Mr. E. B. Mayes of Oakland was here Tuesday to get ahead with the Citizen, and incidentally to see that he is not a candidate for reelection, he would be a candidate for sheriff next year. He says that the "boys at the forks of the creek" are for him, and they are drawing cards.—Columbus Citizen.

John Henry Kirby says it would be better for Texas to go republican than for Bryan to be elected. Such a statement from Kirby is easily understood. A man that has to take care of a United States senator and a lumber trust does not want to see a reign of democracy.—Waxahachie Light.

Weak Women
 To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. Buy with this way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional. Both are important, both essential.
 Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.
 The latter—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a natural acting medicine, a powerful purgative, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, making the repair of all nerve, all muscle, and all blood elements.
 The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, breaks local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, under the influence of its powerful action, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tables or Liquid—two general lines to the system. For positive results, use as well.

Houston must be experiencing bad telephone service. The Post says: "On this beautiful Sabbath day when the Lord and his angels are with us in Houston, there is apparently nothing to remind us of hell except the telephone service."
 Stomach troubles, heart and kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by Eagle Lake Drug Co.

Wanted to Advertise.
 A German farmer lost his horse and wanted to advertise it. The editor asked him what he wished to say. "Just put in what I told you," replied the man. "One nice madder day about a week ago last morn' I heard me a noise by der front middle of de pae yard, which did not used to be. So I jumps the ped and runs mit der door and ven I see, I finds that my pig gray iron mare he was tied loose and rannin' mit der stable off. Hon. F. Jones of Tampa, Fla. writes: "I can thank God for my present health, due to Foley's Kidney Cure. I tried doctors and all kinds of kidney cures, but nothing did me much good till I took Foley's Kidney Cure. Four bottles cured me, and I have no more pain in my back and shoulders. I am 62 years old, and suffered long, but thanks to Foley's Kidney Cure, I am well and can walk and enjoy myself. It is a pleasure to recommend it to those needing a kidney medicine." Sold by Eagle Lake Drug Company.

Times are changing radically. There was a time that, when the farmer drove into the square with a bale of cotton, the samplers would rush up from both sides and slash the bagging with their keen blades for 18 inches. But now the farmer will often stop them with, "Hold on a minute, my friend, what are you doing?" "If the price is not satisfactory, the knife is not allowed to enter. A sensible idea, that. Really, the whole plan of sampling is wasteful and destructive. Isn't it strange that some 'better way' has not been found?"—Belton Journal Reporter.

Bruce W. McCarty Editor and Prop. "NOTHING EXTENUATE, NOR SET DOWN AUGHT IN MALICE." One Dollar Per Year, In Advance.
 VOLUME V. EAGLE LAKE, TEXAS, SATURDAY OCTOBER 19, 1907. NUMBER 26.

ABOUT THE HEADLIGHT'S SPECIAL EDITION

El Campo Citizen: The Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT came out last week with a special edition, and to say the least of it, it was creditable in every respect, and reflects in its neat write-up, and illustrations a true exemplification of an excellent newspaper work.

Eagle Pass News: The Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT, Bruce McCarty, jefe, issues a jim dandy special edition of twenty-eight pages filled with interesting data concerning Eagle Lake and surrounding country. Bruce can be depended upon to make good on any proposition he tackles and he certainly did it on this one.

Goliad Guard: The special edition of the Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT has been received and is a credit to the town in which it was published as well as a feather in the cap of Editor McCarty.

Nordheim View: The Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT and the Kenedy Advance have each lately gotten out most creditable special editions.

Harris County News: The Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT issued a most creditable special edition last week, the write-ups and illustrations being above the average. The HEADLIGHT is a good paper, and the proprietor, Bro. McCarty, is a hustler.

Beville Picayune: The special illustrated edition of the Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT was an interesting number historically and otherwise. The articles are all well written and the illustrations true to the originals. The edition is a credit to the town and highly complimentary to the editor and publisher, Mr. Bruce McCarty.

San Antonio Express: That enterprising little newspaper of Eagle Lake, The HEADLIGHT, has produced its long heralded special illustrated edition. The paper comes up to all that was anticipated concerning it and reflects much credit on both Editor Bruce W. McCarty and the progressiveness of Eagle Lake. The articles set forth effectively the progress of Eagle Lake during the past ten years and resources of the adjacent country which were substantiated by attractive cuts of the industries and business houses of the city and county.

La Grange Journal: The Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT has issued a special illustrated edition, which is a very creditable piece of newspaper work. But one can expect none other with a man like Bruce McCarty at the head. The HEADLIGHT is an exemplification of a fine country newspaper.

