Mrs. Connie Walker and Miss Shipman of Lane City were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Roberts Monday while en route to Houston to attend the carnival.

The New Pure Food and Drug Law. We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug Law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. Sold by Eagle Lake Drug Co.

The HEADLIGHT $1.00 A YEAR.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain in the head is blood pressure—either too high or too low. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. This tablet—Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—takes blood pressure away from pain centers, without returning, pleasingly delightful, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

Mr. Harrison Caller, for many years a citizen of Columbus, but who spent a considerable portion of his time in and around Bonus, died suddenly in Columbus last Saturday at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Thomas F. Boulden. Mr. Caller was nearly seventy years of age and fought on the Union side during the war of the 60's. The funeral was held in that city at Odd Fellows' Rest at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Mr. Caller leaves three daughters, Mrs. D. W. Staebbridge and Mrs. Nellie Glass of Houston, Mrs. T. F. Boulden of Columbus and one son, Mr. James Caller, to whom the HEADLIGHT extends condolences.

Cured of Bright's Disease. Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elmore, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50-cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." Sold by Eagle Lake Drug Co.

In an article concerning the dedication of the Catholic church at Bellville, the Times says: "The masonry work upon the building was done by Contractor J. T. Colleton, who has built practically every brick building in the town in the past twenty-five or thirty years." Mr. Colleton is a partner in the firm of Colleton & Malmquist, whose advertisement will be found in this paper. He spent several days in the city last week.

IS THE PRICE OF LUMBER TOO HIGH?

If you'll study the above picture carefully, and do a little figuring, you can't help seeing that lumber is no higher, relatively, than farm products, labor and merchandise of all kinds.

Would you like to go back to the hard times of 1897, just so you could buy lumber cheaper? You were probably kicking then because prices were so low. Now that prices are up, and YOU can get decent prices for what YOU have to sell, surely you don't want another dose of "1897 prices" to strike the lumber business? BECAUSE WHEN THEY DO, THEY'LL CATCH YOU, TOO.

You can build just as economically today as you ever could, or ever can, because when lumber prices go down, you can bet your last nickel that WE'LL ALL GO DOWN TOGETHER. So don't foolishly put off building till you can buy lumber cheaper, but go ahead and build. You'll not save a cent by waiting. Let us make you an estimate on that bill.

Notice To The Ladies!

I am going to sell every hat in my store for half price. I am forced to do this by the financial stringency for I need money badly to meet my obligations. This special hat sale will commence at 10:30 O'clock.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 18th

Don't miss this sensational hat sale, at which you will get the best bargains ever before offered in the millinery line.

Mrs. B. Hamburger.

To the Public:
As there seems to be some misunderstanding in the mind of

of the limit that is now being placed on withdrawals, we beg to say that this applies to actual cash only and not to drafts or exchange. If one owes his merchant here a bill of any amount and you have your money in any bank, give your merchant a check for it; he can have this placed to his credit in any bank and disburse it among his creditors without the actual exchange of one dollar in cash and the situation relieved accordingly.

A quiet and informal wedding was celebrated at East Bernard Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Mr. Robert Ray and Miss Irma G. Deyo were united in marriage, Rev. J. W. Johnson of Richmond officiating. Only the families of the contracting parties were present. The groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Ray, and has a number of friends in the East Bernard section and in El Paso, where he has been in the railway mail service for the past four years. The bride is the daughter of Mr. A. M. Deyo of the Bradford Rice Irrigation Company, and is noted for her naturally sweet and gentle disposition. She has often visited in Eagle Lake and has a great many friends here. The happy pair left to enjoy their honeymoon at the San Antonio Fair.

Mr. Wm. C. Zelle, manager of the Bonus plantation, was in town Monday, having come up to St. Louis, Mo., in the Lincoln Trust Company, who came in from Sugarland that morning. Mr. Zelle tells us that he is having but very little trouble, despite the financial stringency, in moving his cane crop. He says he is getting lots of laborers but still has employment for a large number. Mr. Zelle says the cane is turning out much better than was first expected, that he had one ear to test as high as 90, which is something phenomenal.

J. & S. Alkek, doing a general mercantile business in this city, made an assignment for the benefit of their creditors Monday evening, naming M. E. Guynn as assignee. Indebtedness $320.21; assets not given at time of assignment. Mr. Guynn has requested us to say that these people were not customers of the Eagle Lake State Bank, of which he is cashier, nor is he in any way connected with the assignment other than being the assignee for the creditors. Brown, Carothers & Brown are attorneys for J. & S. Alkek.

Ye editor spent Monday morning in visiting the business institutions of the thriving city of Eagle Lake. This place is steadily growing, and scarcely a year passes without some new enterprise being installed which adds to its worth as a business center and the prosperity of its people. In connection with the two regular lively newspapers, Mr. McCarty has recently published a special illustrated edition of twenty-eight pages, which deals with the present and the future welfare of the business interests of Eagle Lake. In this special edition Editor McCarty will not only make himself popular as an editor, but will do much toward the development of his town and country—Rock Island Enterprise.

An alarm of fire was turned in about ten o'clock Monday morning, the cause being a small blaze at Mr. E. J. Scott's home. Another alarm was given at noon Tuesday, this being at Mr. S. S. Neblett's house. The fire company responded in both instances, but the blazes at both places were soon extinguished without damage, and the assistance of the fire company was not needed at either place.

Messrs. Scurry and Aldrich Peebles of Houston, who were in Eagle Lake during last baseball season and played with the local team, have both signed up with Austin for the coming season. Scurry and "Babe" made a great many friends during their stay here last summer, who hope they will "make good" in the Austin team. No doubt the Austin games will be watched with a good deal of interest by the Eagle Lake fans next summer.

Mr. Henry Burttschell of Alveyton was in town Saturday transacting business and shaking hands with his many friends.

Who Makes the Newspapers?
After all, who makes the newspaper? When you are away from you look anxiously for two things—a letter from the loved ones and the little country paper. How eagerly you devour the letter and sigh because "they don't say more" and then tear off the wrapper and shake out the wrinkles of the paper and, kid like, wet your finger and thumb, by this method getting a better grip on the crinkly specimen of journalism that has more than likely been "wet down" after the approved style of old time print-ohm, and you feel somehow that home is not so far away after all.

You glance down the personal column to see what John Doe and Richard Roe have been doing and you can taste the good lies that were served at Madam Q's when she "entertained at finch." You may detest finch, but—well, you know what it means when the editor, after having run out of adjectives, ends the closing paragraph with "all had a bully good time." Then you find that Mary Ann Cornstall and Sarah Susan Michalifree have had measles or grip; that Senator Mugwump has returned from his "arduous duties" at Washington and has been given an "ovation"; few people have moved away, a tribute is paid to the dead; a marriage notice tells of "two souls with a single thought and two hearts that beat as one"; the town mayor is a proud father and Deacon Gruff has painted his barn; and then you run keeplap into something about a "cow" who ran away with the doctor's old gray horse and took the preacher's daughter with him, perhaps a killing and a dog fight has caused the old town to turn over in its slumbers; and thus you ramble up and down the columns and, like Oliver Twist, you wish for more. You read the editorials, they may not be to suit you, but you are at liberty to form ideas of your own and are made to use of your think tank and have been given something to ponder over during the week to come. Perhaps the paper does not give all the news, but you take the will for the deed and send the editor a dollar to help him get a square meal so he will feel more like "chasing locals."

Ar'te! all, who makes the newspaper? The editor? No, the people; all those old friends you have just been reading about—Higgins News.
