Stoerner's meal is made of 1907 corn.

Messrs. Harry Cotton, Roy Dabbins and Matt Dickinson were "down" here this week.

Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Foster spent Christmas with relatives in Rock Island.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walker of Altair were here during the holidays.

Mr. Warren Walker has accepted a position with the First National Bank.

John Doere Plows and Points, The Frank Stephens Co.

Mr. Ed. R. Johnson of Houston was here on New Year's day.

Mr. Mason McCarty, traveling for Swift & Co., was here yesterday.

Hardware, Stoves and Cooking Utensils, The Frank Stephens Co.

Mr. Boyd Stewart of Galveston spent the holidays with home folks.

Mrs. D. Boyd returned Monday from a visit of several weeks to Bay City.

The young ladies of the city are arranging to give their annual ball at the opera house sometime during next week.

Don't fail to pay your poll tax for there's going to be something done in county politics and you'll want to vote at the primaries for your favorites.

The married folks' New Year ball given at Lass & Moeber's Hall in Columbus last night was quite a brilliant affair. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Weimar orchestra.

If the name of your Christmas visitors are not in the HEAD LIGHT this week it is your own fault - for you didn't tell us.

Corn, Corn Chops, Wheat Bran, Oats and Cotton Seed Meal, The Frank Stephens Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace McRee have moved back from Matthews and are keeping house again at their home in this city. Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Calvert and little daughter Genevieve who have been occupying the McRee home have broken up housekeeping and are boarding at Mrs. O. Green's.

All of the ladies, young and old, who are interested in organizing a club for mutual improvement and pleasure are requested to meet at Mrs. J. U. Frazer's next Thursday afternoon at 7 o'clock to discuss plans.

Call for what you need, The Frank Stephens Co.

How are you and your New Year's resolutions getting along?

Mr. Lester Holt, our efficient and popular county attorney, was here from Columbus on business Thursday.

Mr. Henry Bartschell of Al- leyton was in the city Tuesday. Mr. Bartschell stated that he expects to have his plows running, breaking land for this year's crop, Monday.

The farmers are going right ahead with the work of getting things in shape for another crop and our sincere wish is that they will be a bumper crop year.

The Eagle Lake firms are keeping pace with the big city houses in the issuing of pretty calendars with catchy advertisements of their business on same.

Walking Plows, Riding Plows, Discs, Harrows, Grain Drills, Cultivators, Sweep Sticks, Plow Points and Planters, The Frank Stephens Co.

Rev. J. E. Morgan requests us to announce services at the Methodist church tomorrow morning and night. Bro. Morgan says "I am going to attend church regularly" will be a fine New Year resolution for the people of Eagle Lake and especially the members of his congregation.

Mr. Lee C. Ayars, formerly a resident of Columbus, Texas, and one of the leading lawyers of that portion of the State, has associated himself with the law firm of Lane, Jackson, Kelley & Wolters of Houston.

To My CUSTOMERS:

May 1908 be the best year you ever had and the worst year you ever will have is the sincere wish of

J.G. TRAYLOR.

B. H. DAILY'S
Mid-Winter Clearing Sale!
BEGINS MONDAY JANUARY 6th,
AND CONTINUES FOR TEN DAYS.

FOR years and years it has been our custom to give a big 10 day's Clearing Sale during the winter, and in keeping up with this custom our Mid-Winter Clearing Sale will commence next Monday, January 6th, and continue for ten days only. We now have on hand the largest and most up-to-date stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Dress Goods of all kinds, Boots, Shoes, Hats and Notions than we have ever had, and every article in our store will be sacrificed at Clearing Sale prices - nothing will be kept aside. Prices which will prevail at our store during this stupendous sale are less than the actual cost of the raw material, and you will make no mistake by coming early and availing yourself of the best of the bargains. By reading carefully our price list you will be convinced of the truthfulness of our statement - that our Clearing Sale prices are less than factory cost of the goods. We could not enumerate all of our price list in this advertisement, but everything else in the house will be sold in proportion.
