesterday afternoon. She was formerly a citizen of Colorado county, and was a sister of Messrs. James and Thad. Wright.

Wm. Upson, an industrious colored farmer who is this year farming land down on the Dunovant place, sold some cotton here Wednesday for 14.40c, and handed the HEADLIGHT a dollar for a year's subscription to this paper.

Mr. Arthur Caylor of the Nottawa section threshed out thirty acres of rice last Tuesday which made him six hundred and twenty sacks, which he sold at $3.75 per sack. This is an average of over twenty sacks per acre.

Runge, Texas, Aug. 20.—Cotton is coming in here at a rapid rate and interest in the welfare of the town whatever—and you'll know these few (very few) by the absence of their ads when the paper is issued.

Order the number of copies of our special edition that you are going to need. The price is 10c each, so order at once the number you want.

Dr. G. A. Foote left Friday night for Corpus Christi, returning Wednesday morning accompanied by Mrs. Foote who has been spending several weeks at that place.

Miss Nita Ferrell of Jacksonville, who has been spending sometime with friends in Wharton, arrived in the city Wednesday for a few days' visit to Misses Minnie and Lona Skelton.

Mr. Travis Smith writes us to take our papers for the Black eye postoffice have heretofore been going to Markham, but Mr. Smith tells us that a postoffice has been established at Buckley.

If you intend to have us put one of our Filters on your cistern for the winter rains do it now. We are always busy in the fall and we may not be able to handle your order promptly then.

TATERS ACETYLENE GAS CO., No one is better qualified to advise you about the water you drink than your family physician. Read what Dr. Norris says about the I. X. L. Filter.

Do you want your business represented in the HEADLIGHT's special edition? Telephone the office not later than next week if you do, as we may not have an opportunity to solicit your advertisement as attending to our usual job printing business, keeping the regular paper up to its high standard and putting in every spare moment on the special edition work occupies our full time. We are not insisting on anyone taking space in this number for we believe every enterprising firm in Eagle Lake will appreciate our efforts in this matter and will be only too glad to take space, thereby assisting in advertising the town in which they live. Of course we don't expect to get an advertisement from every firm in town, for, we are sorry to say, some seem to have no interest in the welfare of their town whatever—and you'll know these few (very few) by the absence of their ads when the paper is issued.

The HEADLIGHT will be glad to have its readers phone it the contents and names of their relatives and friends. Our friends in the country will do us a favor by dropping us a card, where no telephone is handy.

Mr. J. R. Westmoreland, our real estate man, dropped into our office yesterday and was shown the portion of the HEADLIGHT's special edition which has already been completed. Mr. Westmoreland says this will be a great paper, a splendid advertisement for the town and will reflect credit upon the enterprise and ability of the paper's management. He says such an edition should be liberally patronized by every business institution in the town.

Manager J. J. Racer of the Eagle Lake Rice Irrigation Company, on Thursday contracted for the sale of the entire output of rice of that company which will amount to about 25,000 bags, this being the canal company's portion, the tenants' shares not being included in the sale. This rice was sold half to the Eagle Lake Rice Mill and half to the Lakeside Rice Mill at $3.65 per bag.

News has been received here that Hon. J. C. Kindred is quite sick at Guanajuato, Mexico. His son, Wayman, left this (Friday) morning to be at his bedside. We sincerely trust it is nothing serious. —Weimar Mercury.

ONE CLOTHIER advertises, "Immediate Service Clothing—the equal of that of the best tailors," but never a tailor lived who advertised, "Clothes made expressly for you—equal to the best ready-to-wear-kind."

There is no argument here. The situation is too transparent. Ready-made dealers are vainly trying to reach the plane of custom.

Prices are about the same as better grade "made up" clothing.

J. G. TRAYLOR THE TAILOR AND GENT'S FURNISHER. EAGLE LAKE, TEXAS.

Mr. J. W. Westmoreland was across the river this week and while driving through the farming country he paid particular attention to the cotton crop. He says if the cotton crop everywhere is like it is there, he don't see what will keep the price from going to 15 cents, and then some.

Postmaster Geo. S. Ziegler has this week had twenty-four new lock boxes put in at the office. Eagle Lake's postoffice business is continually increasing, showing that the town is steadily growing all the time. What Eagle Lake needs is an up-to-date postoffice building, and Capt. Ziegler hopes to land one before very long.

The HEADLIGHT will be glad to have its readers phone it the contents and names of their relatives and friends. Our friends in the country will do us a favor by dropping us a card, where no telephone is handy.

The young men of Eagle Lake will give a grand ball in Frazar's opera house on Tuesday evening next in honor of Mr. James Kennedy of Harlingen and Miss Elizabeth York of this city. Who, on the following day, will be married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. N. R. York, and immediately after the ceremony will leave for their honeymoon trip to Mexico. Mr. Kennedy is well and favorably known in Eagle Lake, having formerly been connected with the Lakeside Sugar Refinery, but is at present with the American Irrigation Company at Harlingen. Miss York is one of Eagle Lake's prettiest and most charming young ladies.

The HEADLIGHT extends in advance its heartiest congratulations and very best wishes. The Ladies of the Macabees will furnish refreshments for the ball and those in charge of the ball have requested the HEADLIGHT to state that no children will be expected. It is the hope of the committee that this request will be strictly complied with.

Mr. J. R. Westmoreland, our real estate man, dropped into our office yesterday and was shown the portion of the HEADLIGHT's special edition which has already been completed. Mr. Westmoreland says this will be a great paper, a splendid advertisement for the town and will reflect credit upon the enterprise and ability of the paper's management. He says such an edition should be liberally patronized by every business institution in the town.
