May Write Your Obituary.

Just one year ago with this issue of the Standard an old man came into this office and stopped his paper because something in it did not just suit his fancy. We have frequently met him on the street since that time and it is amusing to note the look of surprise on the old man's face that we are still in existence regardless of the fact that he stopped his paper. Some day—and it won't be long, either—that old gentleman will cease to walk. His heart will be stilled forever. Neighbors and friends will follow his lifeless clay to the silent city.

and published in these columns, telling what a kind father, a good neighbor and beloved citizen he was—which the recording angel will overlook for charity's sake, and in a very short time he will be forgotten. As he lies out there in the cold graveyard, wrapped in the silent slumber of death, he will never know that the last kind words spoken of him were perhaps by the editor of that paper which in life he so despitely "stopped." Did you ever pause just for a moment and think that your editor, who ever he may be, will some day write your obituary?—Somerville Journal.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elmore, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50-cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." Sold by Eagle Lake Drug Co.

A Damp Parting.

Miss Anna Held speaks excellent English, with but the merest trace of a French accent. A dramatic editor complimented her on this the other day and she replied:

"Oh yes, I would rather not speak at all than not speak correctly. They are so ludicrous, don't you think, the incorrect speakers? I remember once in Nice an Englishman and a Frenchman were about to separate on the Promenade des Anglais. The Englishman, as he started to ward the Cercle Mediteranee, called back:

"Au reservoir!"
"And the Frenchman waved his hand and answered:
"Tanks."

This is Worth Remembering.

As no one is immune, every person should remember that Foley's Kidney Cure will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine. Sold by Eagle Lake Drug Co.

"Friendship, boys and girls," said the school director who was making a few remarks, "is a thing to be cultivated and practiced by all of us. Read and ponder the stories of the great friendships of sacred and profane history. Take them for your models—David and Jonathan, Damon and Pythias and Scylla and Charybdis."
