Mr. Q. A. Litzmann was in the city yesterday and remembered this paper in a substantial manner.

This paper is prepared to do all kinds of job printing and would be pleased to at least have a bid on your printing before you send it away from home to have it printed.

The HEADLIGHT is prepared to print candidates' cards on short notice and would appreciate an order from you.

The central attractions will be here next week, so you might as well get ready to get lunch from a few dimes—for the children must go, you know.

If you do not take the HEAD-LIGHT, you ought to.

Mr. W. C. Curry spent Sunday with relatives in Rock Island.

Mrs. B. Hamburger was a visitor to Columbus Wednesday.

The HEADLIGHT wants your job printing business.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Armstrong are rejoicing over the arrival of a son at their home Thursday.

Dr. Howard Fitzgerald was a visitor to Columbus the first of the week.

Very respectfully,
T. M. DUNN.

Mr. L. Goldsmith, manager of the Eagle Lake rice mill, spent yesterday in Houston.

Mrs. D. J. Hayes came up from Houston yesterday for a visit to Mrs. A. M. Waugh.

Mr. J. H. Courtney of the Attorney's neighborhood was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Messrs. J. S. Arnold and D.
Kooly of Lissie were business visitors in the city yesterday.

Messrs. Charles Baumgarten and Charles Matula of Schulerburg spent last Sunday here, hunting ducks on the lake.

Telephone us the names of your visitors, or any other local items you know of. We will appreciate your assistance in this matter very much.

Sheriff W. E. Bridge was in the city Thursday from Columbus.

Mr. R. A. Baugh of Chesterville was a business visitor in the city Thursday.

Mr. John Baxter of Rock Island was a business visitor in the city Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Dunovant Newsom is spending a few weeks with relatives in Lockhart.

Mr. John Matthews of Matthews was in town Thursday, enroute home from a visit to Houston.

Mr. Light-Roberts of Lane City was here yesterday and spent the day hunting ducks on the lake.

Mrs. A. J. Winfree and daughter, Miss Ada, returned this week from a visit to Houston and other places.

Miss Mary Thatcher returned Thursday from a few weeks' visit to Galveston.

Mr. C. G. Harris has resigned his position at Sartaria and he and his wife have moved back to Eagle Lake. They are boarding at the Lake Hotel.

Ring our office right now and give us an order for those bill heads you are going to need on the first of the month.

The Eagle Lake Candy company is doing a good business.
They are turning out quite a lot of fine candies and are finding a ready sale for all they make.

Messrs. P. C. Clemmons and J. H. Rowe came in last week from Waldo, Kansas. Mr. Rowe returned home Saturday night but Mr. Clemmons remained here and will improve his land near town.

Mrs. E. H. Ramsey of San Antonio came in Wednesday for a few weeks' visit to her sister, Mrs. J. E. Roberts. Mrs. Ramsey has frequently visited Eagle Lake and has a great many friends here who are always delighted to see her.

FOR SALE—My windmill and mill. Both in good condition.
Offered for sale because I get water from the city water works, and have no use for them.

THE HEADLIGHT $1 PER YEAR

As we go to press (Friday night) the Washington entertainment given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church is in progress at the Hotel Brown with a good attendance. Quite a number of people from here also drove out to Chesterville to attend the Washington dinner giving in the new church building at that place.

Mrs. Minnie Walker of Weimar, who formerly resided in Bonus, writes us this week enclosing a dollar on subscription.
Mrs. Walker says she enjoys greatly the visits of the HEADLIGHT and feels that she could not afford to miss even a single issue. "We all like to have nice things said of us—even a newspaper man."

We learn that the grand jury last week found a bill against Sam Speakes for attempt to burglarize. Speakes was arrested here some weeks ago by Deputy Marshal Gray Payne, charged with attempting to burglarize the home of Mr. J. D. Garmon. He has been arrested here before on a similar charge, but was released on account of lack of evidence against him.

The stockholders of the Deaton Grocery company of Wharton, by unanimous approval of all present at a meeting held in that city Wednesday, will make application to have the name changed.
The name is misleading and confusing, they claim, and for this reason it is thought best to make the change. The name in future will be the Southwestern Wholesale Grocery company.

In our announcement column today will be seen the name of Mr. J. M. Callison, who announces for re-election to the office of constable of this precinct. Mr.
Callison is well known to the voters of this precinct and needs no introduction at our hands. He has held this office for a number of years, with credit both to himself and to the office. He is fearless and impartial in the discharge of his official duties and is a man who at all times attends strictly to his own business. He has always been a good officer and the voters would do well to again re-elect him.

The office rooms in the opera house building are nearing completion. There will be six offices in the building, one of which will be occupied by the law firm of Brown, Carothers & Brown.

Master Raymond Fitzgerald of Columbus is visiting the family of his uncle, Dr. Howard Fitzgerald.

PARKHURST'S BARBER SHOP

(The only white shop in Eagle Lake.)

Three Fine and Experienced Barbers.

Brand new, clean and up-to-date.

We have the latest shop in Colorado County.

Kindly glance over the HEAD-LIGHT's advertisements and see just how few of the business firms of the town are carrying an advertisement in the paper. An up to date local paper in a town where the newspaper man's efforts are appreciated is a pleasant business, but from the present advertising patronage this paper is receiving they do not take much interest in their home paper. Is there any possible better advertisement for a town than a live local newspaper well filled with local advertisements.

