

A FOACHER
By Byron Williams

"Twas June. He took her out to fish for trout. Then angled for her hand. She tossed her pretty head a bit and said: "This is forbidden land! On private grounds you wish to catch a fish— At least that's what I fear. Dost see you sign? she said. He turned and read: "No fishing here!"

THE VOYAGERS
By Byron Williams

I am sitting here in the moonlight
Where the chips go out to sea.
And I wonder what of the voyagers,
And what will the harbor be?

Our lives, like the great white steam-ers,
Run off to the harbor place,
And I wonder who, of the sailors,
Will meet God face to face?

I wonder what of the cargo,
And what of the course we take,
And what of the wind of waters,
We leave in our foam-fashed wake?

Will the Great Receiver chide us,
Or welcome our course as true,
When we have arrived at anchor
Off there in the harbor blue?

And those of the sailing thousands
Who wreck on the storm-lashed deep,
Will God in His tender mercy
Rock them to sleep—to sleep?

O, Ye who command the waters,
O, Ye who rule o'er the sea,
Think me at the wheel to pilot
My craft to the shore—and Thee!

CHESTERTVILLE NEWS

Col. John Linderholm is here from Chicago on business. Mrs. C. S. Maultby shopped in Eagle Lake and took in the dance Monday night. Mr. Floyd McLain and Miss Pearl Nelson were quietly married Monday by Rev. Causey, of Lissie. Mrs. Kate Jackson and daughters have moved to Smithville where Mrs. Jackson has leased a hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews now have charge of the Chester-ville Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gray are the proud parents of a ten pound

The Misses Linderholm and Johnson were hostesses at a ten cent social in the school house Wednesday night. A neat sum was realized, which goes toward the organ fund.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Linderholm very pleasantly entertained the members of the "High Five" club last Friday evening. Mrs. Salladay and Mr. Fetrow making high score.

The Ladies' Aid Society elected the following officers for the year: Mrs. Kellison, president; Mrs. Maultby, vice president; and Mrs. Linderholm, secretary and treasurer.

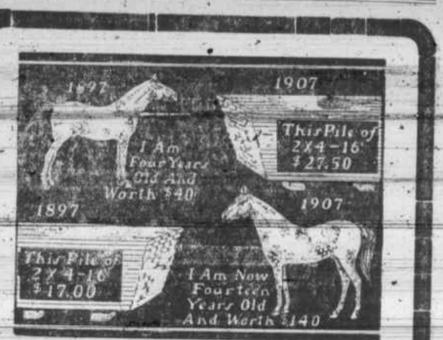

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babes. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a long-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to irritate or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the doctor uses "The Sacred Herb." Always demand Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by Eagle Lake Drug Co.

The Palestine Herald contends that "the whole question at issue in Texas is simply this: Do you, as a voter and as a private citizen, striving for the best interests of the state and the whole people, endorse the policy of a public official serving the people at a small salary and at the same time drawing large salaries or fees from corporations subject to governmental control? If you endorse this principle in our political life, then you know what to do. If you oppose such alliances, you will again have no trouble in deciding where you stand. You say there is no such an issue in Texas. If this is not the issue of most prominence now then there is nothing to disturb the peace of this great state."

When the stomach, heart or kidney nerves get weak, then these organs always fail. Don't drug the stomach, nor stimulate the heart or kidneys. That is simply a makeshift. Get a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The Restorative is prepared expressly for these weak inside nerves. Strengthen these nerves, build them up with Dr. Shoop's Restorative—tablets or liquid—and see how quickly help will come. Free sample sent on request by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Your health is surely worth this simple test. Sold by Eagle Lake Drug Co.

IS THE PRICE OF LUMBER TOO HIGH?

If you'll study the above picture carefully, and do a little figuring, you can't help seeing that lumber is no higher, relatively, than farm products, labor and merchandise of all kinds. Would you like to go back to the hard times of 1897, just so you could buy lumber cheaper? You were probably kicking then because prices were so low. Now that prices are up and you can't get decent prices for what YOU have to sell, surely you don't want another dose of "1897 prices" to strike the lumber business? BECAUSE WHEN THEY DO, THEY'LL CATCH YOU, TOO. You can build just as economically today as you ever could, or ever can, because when lumber prices go down, you can bet your last nickel that WE'LL ALL GO DOWN TOGETHER. So don't foolishly put off building, till you can buy lumber cheaper, but go ahead and build. You'll not save a cent by waiting. Let us make you an estimate on that bill.

