GEO. REDFORD,
Master Tailor.

The ladies of the Methodist church served oysters and cake and chocolate in the building recently vacated by Mr. George Redford, Tuesday afternoon and evening. The supper was well patronized, the proceeds amounting to over $40.

Mr. Leon D. Williamson came in from San Antonio Tuesday afternoon for a few days' visit with relatives and friends.

Doctor Ertl is not selling eye glasses for the sake of a sale, but he fits the deficiency of the eyes with the proper glasses. Office at the Hotel Brown.

Mr. Arthur Moores was a visitor to Richmond Thursday afternoon and assisted Prof. Henry Moores' orchestra in furnishing music for a dance there that night.

Mr. E. A. Egnus of Nowata was in the city Thursday. Mr. Egnus' family arrived from the North last week and he will next week begin the erection of a residence in Nowata. Mr. Egnus has our thanks for a new subscription to this paper.

Your attention is called to the advertisement in this issue, of Mr. J. W. Schneider. Mr. Schneider's tailor shop is on the second floor of the building recently vacated by Mr. Redford, and he is prepared to do all kinds of cleaning and pressing at moderate prices.

Bishop Kinsolving preached an excellent sermon at the Episcopal church here last Sunday night, at which he administered confirmation to Mrs. J. R. Westmoreland, Mr. W. E. Lenhart and Miss Nora Barrow.

Mr. C. B. O'Brien was on his way East Sunday morning for an extended visit with the family of her son, Mr. Abe Bekkes.

CHESTERVILLE NEWS

Rev. J. E. Morgan of Eagle Lake held services here Sunday. The little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Chester, formerly of this place but now of Kansas City, died on the 11th of February. Mr. and Mrs. Chester have the love and sympathy of this community in their great sorrow.

Mrs. Lon Bodie, who has been seriously ill, is much improved. Mesdames Andrews and Jones shopped in Eagle Lake Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Thomas of Lissie were guests of friends here Sunday.

George Hamon and family, formerly of Rosenberg, are located here.

Mrs. Floyd McLain, south of town, spent Friday with Miss Maud Wilkerson.

Mrs. C. A. Maultby entertained the Ladies' Aid Society on the 14th at a ten cent lunch. A number of ladies were present and a neat sum was realized. These lunches are held once a month and are given to promote sociability. We wish more of the earnest workers in the Methodist church would turn out and help with their presence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wilkerson have succeeded Mrs. H. F. Andrews in the management of the Chesterville Inn.

Misses Linderholm and Johnson shopped in Eagle Lake Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Salladay entertained the High Five Club Monday for Miss Johnson, who leaves Wednesday for Chicago on an extended visit.

The Washington dinner given in the new church building last Friday night by the Ladies' Aid Society was a glorious success. The ladies were all dressed in Colonial style—old fashioned gowns, powdered hair, painted cheeks, beauty spots and all. They certainly looked charming and gave an air of festivity to the whole affair. Quite a number of Eagle Lake people were here and enjoyed the dinner. The ladies cleared $66.

Mesdames Kellison and Maultby were visitors in Lissie Saturday. Messrs. Pool and Wood of Lissie were here on business Tuesday. Mrs. B. Hamburger returned this week from the markets, where she went to purchase her supply of spring and summer hats.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baskin expect to leave today or tomorrow for Shiner, where Mr. Baskin will follow his trade. The very best wishes of their friends go with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Harter spent Wednesday in the city. Mr. Harter is managing the large farm of Mr. Tait across the river. He stated that all farm work was moving along nicely.

Mrs. W. A. Bartschell left on Thursday for New Orleans to enjoy the festivities of the Mardi Gras.

Mr. Nathan Adler of Des Moines, Iowa, spent several days here this week, visiting the family of his uncle, Mr. J. Nathan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Able of Garwood were in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Raiser of Houston are spending the week in the city, the guests of Captain and Mrs. J. J. Raiser.

Mr. T. A. Wood and wife, who have been making their home at Lissie, left yesterday for Kansas, where they will again make their home. Mr. W. called at our office before leaving and had his papers set about for another year on our books.

There will be services at the Methodist church tomorrow (Sunday) morning and night, by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Morgan. All are invited to attend.

Mr. Chas. P. Salladay, a prominent citizen of Chesterville, accompanied by his little son, spent Thursday in the city.

Miss Lillian Nathan returned yesterday from a delightful visit of six weeks to relatives at Marlin.

Messrs. L. Goldsmith, W. A. Dallas and J. J. Whalley were court visitors to Columbus this week.

The Baptist people—the few who attended the Wednesday night service—raised $612 to assist in paying off the $1000 note on their new church building.

A mother took her little girl to bed and as she was leaving her alone in the dark told her not to be afraid for there was nothing in the room but angels. The mother listened outside the door a moment and heard the child say: "Now, dolly, don't be afraid, there's nothin' in the room only angels. But I'm 'fraidier than the devil of angels, dolly."—Arson (Ga.) Times.

A Sensation.

The marvelous curative properties of Foley's Honey and Tar has proven a sensation in many cases of severe coughs and colds that had refused to yield to other treatment. Foley's Honey and Tar will stop your cough, heal the lungs and expel the cold from your system. Contains no harmful drugs. Sold by Eagle Lake Drug Co.

