Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Archer left last Saturday afternoon for their home in Beaumont after a pleasant visit here to Mrs. Archer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Strahan. They spent Sunday in Houston and Galveston and were accompanied by Miss Ollie Strahan who returned to Eagle Lake Monday.

A new concern has this week been formed in this city and will be known as the Eagle Lake Dray and Transfer Company. The company is composed of Messrs. J. R. Thatcher and Ward C. Curry. These gentlemen have a half-page advertisement in the HEADLIGHT today soliciting your business of anything in their line.

Some big improvements have been made lately on the W. B. King place which is under the management of Mr. Stout Whitten, among them being the completion of eight new tenant houses. Mr. Whitten is a fine overseer and the King place under his management is one of the best improved 1000-acre farms in the county.

If you receive a copy of this paper and are not a subscriber, it is an invitation for you to become one. Hand us a dollar and have your name placed on our regular weekly mailing list.

After a few days' visit to friends in Eagle Lake, Mrs. Lucy Norris left Tuesday for a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Carney at Glen Flora.

In the proper column today appears the announcement of Mr. John Hastedt of Frelsburg as a candidate for the office of county clerk of Colorado county, subject, of course, to the action of the white man's primary. Mr. Hastedt has served as commissioner for eleven years and "as justice of the peace for seventeen years in his precinct. He is a capable man and in every way competent to fill the office should he be elected. Mr. Hastedt asks your support at the primaries, promising if elected to faithfully discharge the duties incumbent upon that office to the very best of his ability.

In the HEADLIGHT'S announcement column today will be found the name of Mr. W. E. Davis who announces for the office of mayor of the city of Eagle Lake. Mr. Davis has served in the capacity of city clerk for a number of years and has made a good one. As city clerk, he has been present at all the meetings of the city council and is familiar with the affairs of the city and with the duties incumbent upon the mayor's office. If elected Mr. Davis promises to discharge the duties of that office to the very best of his ability and without fear or favor. He solicits your support.

Mr. Chas. J. G. Leeseemann announces in this paper today as a candidate for re-election to the office of county clerk of Colorado county, subject to the action of the white man's primary. Mr. Leeseemann has made a fine officer and his records will compare favorably with any office in the state. Mr. Leeseemann has made an accommodating officer, polite and courteous at all times and on all occasions, and he solicits the support of the voters of the county on his record in office.

Mr. W. E. Bridge announces in the HEADLIGHT today his candidacy for the office of tax collector of Colorado county, subject to the action of the white man's primary. Mr. Bridge is one of the best known men in the county and needs no introduction at our hands. He is at present filling the office of sheriff and has held that office for a number of years with credit to himself. Mr. Bridge has, in years gone by, held the office of tax collector and made a fine officer. He solicits your support at the primaries.

The big annual stock clearance sale is now in full blast at Mr. B. Burg's store. Large crowds have visited his store every day this week and he has been enjoying a good business. The people have been taking advantage of his bargain prices. Mr. Burg's sale will continue just a few days longer, so be sure and read what he has to say in his half page advertisement today.

Dr. P. T. Gordon is having another nice tenant house and barn built on his already valuable farm south of town. Geo. W. Keith's carpenters are in charge.

Announcements.

FOR COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.
To the Electors of Colorado County.
The county school superintendent law passed by our late legislature has precipitated a great educational revival having for its object the betterment of our much neglected rural schools. The noble leaders in this work are pleading for your co-operation both in favoring the constitutional amendment which will place the children of the country under the same educational footing and in placing in charge of your schools a man of unquestioned ability. I feel justified in announcing my candidacy for this very important office and if elected I pledge my undivided time and attention to the duties thereof.

Very respectfully,
THOMAS M. COLTRON,
Prin. of Weimer Institute.

For District Attorney:
ROBT. F. NIXON.
