Mrs. M. E. Goyne and little Virginia Goyne returned Wednesday afternoon from a two weeks' visit to San Antonio.

Mrs. W. H. Plagemann of Eagle City was the guest of Mrs. W. A. Thatcher Wednesday night, while en route for a visit to relatives in Shiner.

Though not a large crowd, a good many were out to the park Thursday night to enjoy the band concert. Had the night not been so cool, doubtless the park would have been crowded.

Mr. Seal, manager of the band, says the band has been improved wonderfully since last summer, and has learned a great deal of new music.

One of the pleasures of the HEADLIGHT representative at the Columbus Maifest was to see from that talented and charming lady, Mrs. Ben Baker. She looks well and bears her loss bravely with philosophy.

Christian resignation. Though lame, she has brought the crown of gray, she still wears the smile of her girlhood. This meeting brought to the writer's memory the Columbus of forty years ago when the two were girls together in the beautiful village of oaks.

Columbus Maifest.

There is no prettier town in Texas than Columbus. Her chief glory is her most moss draped homes. She has many lovely homes which dwell a hospitable people. She has handsome business houses and clean yards and streets. And there is the county's capital, an imposing structure surrounded by grounds where green grass and hedges, flowers and fountains make a picture of beauty. The first of May was her reception day and charming as did she entertain the thousands that flocked to her in visitation. At noon a large Spanish band, consisting of especially fine musicians, representing Mexico, exhibited considerable talent. She sang La Golondrina excellently and spoke her lines with feeling. The people of Columbus have cause to feel proud of their local talent for this play could not have been so well rendered in many towns the size of Columbus.

In the forenoon trap shooting and base ball were the order of the day. Columbus beauty spot, and at night there was a fine dance at Ige Hall.

The HEADLIGHT reporter returns thanks to Hon. J. R. Wooten for many courtesies that help to make the Columbus Maifest a happy memory.

WHOOPIING COUGH.

In February our daughter had the whooping cough. Mr. Lane, of Hartland recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and said it gave his customers the best of satisfaction. We found it as he said, and can recommend it to anyone having children troubled with whooping cough," says Mrs. A. Lane, of Hurand, Mich. For sale by all druggists.

The second chariot, also white and yellow, contained the Texas queen and attendants. This won second prize. Then Mrs. Sandmeyer, the queen of France, in an exquisite vehicle all white. This won first prize.

The queen of Spain presented a gorgeous picture, a riot of color. The carriage was completely covered with chrysanthemums of the Spanish colors, yellow and red, and was drawn by two fine black horses at tandem, with red and yellow harness, silk hatted, finely dressed negro driver, and altogether could not have surpassed in any large city. This was the equippers of Mrs. Leo Hahn. It won third prize out received one vote for first prize.

There was a carriage land, somely decorated in royal purple and one in white roses. Mrs. T. P. Boulden's carriage was in blue and white. The bicycles though not many in number, were handsome in decoration. On horseback were the cowboys and girls of the Texas Republic, some negro burlesquers, the fit Indian and Mexican dancers. Miss Margaret Mansfield had the most elaborately decorated horse. The judges of the parade were Mrs. J. V. Sholey of Rock Island, Mrs. W. A. Baar of Weimar and Mrs. J. W. McCarty of Eagle Lake.

At the opera house at 8:30 a. matinee was given, the play being "Texas" under the management of Prof. Z. A. Hall and wife, who is a tower of strength in that line. More than a thousand people crowded the hall, and though it was the third presentation in Columbus, those who had seen it twice before were as enthusiastic as those who were for the first time experiencing that pleasure. A description could not do justice to this beautiful, spectacular performance. It must be seen to be appreciated. The children showed wonderful feelings. The play is not only enjoyable as a thing of beauty, but it is instructive, teaching the young and reminding the older of the history of "Grand Old Texas," stimulating patriotism and kindling our gratitude to those pioneers to whom we owe so much. The national dances by the little folks were charming. All were graceful and bewitching. A duet dance by Margaret and a solo by a little girl in Spanish costume was especially fine. Also in the afternoon, representing Mexico, exhibited considerable talent. She sang La Golondrina excellently and spoke her lines with feeling. The people of Columbus have cause to feel proud of their local talent for this play could not have been so well rendered in many towns the size of Columbus.
