An old landmark has passed away. "Ailsiey" McGee formerly Ailsiey Harris died yesterday morning and will be buried today. When I became a citizen of Eagle Lake in 1871, "Ailsiey" was a woman of middle age and a person of considerable note in the village, as she was a nurse and officiated at the birth of all the pioneer babies. "She befriended to the Thatcher family before emancipation and her long life (about 75 years) has been spent in Eagle Lake and vicinity. M.

An Ounce of Prevention is worth a pound of cure. There are many poor sufferers, consumptives who are hopeless of getting well—who, if they had taken care of themselves, would now be well. A cough is the foundation of consumption. Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure that cough. Mrs. S., Great Falls, Montana, writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for years—my children never suffer with coughs." Sold by Eagle Lake Drug Co.

Traylor will give you your money's worth in and better goods.

The Eagle Lake Rice Mill did not start up this week on account of breaking a flue. This mill has purchased considerable rice and is ready to begin the season's run. Manager Goldsmith says everything will be in readiness to steam up bright and early Monday morning.

The Lakeside Rice Mill started up Tuesday morning for this season's run. This mill has already bought considerable rice and the prospects for a successful season's run are very flattering. The Lakeside Gin also began operations this week and is now running on full time every day.