The Ladies' Scrap Book Club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. M. E. Gwynn. Mrs. Carothers, who was to entertain the club, being absent from the city.
The subject of the meeting was "Brazil," on which an excellent paper was read by Miss Cleo Flowers. Beautiful instrumental solos were rendered by Mrs. J.
B. Stewart and Miss Ruby Watts. Refreshments were nut sandwiches and hot chocolate.

Hon. J. C. Kindred of Weimar, who represented this county in the Thirtieth legislature, was a visitor in the city Monday and Tuesday. Judge Kindred, while he has not yet announced in the county papers, will be a candidate for re-election. His announcement will appear in the county papers within the next couple of weeks. Judge Kindred made Colorado county an able and conscientious representative; he has been tried and not found wanting. He is familiar with legislative duties and understands the needs of our county, and upon his clean record in office he is deserving of re-election.

Mrs. H. W. Rayner entertained delightfully Monday evening at her pretty Lakeside home, with a "loto party," in compliance with Miss Anne Harrison Byrd of Baltimore. Mrs. Rayner and Mr. Walter Brown, two of Eagle Lake's sweetest singers, rendered a number of beautiful solos and duets, with Mrs. M. E. Gwynn at the piano.
Miss Jaqueline Bruce and Mrs.
Mentor Northington tied in the loto games for the ladies' prize, a handsome box of stationery, and Mrs. Northington won the "saw off." The gentleman's prize, a hand-painted valentine, was awarded to Mr. L. Goldsmith. Refreshments of ham sandwiches, bread and butter sandwiches, chicken salad, pickles, olives and nuts, were served, and the evening was most enjoyably spent by all present, who were: Mrs. M. E. Gwynn, Mrs.
Mentor Northington, Mr. and Mrs. Rayner, Miss Jaqueline Bruce, Miss Byrd, Mr. L. Goldsmith, Mr. Walter Brown, C.
R. Barbed and Bruce McCarty.

To the People of Eagle Lake and Vicinity

I have failed to conclude my arrangements for leaving Eagle Lake, and have decided to remain here. I sincerely wish to thank my friends for favors shown, and to announce to them that I will continue in partnership with Dr.
Robinson, and offer my professional services as heretofore.

Very respectfully,
DR. G. A. FOOTE.

The Danville & Casper Carnival company, which will be here Monday for a week's engagement, has recently been in Shiner and Hallettsville, and the papers of those towns speak well of it.
The shows, they say, are good, clean and worthy of patronage.

Hon. W. A. Trenckmann, editor of the Belleville Worchblatt, an influential German newspaper, was in the city yesterday and while here favored this office with a very pleasant call.

We are glad indeed to be able to state this week that Dr. G. A.
Foote has decided not to leave Eagle Lake, but will remain in our city and practice his profession in partnership with Dr. Robinson. Dr. Foote had intended to move to Monterey, Mexico, but he did not conclude his plans to do so and, has decided to remain here. Dr. Foote is indeed a popular man with all who know him, and his many friends all over the county will be glad to learn that he has decided not to leave.

Rev. Theoclitos of Galveston, a preacher of the Greek church, was here Thursday and baptized the children of Messrs. J. Altek and Anton Soda, two of our local Greek business men. The Greek church baptizes by immersion and carries the candidate for baptism under water three times.

Ed McDevitt of San Antonio, a brakeman on the Sunset, fell from a freight train on that road when about two miles west of this place, Wednesday evening. He was climbing on top of a box car from a flat car when a hand hold gave way, causing him to fall to the ground. He was placed in the caboose and brought to this city. Dr. F. O. Norick being summoned to give medical aid. He was not dangerously hurt and was taken to the hospital at San Antonio the same night. The train was running at the rate of about ten miles an hour when the accident happened.

Mr. J. W. Gates of Weimar, who was here this week, said that fine crops were made in Coleman county (where he has farms) in 1906, there having been good rains that season. But last year a very different situation prevailed, on account of the drought.
From one twelve-acre patch of cotton on his place fifteen bales were picked in '06. The same land, worked by the same hand, yielded 700 pounds of seed cotton in '07. The average in that section was a bale to twenty acres.

The ladies of the Methodist church will serve oysters in the building recently vacated by Mr.
George Redford on Main street, next Tuesday evening and night.
Hot chocolate and cake will also be served and the ladies hope to have a large crowd present.

An interesting article giving reasons why Christians should attend services, written by Bro.
Oscar Ferrell, appears in this issue. Be sure and read it; it will do you good.

Miss Emma Lewis of Bay City, a former popular Eagle Lake young lady, and one of the efficient assistant teachers in our school here last year, is this week the guest of Miss Jaqueline Bruce, having come up Tuesday night. Miss Emma's old friends are glad indeed to see her.

The city primary election will take place on March 7th. Three candidates are out for marshal and two for mayor, but so far none have announced for aldermen.

Our popular tax collector, Mr.
W. H. Fehrenkamp of Columbus, was in the city Tuesday on business, and incidentally telling the good people that he is a candidate for re-election.

Mr. J. H. Craig, during a visit here to his old home town from Houston, spent a couple of days in Garwood during the week. He was a pleasant caller at our office on Wednesday morning and advanced his figures on our subscription book.

Mr. Frank Johnson of Houston, former Eagle Lake boy, spent a couple of days here this week, visiting relatives and friends.

TO THE BUSINESS MEN:

The Headlight is now prepared to handle almost any class of printing and asks the business men of Eagle Lake and vicinity to give the paper a chance before sending away from home for ANY kind of printing. By giving us your printing, you keep your money at home and at the same time you are helping to make your home paper a better one.
