W. C. LAMMES WOUNDED. GETS DAMAGES ON BOND. THE SPECIAL EDITION. E. C. McOILL HURT. JUDGE KINDRED HOME.

Accidentally Shot and Seriously Wounded by Pack Team Monday Morning.

Mr. W. C. Lammes, who lives in the district court building here, was accidentally shot and seriously wounded about 10 o'clock Monday morning. Pack team shot at a bird on the ground with a shot gun. The report of the gun scared the horse of Mr. Lammes who was riding horse back some thirty-five or forty yards distance, and the horse

Brown, Carothers & Brown Secure Verdict for Wife Against Saloon Men.

In the district court here Monday last, a jury returned a verdict for the wife of J. J. Brown, Carothers & Brown, was awarded a verdict of $2500 and costs of suit against Henry Birkman and his sureties, also of Weimar, for selling whiskey to her husband after being warned not to do so. She has other suits instituted against same grounds. This is the suit in which District Judge Kennon ruled against the opinion of the attorney general's office in deciding that the new liquor law did not release bondsmen under the old law, an account of which was published in last issue of the Headlight.

Will be Issued October 6th and Sent Free to all Regular Paid-up Subscribers.

For the past few weeks the Headlight has been receiving through the mail silver dimes from subscribers living at a distance asking us to be sure, and send them a copy of the special edition. On account of a delayed shipment of half-tones the special edition can not be issued before Saturday, October 5th, but will be mailed on that date and every subscriber (whose subscription is paid up) will receive a copy free of charge.

Brother-in-law of J. C. Westmoreland Seriously Mashed by Train at Yoakum.

Mr. E. C. McGill of Yoakum, a conductor on the N. & W. well known here, was seriously hurt last Saturday. While crossing the railroad track near the platform at the freight depot in that city he was caught between a moving car and the platform and seriously mashed about the hips. The company's physician reports that no bones were broken but that Mr. McGill will be laid up for several days. Mr. McGill is a brother-in-law of Mr. J. C. Westmoreland of this city.

Returns to Weimar from an Extended Visit to Mexico a Very Sick Man.

Mr. Weimar Kindred returned this week to his home in Weimar from Cuernavaca, Mexico, bringing home his father, Judge J. C. Kindred, Member of the Thirtieth Legislature, who, while looking after extensive mining interests at that point, was taken seriously ill and his son was telegraphed for. Mr. Kindred is still a very sick man, suffering from a severe form of pneumonia, and it will likely be several months ere he is fully recovered.

Herbert D. Hurd Buys Home in Eagle Lake for $3250.

Mr. Herbert D. Hurd last Saturday purchased the residence now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Woodward from Mr. C. N. Williamson for $3250. Mr. Hurd is general manager of the Fidelity Immigration Company and has been making semi-monthly trips to Eagle Lake for some time past; he is also one of the largest real estate dealers in South Texas. His family arrived here yesterday and will make Eagle Lake their home during the winter months.

Returned to Indictments Colorado County Grand Jury Completes its Sittings.

The Colorado county Grand Jury for the September term of District Court adjourned Tuesday, after having turned in ten indictments—eight for felonies and two for misdemeanors. This is considered an excellent showing for a county of this size, proving that the morals of the people are on the up-grade.

Bought Woodward Home Former Eagle Lake Preacher Passes Away at Dallas.

Rev. J. E. Lloyd, D. D., a prominent and aged Baptist minister, died at his home, 522 Thomas avenue in Dallas, Tuesday. Mr. Lloyd had been in feeble health for nearly a year.

Tells of His Trip From Austin to Marble Falls.

Lampasas, Texas, Sept. 18. My first trip from Austin to Marble Falls over the H. & T. C. road, a distance of about seventy-three miles. There are cedar brakes, scrub oaks and mesquite trees along the way, and white limestone rocks, and every few miles a cotton farm. There are only three towns of any size along this route.

Slashed and Seriously Wounded on Rice Farm Tuesday Night by Negroes.

"Pearlie" Toliver, a negro woman cut and dangerously wounded Charles Smith, a negro man, on the farm of the Eagle Lake Rice Irrigation Company last Tuesday night. From best accounts of the array, it seems that Smith was under the influence of whiskey, went to the home of the negro to pay her a call and she refused him admission.

Engagement Announced Young Lady Who Formerly Soon to Wed.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dildstone announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jessie Gearing, to Charles Fowler Jones Charles of Dallas, Texas, the wedding to occur in October.—Houston Chronicle.

Killed a Large Wolf Twelve-Year Old Boy Kills a Large Wolf and Pleads Self Defense.

Frank, the twelve-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mielow of near Alleyton, while out squirrel hunting heard something rustling in the brush. He sat down a moment to listen, and to his amazement out stepped a big wolf. The boy opened fire, the first shot disabling the animal and the second shot proving fatal. The boy claims he did the shooting in self defense, as the vicious animal was advancing upon him with a murderous look in its eyes. Hurrah for Frank!

Is What Axl Sealholm is Making on His Rice Farm This Season.

From about one hundred acres of Honduras rice Mr. Axel Sealholm threshed out 1600 bags. This rice he sold last Saturday to the Eagle Lake Rice Milling Company for $6.65 per bag. From the above figures it can be seen that Mr. Sealholm's rice has made him $600 per acre. Does it pay to grow rice in the Eagle Lake country?

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one sure remedy. One is local, one is quantitative, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local. It restores the system, restores the blood, restores the nerves, restores the stomach, restores the bowels, restores the lungs, restores the heart, restores the brain, restores the entire system, giving the result of all these, a healthy, happy, and vigorous life.

If real coffee disturbs your stomach, your heart or kidneys, then try this clever coffee imitation—Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. Dr. Shoop has closely matched old Java and Mocha coffee in flavor and taste, yet it has not a single grain of real coffee in it. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted grains of wheat, with a little bit of chicory, etc. Made in one minute. No tedious long wait. You will surely like it. Get a free sample at our store. Sold by E. L. Mooney.

The National Farmers' Union says Little Rock last week and fixed the price of cotton and wheat. The minimum price of middling cotton is 15 cents, the price to advance 1/2 of a cent each month until January.