Timpson Times: For a month or two the Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT has been talking about a special illustrated edition. It came out this week and is a fine bit of work, the illustrations ranging all the way from swine to pretty girls, and to judge from the number, every business fully advertised. These editions speak well for the editors, but the towns get the most profits.

San Antonio Light: The Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT is out with a special edition which is a credit alike to the paper and the lively little city in the midst of the rice and cane belt, which it so ably represents.

The Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT's special edition came to hand Saturday last and it is a very creditable issue, replete with praise for the town, its people and the surrounding country.—Schulenburg Sticker.

Italy News-Herald: The special illustrated edition of the Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT reached the News-Herald last week. It is a fine edition of 28 pages and portrays the Eagle Lake country in good shape.

Houston Cor. Galveston News: Bruce W. McCarty of Eagle Lake, editor of the HEADLIGHT, published in that city, is in the city today. Mr. McCarty has recently issued a special edition of the HEADLIGHT containing splendid write-ups of his section. The paper contained twenty-eight pages of profusely illustrated articles, was well printed and full of half page advertisements of the home merchants.

Beville Picayune: The Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT is out with a twenty-eight page special edition, profusely illustrated and containing a world of interesting articles about Eagle Lake and surrounding country. It is full of neatly displayed advertisements, which show that the business men of Eagle Lake are wide-awake, progressive and enterprising men. Editor McCarty deserves great credit for his enterprise, and the edition will surely prove its worth to that entire country.

Carthage Register: The Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT, always clean, bright and sparkling, eclipsed itself in brilliance this week, and every other publication which came to our table. The special illustrated edition which has been in process of making for the past month, and which culminated in the aforementioned brilliant edition, shows the touch of the artist from every viewpoint. Bruce McCarty is a newspaper man after our own heart at all times, and if his town doesn't grow and prosper with such a progressive man at the head of its paper to set forth its many advantages, olden is no fault of his. The advertising that the town and county will get through this issue alone will be of untold and incalculable advantage.

Uvalde Press: The special illustrated edition of the Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT has reached our desk and is a beauty from a typographical standpoint, and reflects credit upon its editor, Mr. Bruce W. McCarty, in the hand, some arranged and well written descriptive matter it contains. The people of Eagle Lake should, and doubtless do, appreciate Editor McCarty's enterprise in getting out this mammoth special edition, so profusely illustrated and ably written that it must have required a big outlay of time, and money to get it in shape.

Bellville Times: Saturday, October 5th, the Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT issued a fine special edition of 28 pages giving full information about the town in which it is published and the country tributary thereto. The press work was fine, the illustrations good, and the descriptive matter plain, concise and to the point. The Times desires to compliment Editor Bruce McCarty on the signal success attained by him in the insurance of his "special." It is all about the thriving Lake City and is a great credit to the place from whence it is issued.

Sealy News: On last Saturday, October 5th, the Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT, Bruce W. McCarty, editor and proprietor, came out a 28 page special illustrated edition. In this issue many of the industries and advantages of Eagle Lake and vicinity are excellently portrayed in well printed half-tone cuts, and in the columns devoted to reading matter will be found in plain, truthful words the information desired by the prospective settler. The edition is a splendid one and should be enjoyed equally by the "home folks" as well as the "strangers," for therein are contained many items of history and illustrations well worthy of preservation. We congratulate Bro. McCarty upon his enterprise.

Houston Post: The special illustrated edition of the Eagle Lake HEADLIGHT, which came out last week, was creditable alike to the enterprising proprietor and the growing little city in which it is published. Established something like four years ago, the HEADLIGHT has steadily prospered and at the same time been a wonderful factor in the upbuilding of the town. The steady volume of advertising that the HEADLIGHT enjoys shows that the business men of the town fully appreciate the valuable work Editor McCarty is doing for the development of that section and it is a safe guarantee of the continued prosperity and usefulness of his paper.

IS THE PRICE OF LUMBER TOO HIGH?
 If you'll study the above picture carefully, and do a little figuring, you can't help seeing that lumber is no higher, relatively, than farm products, labor and merchandise of all kinds.
 Would you like to go back to the hard times of 1897, just so you could buy lumber cheaper? You were probably kicking then because prices were so low. Now that prices are up, and YOU can get decent prices for what YOU have to sell, surely you don't want another dose of "1897 prices" to strike the lumber business? BECAUSE WHEN THEY DO, THEY'LL CATCH YOU, TOO.
 You can build just as economically today as you ever could, or ever can, because when lumber prices go down, you can bet your last nickel that WELL ALL GO DOWN TOGETHER. So don't foolishly put off building till you can buy lumber cheaper, but go ahead and build—You'll not save a cent by waiting. Let us make you an estimate on that bill.
