

Eagle Lake Headlight.

Bruce W. McCarty Editor and Prop.

"NOTHING EXTENUATE, NOR SET DOWN AUGHT IN MALICE."

One Dollar Per Year, In Advance.

VOLUME V.

EAGLE LAKE, TEXAS, SATURDAY APRIL 4, 1908.

NUMBER 49.

THE CITY

LOCAL PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE

Go to Traylor's for Spring underwear.

Dr. W. J. Roberts of Garwood was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. J. J. Raezer was a visitor to Houston the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. R. Froka of Garwood spent Tuesday in the city.

The latest in fur, straw and Panama Hats just received at Traylor's.

Mrs. M. E. Guynn and Miss Jacqueline Bruce spent last Saturday in Houston.

Mrs. J. R. Westmorland and Miss Ina Westmorland spent Tuesday in Houston.

Mrs. Alice Dailey of Houston arrived Monday for a visit to Mrs. Horace McRee.

Mr. Lee Hughs was a business visitor to Galveston the early part of the week.

Mr. W. E. Bridge of Columbus, candidate for tax collector, was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mersfelder of Glen Flora spent several days in the city this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. LeGendre were made happy last Monday over the arrival of a daughter.

Mr. Chas. Davis of Eldridge was in the city Monday on route home from a visit to Houston.

Mrs. J. D. Odom returned last week from an extended visit to relatives in Sulphur, Louisiana.

Miss Nina Byars of Glen Flora is spending the week in the city with her aunt, Mrs. Nina York.

Mrs. George Best came down from Columbus Tuesday afternoon for a visit to Mrs. A. M. Waugh.

Mr. Stewart Lewis, a popular young traveling man, was greeting his friends here Monday and Tuesday.

The genuine B. V. D. underwear—knee drawers and sleeveless shirts—just received at Traylor's.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Harbert and daughter, Miss Glenn, of Columbus visited relatives here last week.

Bring me your cleaning, pressing and repairing—everything guaranteed.
TRAYLOR, the Tailor.

Miss Blanche McGuire, a popular young lady of Conroe, is expected the early part of next week for a visit to the Misaca Skelton.

Mrs. T. W. Shugart spent several days last week with Mr. Shugart at Sour Lake. Miss Beatie Smith taught Mrs. Shugart's room in the school here during her absence.

Prof. J. E. Briggs spent last Saturday in Houston.

New Spring Goods arriving every day at Traylor's.

Mr. Levi Adams of near Lissie, was quite severely ill last week.

Mrs. Gus Schmidt returned Tuesday afternoon from a visit to San Antonio.

Mrs. E. L. Ragland returned Saturday from a pleasant visit to relatives in Alvin.

Dr. S. S. Robinson returned Saturday afternoon from a few days' visit to Mineral Wells.

Mr. J. C. York, who is on the road for Swift & Co., visited his mother here the first of the week.

The genuine B. V. D. underwear—knee drawers and sleeveless shirts—just received at Traylor's.

Miss Enla Butler left Sunday night for her home in Dallas after a pleasant visit to Mrs. S. S. Robinson.

Mr. Henry J. Laas, our popular tax assessor, has been spending several days here this week assessing taxes.

Mr. R. W. Byars of Columbus, candidate for sheriff, was here mingling with the voters during the first of the week.

Mr. J. F. Ahlers returned Saturday night from Bryan, where he has been since last fall conducting a skating rink.

We are sorry to note that Miss Jewell, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Vineyard, has been quite sick this week.

I have employed another first-class tailor and can cut and make your clothes right here.

TRAYLOR, the Tailor.

Mrs. Anna Gutzmer of San Antonio, formerly Miss Anna Tracey of this city, is visiting the family of her brother, Mr. Herman Tracey.

Mr. G. H. Vick who has been in Bryan since last fall conducting a skating rink in partnership with Mr. J. E. Ahlers, returned home last Saturday.

Rev. J. W. Gates, the Christian minister at Weimar who is well known in Eagle Lake, at the close of services last Sunday night tendered his resignation, but the membership refused to consider it, and he will likely withdraw it.

Among those from here who went to Houston to witness the ball game between St. Louis and Washington last Sunday were, M. E. and John Guynn, Jas. Gordon, Abe Beakes, Chas. Lengeke, Jas. Newsom, Vernon Bowman, Ed. Hatch, Chas. Bowick, Frank Start, and others.

Mr. R. E. Walker was a business visitor to Rock Island Tuesday.

Cashier W. D. Walker of the First National Bank of Rock Island, Tex., was in the city Sunday.

Mr. Earl Westmorland left the first of the week for a visit to Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Holley at Brady.

Mrs. Finn of near Lissie, after a severe illness of three months or more, was able to be in the city last Friday.

Mr. D. P. Hayner of Rock Island, president of the Rock Island State Bank, was in the city on business last Friday.

Messrs. J. E. Iles and W. G. Millers of Chesterville were in the city last Saturday and ordered the HEADLIGHT sent to their address for a year.

Evangelist J. L. Hadcock is holding a meeting for the Christian Church at Brenham, the music being conducted by Talmage Stanley and wife.

Easter April 19th.

Order your Easter Suit or trousers now and be sure to have them on time—satisfaction guaranteed.

TRAYLOR, the Tailor.

Mr. C. H. Brosig this week received and has had installed in his saloon some elegant new bar fixtures. Mr. Brosig purchased the new fixtures in San Antonio.

Mr. Henry Esser says the Racket Store has received good results from its advertisement in this paper. The HEADLIGHT reaches the people and advertisements in its columns are sure to be trade getters.