Mayfield of Rock Island were in the city on business last Friday afternoon, and were pleasant callers at the HEADLIGHT office while here.

Miss Grace Mahon, who has been teaching the Altair school, came over last Friday afternoon and was the guest of Miss Ina Westmoreland, leaving next day for her home in Columbus. Miss Mattie Mersfelder, who will continue the school at Altair, left for that place Sunday.

Miss Johnnie Waddell gave a mask party last Friday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Waddell, in honor of her cousin, Miss Linnie Stone, who left the following day for her home in Lane City. About fifty in all were present. Delightful hot chocolate with whipped cream and cake was served, and the evening was pleasantly spent by the large crowd in attendance.

Ordinarily the Kitties Band play only the large cities, but the Stafford opera house wanted to open with a first-class attraction and obtained an engagement with this musical organization at considerable expense. If it is well patronized there will be other high class attractions during the season. Order your reserve seats now.

Miss Steve Toliver, of Columbus, who has been visiting Mrs. Horace McRee, left Monday afternoon for Houston, where she will enter one of the business colleges of that city. Mr. J. B. Garmon is advertising his home place for sale, he and his wife having decided to move to Sutherland Springs. Mr. Garmon's health has not been good here and he is making the change for that reason.

The HEADLIGHT is better prepared now than ever to give you first-class job printing. Give us your next order.

The Kitties Band has traveled more than 250,000 miles during the seven years of its existence. This is Canada's great Concert band of 40 musicians which plays at the Stafford opera house Feb. 14. This is an attraction worth traveling many miles to hear.

After a thorough investigation by the Federal grand jury at San Antonio, no indictment was found against Mr. G. W. Deaton. The HEADLIGHT rejoices with Mr. Deaton's many friends throughout this section that he has been cleared of the charges brought against him in connection with the Woods bank failure.

Miss Ina Westmoreland left Tuesday for a visit to her friend, Miss Cleo Clark, in Schulenburg.

Mrs. L. Roos of Schulenburg, mother of Attorney Emanuel Roos of this city, was here Saturday en route to Victoria to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Willenborg of Weimar came down Monday afternoon for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Barnett.

If sufficient patronage is afforded the Kitties Band Concert at the Stafford opera house, Columbus, on Feb. 14, it may be assured of other first-class attractions during the season.

A Sad Death.
One of the saddest deaths it has been the painful duty of this paper to chronicle for many years in Orange was that of Mrs. W. H. Boney, whose sweet spirit was called home Thursday morning, January 16, at half past ten o'clock.

Only 24 years of age and in the full, fresh bloom of womanhood, Mrs. Boney was stricken about three weeks ago with acute nephritis, and after untold suffering, finally gave up her life to the dread disease.

Surrounded night and day by devoted friends, receiving every attention that medical skill could devise, a brave fight was made for her life, but all to no avail. The stamp of death had been set upon her brow and human skill was powerless to ward off the blow.

Mrs. Pearl Boney was born and reared in Orange, and her sweet disposition and amiable attributes won for her the love and esteem of all with whom she came in contact. She was a daughter of the late Capt. Thos. McClanahan, and besides her devoted husband, she leaves her mother, three sisters and two brothers to mourn her untimely demise.

Three years ago deceased was married to W. H. Boney, a most excellent young man who had come to make his home in this city, and these three years have been ones of marital devotion seldom equaled. Their little cottage home on Orange avenue always appealed to the visitor by its air of neatness and perfect contentment.

The hearts of the entire community go out in sympathy to the bereaved young husband who is thus left alone, without family ties, and with an aching void in his heart that nothing on earth can fill and that can only be appeased by the knowledge that the devoted wife has but gone on before and will await on the other shore his coming, when they will be united for all eternity.

Deceased was a member of Orange Chapter, Eastern Star, and an officer in the chapter. Pursuant to a wish often stated by her in life, the funeral obsequies were held under the auspices of the chapter, the beautiful ritualistic ceremony creating a deep impression upon the large concourse of people who followed the remains to their last resting place in Evergreen cemetery.

The floral offerings were numerous and exquisite, the casket being banked high with these emblems of the love and esteem in which Mrs. Boney was held by the community at large.

The funeral services at the residence were conducted by Rev. E. T. Drake, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of which Mrs. Boney had long been a consistent member.—Orange Leader.

Both the Eagle Lake and Lake-side rice mills are now running on full time, the mills having steamed up Monday morning. These mills have purchased considerable rice during the past few weeks.
