

NOTICE! NOTICE!

I HAVE purchased the barber business of Mr. Abe Beakes and will continue to run the business in the same old stand.

Messrs. Jim Barnett and Elton Baskin, (whom you all know to be first-class barbers,) will continue to work at their same place and will take the chair of Mr. Beakes.

Anything you turn our way will be appreciated.

Yours very truly,

M. F. Shannon.

Try Pepsi Punch and Sugar. Lett, at Woodward's. Better than Coca Cola or Beer. New cold non-alcoholic drinks.

The Glasscock show gave an exhibition on the vacant lots just beyond the ice plant Wednesday night. The show is just a small one but the admission price for a show of this caliber was too high.

NOTICE TO PATRONS: On account of Jewish New Year, our store will be closed all day next Monday, September 9th. Our customers will please make a note of this.

J. NATHAN & SON. Mrs. F. M. Ragland of Alvin, mother of Mr. Ed. Ragland of this city, arrived this week to form the acquaintance of her little grand-daughter, Lois Emily Ragland.

We are sorry to note that Dr. S. S. Robinson has been quite ill this week, suffering from a very painful abscess on his foot. He is improving nicely now and will soon be out again.

Mr. Olva Davis became suddenly ill Tuesday night with something similar to a nervous collapse and was unconscious most all night. We are glad to note that he has about recovered and is at present spending a few days in Smithville before resuming his duties at the postoffice.

KENNEDY-YORK WEDDING.

Miss Elizabeth Alice York, only daughter of Mrs. N. R. York, and Mr. James Conway Kennedy were joined in holy bonds of wedlock at the home of the bride's mother in this city at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Rev. J. E. Morgan, the popular Methodist minister officiating in a beautiful and impressive ceremony.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy boarded the Sunset train amid a shower of rice for their honeymoon trip to Houston and Corpus Christi. After spending a few days at the latter place they will go to Mercedes, down near the Mexican line, their future home.

The bride was married in her traveling costume, a handsome coat suit of brown and tan with hat and gloves to match.

The parlor was beautifully decorated with pot plants, ferns and cut flowers. Quite a large number of relatives and friends were present, the out of town visitors being present were Mrs. J. L. Neal and Mrs. W. F. Neal and little daughters, Ruth and Nina, and Messrs. W. G. and Van N. York of Wharton, Miss Verna Burford of Weimar and Miss Nina Byars of Glen Flora.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy were recipients of many handsome and costly presents, showing the high esteem in which they are held by their friends.

The bride is one of Eagle Lake's fairest daughters. Having been born and reared in this town, she is universally loved and is a favorite in Eagle Lake's social circles. She is one of our prettiest and most charming young ladies and carries with her the love and best wishes of all who know her.

The groom is the popular young assistant engineer for the American Irrigation Company of Mercedes. He was formerly connected with the Lakeside Sugar Refinery at this place, and made a large circle of friends during his sojourn here.

The HEADLIGHT wishes this popular young couple the richest blessings and trusts that their future may never be marred by sorrow.

Mr. W. A. Thatcher returned Tuesday from a visit to Galveston. Mr. Thatcher was a passenger on the train which wrecked between Galveston and Houston the day previous. He says the excitement was intense. He came out with a slight injury, having received a laceration on the instep and had to walk with the aid of a cane for several days. The HEADLIGHT, $1 a year.

Ann Margaret Thatcher entertained a large number of her little friends on Monday afternoon, the date being the tenth anniversary of her birth. She received many presents from her guests. Cake and ice cream were served at her grandmother's large residence and the children enjoyed the occasion greatly.

JUST RECEIVED—A big line of Fall and Winter Goods. Call B. H. DAILY.

The exterior of the new State Bank is handsome but the inside is livery land. Pipe taste is displayed in the furnishings. Drooping ferns and graceful palms rest the eye while the electric fan cools off the over heated customer. A rest room is being fitted up which will be a boon to the tired country patron. Adjoining the rest room is the lavatory and toilet with elegant arrangements. And Milby and Fawcett feel as fine as silk with their sumptuous surroundings.

The ball given in Frazier's opera house last Tuesday night by the young men of the city and the Ladies of the Maccabees in honor of Mr. Jas. Kennedy and Miss Elizabeth York, who were married on the following day, was the most largely attended dance given here for a year or more. Music for the occasion was furnished by Prof. Henry Moebes' orchestra and was as fine as the dancers could wish. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the Maccabee ladies during the evening which were greatly enjoyed by the many present. The hall was prettily decorated with red, white and black streamers which are the colors of the Maccabee lodge.

The Colorado County Medical Society will meet in the court house at Columbus at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, September 11th, and invites all who are sick or in need of medical advice to meet with the society and get the advice of all the best physicians in the county free of charge. If you have a medical attendant come with him and he will present your case; if you have no medical adviser, present yourself to the president of the society and he will select a competent physician to present your case to the society. You will receive the best of services.

R. H. HARRISON, Pres. G. A. FOSTER, Sec. Mr. J. M. Wilson of Houston, brother of civil engineer A. F. Wilson of this city, arrived here this week and will make Eagle Lake his home. Mr. Wilson is a lawyer and has entered the practice of his profession in this city, and is officiating with Attorney W. S. Strickland. The HEADLIGHT extends him the glad hand and wishes him the best of success.

THE HEADLIGHT $1.00 A YEAR.

worth of good mares and colts have been retailed in this community by Lee Hughs in the past five days.

I still have 125 head of fine mares and colts left which are being sold at bargain prices. Call at the Hall ranch, four miles south of town, and see them before they are all sold.