Our old friend Dan Wallace, of Eldorado, Ark., writes us this week, enclosing remittance for renewal subscription to this paper. Dan says: "You must excuse delay, as pay-days are a long ways apart on the Rock Island."

Mr. W. M. Falen, who recently purchased a farm near Egypt through Real Estate Agent J. R. Westmorland, left Tuesday for Sangford, Kansas. Mr. Falen has rented his farm for the present. He had his name placed on our subscription list before leaving.

Mr. W. M. Williamson left Tuesday for San Antonio. Mr. Williamson tells us that it is likely that some changes will be made in the management of the Cavendish affairs and that work in the Cavendish addition will begin again and will be rushed to completion.

Mr. Robt. F. Nixon of Gonzales, county attorney of Gonzales county, spent several days in Eagle Lake this week. Mr. Nixon is a candidate for district attorney. This was his first visit here, and during his brief stay among us, he created a very favorable impression and made great many friends. Mr. Nixon has announced in every paper in this district and some on the outside, and if favorable newspaper comments will amount to anything Mr. Nixon will poll a large vote.

Mr. J. A. Chew, the Singer sewing machine man, has rented an office over J. Nathan & Son's store.

Mr. J. A. Chew, the Singer sewing machine man, has rented an office over J. Nathan & Son's store.

Mr. Will Bladworth of Rock Island, a prominent young stockman of that community, was a business visitor in the city last week.

Rev. J. M. Renick, a prominent Presbyterian minister of Smithville visited the family of Mr. F. Douglas here last week, and preached a very interesting and instructive sermon at the Baptist church Sunday night.

Miss Enla Butler, who has been in Bryan several weeks visiting at the homes of L. T. and H. L. Butler, left yesterday for Eagle Lake where she will spend some time visiting at the home of Mrs. Dr. S. S. Robinson, and from there will go to her home in Dallas. —Karnes County News.

Mr. B. Leysicht, the clever president and manager of the Deaton Grocery company at Eagle Lake, was handskaking with Weimar friends last Friday. He is a very pleasant gentleman, and those of our people whom he had the pleasure of meeting, formed a strong liking for him. —Weimar Mercury.

Messrs. A. T. Norman and E. J. Baxter of Rock Island spent Tuesday in the city. Mr. Norman purchased the job press formerly used by the Advertiser from the HEADLIGHT and same has been shipped to Rock Island where he is putting in a complete job printing plant in connection with his newspaper, the Rock Island Enterprise.

The date of the Easter entertainment to be given by the ladies of the Methodist Church has been changed from Friday night before Easter Sunday to Thursday night. The change was made so as not to interfere with the entertainment which is to be given on the Friday night mentioned by the Episcopal ladies.

The stock holders and directors of the Rock Island State Bank met Tuesday evening and completed all business pertaining to the starting of the bank. By-laws were adopted and finance committee was appointed. During the few days the bank has been in operation, the deposits have been such as to warrant a successful business career for it in the future. —Rock Island Enterprise.

The ladies of the Scrap Book Club have set out a great number of pretty flowers in the public square around the band stand, and the ladies are now using their best efforts for the establishment of a stock law here, believing that trees and shrubbery can never be set out along the streets of the city until such a law is enacted. The HEADLIGHT has been harping on the stock law proposition for the past five years, and hopes the ladies will be successful in their efforts.

Easter April 19th.

Order your Easter Suit or trousers now and be sure to have them on time—satisfaction guaranteed.

Rev. J. W. Gates returned last Saturday from a several weeks' visit to Coleman county. He reports that the outlook for the grain crop is simply fine, and that the people of that section are very hopeful. —Weimar Mercury.

For Sale, at Stringency Prices
Thoroughbred Berkshire hogs and pigs of all ages. A few choice bred gilts. Also pure bred white pekkin duck eggs. Call on or address
SALLADAY & MALTBY,
Chesterville, Tex.

Bryan, Tex., March 30.—The Bryan roller rink has been closed for the season and the proprietors, Messrs. Vick & Ahlers, have gone to their home at Eagle Lake. The presence of the several schools here makes indoor athletic games at the rink very popular and the managers will next season pay particular attention to this feature of amusement. —Galveston News.

NECK AND SHOULDERS
Above the Rest.
Our made-to-fit garments are cut in the latest styles and are made by first-class journeyman tailors. THIS WE GUARANTEE. Twenty-five years of practical knowledge and systematic efforts to improve the quality stand behind them. Call and see how we make up our clothes and you will see the difference at a glance.

GEO. REDFORD,
Master Tailor.

In our announcement column today will be found the name of Mr. W. S. Miller, our present efficient district clerk, who announces for re-election to that office, subject, of course, to the action of the white man's party. Mr. Miller has made an exceptionally fine officer, accurate, painstaking and accommodating at all times. He is popular with the people—for to know "Bill" Miller is to like him. He will appreciate your vote and support, promising, if re-elected, to continue to perform the duties of that office to the very best of his ability, as he has endeavored to do in the past.

GEO. REDFORD,
Master Tailor.

Mr. George Theilen and Miss Tessie Turner were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Mooney at 10 o'clock last Saturday night. Rev. J. E. Morgan officiating. The bride has been a resident of Eagle Lake for about a year having moved to Eagle Lake from Rock Island, and during her sojourn here has made a great many friends. The groom is the popular young baker at Mr. Mooney's bakery and is held in high esteem by all who know him. After the ceremony, the bridal couple and guests partook of an elegant supper which had been prepared for the occasion by Mrs. Mooney. Mr. and Mrs. Theilen will continue to make this city their home and the HEADLIGHT joins their friends in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous life.