Mrs. H. W. Rayner gave a delightful entertainment at her home at Lakeside Thursday evening in compliment to Miss Anne Byrd and Miss Emma Lewis. Music, conversation and quotation games were the amusements, Miss Jaquelin Bruce winning the prize in the quotation games. Refreshments of tongue with cream dressing, potato salad, sandwiches, potato chips and refreshing drinks were served. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Guyton, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Barbe, Misses Jaquelin Bruce, Emma Lewis, Anne Byrd, Christine Davis, Messrs. F. A. Wilson, L. Goldsmith and Walter Brown. Mrs. Raiser is a most charming hostess, and her entertainments are always enjoyable ones. We regret that on account of the nearness of our press hour, we could not give a better account of this most pleasant affair.

Mrs. J. W. McCarty will entertain with a seven-o'clock dinner this evening in honor of Mrs. J. R. Byrd of Baltimore. The Oldham and Rivers families were friends fifty years ago, living then in Austin, Texas. The guests at the dinner party will represent three generations of the two families. The personnel includes the honor guest, Mrs. Jennie Rivers Byrd, and the hostess, Mrs. Madeleine Oldham McCarty; Dr. Bruce and Mrs. Susie Rivers Bruce. Of the second generation: Mr. and Mrs. Oldham McCarty, Mr. M. E. and Mrs. Jennie Bruce Guyton, Mr. Bruce McCarty, Miss Anne Harrison Byrd and Miss Jaquelin Bruce. Of the third generation: Mary Maud McCarty and Virginia Rivers Guyton.

Judge J. J. Mansfield announces in this paper today his candidacy for re-election to the office of county judge of Colorado county, subject, of course, to the action of the White Man's primary. Judge Mansfield is well known to the people of Eagle Lake, being a former Eagle Lake citizen, and needs no comment at our hands. He has made one of the ablest judges the county has ever had. He has no opposition so far and doubtless will not have, for to defeat Judge Mansfield for the office he has so efficiently filled would indeed be a difficult task, for he is popular with the people all over the county. Judge Mansfield will appreciate your support at the primaries.

A meeting of the creditors of the Vineyard, Walker & Co. bank was held here Thursday afternoon and night with Judge Borden presiding, for the purpose of examining the bankrupts. Attorneys Kennelly & Maury represented the trustees. Attorney Kimbrough, represented the Commercial National bank of Houston; Hon. J. F. Wolters represented some of the bankrupts, and Brown, Carothers & Brown represented a number of creditors. All the bankrupts were examined individually with the exception of Mr. Waugh, whose examination will be held later.

Our friend Mr. C. I. Dutcher of Lissie was a pleasant caller at our office yesterday afternoon and had his figures set a year ahead. Mr. Dutcher says all the farmers in his vicinity are busy preparing their land for planting rice. He says that if it does not rain he expects to commence planting rice next week.

Mrs. Emma Conner left Thursday night on the Cane Belt for Taylor, one of the children of her daughter, Mrs. E. T. Cook, being quite sick at that place.

Garwood Notes.
(Received too late last week.)
Thomas F. Boulden, our commissioner, arrived here Monday to have a carload of steel unloaded. This steel is soon to be put in the bridge, on the east bank of the river, and after the work is completed the bridge will be one of the strongest across the Colorado.

Mr. Chappell of Rock Island is having his engine and boiler put in position to run the separator, which will begin March 1.

Mr. B. George of Vox Populi is a great deal better and we trust that he will be up soon.

A. D. Loughridge and Dr. W. B. Smith are on a trip to North Texas. They will return Saturday or Sunday.

Miss Daisy Hoyland is confined to her bed this week with the grip and we have had no school since Monday.

The cattlemen of this section are busy moving their cattle.

Dr. W. J. Roberts has a new picket fence around his yard.

B. S. Field will soon have his new residence completed and it will add wonderfully to the appearance of our town.

Mr. John Clay was here on business Thursday.

L. S. Stahl and Vern Whitnell of Rock Island were here for a short time Thursday.

Garwood people are being called to Columbus this week, as court is in session.

W. S. Griffiths had all the road hands out working the road at the bridge, which was very dangerous to all who had to cross it.

Most of the young people here are preparing to go to Altair Saturday night, to the masquerade ball.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ellison were made happy by the arrival of a son at their home Wednesday.

Mr. Bob Christwall fell while working at the McClanahan lumber yard Wednesday, and was quite severely hurt. Dr. Fitzgerald was summoned and rendered medical aid. The doctor stated that while Mr. Christwall was awfully bruised, his injuries were not of a serious nature.

Mrs. Dora E. Johnson and Mrs. Jas Everett of Lissie were in the city shopping Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. Mr. Wolf preached at the Baptist church in this city last Sunday morning and night. His mission here was to raise funds for the Baptist college at Palacios.

Mrs. J. H. H. Dennis and little son John, of Wharton, are spending the week in the city with Mrs. Dennis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Anderson.

The Rev. Wm. Hart will preach at the Episcopal church next Sunday (tomorrow) morning and night. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Damon and Mrs. Otto Engle of Smithville were here this week to attend the Jones-Franz wedding.

Mr. George Raezer and his charming wife, who are visiting in our city, may decide to make Eagle Lake their future home. We sincerely hope this estimable couple may locate here and the HEADLIGHT, in common with the people of Eagle Lake, extends them a hearty welcome in advance.

Have Storrmer chop that shelled corn. It pays to feed that way.
