Mrs. B. Hamburger
Eagle Lake, Texas.

Lignite cinders, 10c a load, at the ice plant.

Mrs. M. S. Adams and children of Beaumont are the guests of the family of Mr. B. Burg.

Mrs. E. R. Franks and B.
S. Grimsitt of Garwood were in the city on business yesterday.

Mrs. Ben Bader and little son returned yesterday from Bell ville where they had been to attend the Maifest.

Mr. C. B. Scott came in from the East the early part of the week and will spend a while here with his nephew, Mr. E. J.
Scott.

The home-folks are indebted to Master Curtis McClabahan for a call and a bucket of nice vegetables, squashes, green beans, of lettuce, new potatoes and best of all, snap beans.

Mr. Ben Bader, who for some time past was with the Deaton Grocery Company has, during the past week, received a merited promotion from the Schumacher Grocery Company, which compensation recently purchased the business of the Deaton Company.
Mr. Bader is now manager of the house here.

The HEADLIGHT hopes that its advertisers will hand in their copy for advertisements or changes in ads for next issue just as early in the week as possible as the editor expects to be in Mineral Wells the greater portion of next week attending the 29th annual session of the Texas Press Association.

Mrs. H. W. Rayner gave a delightful 6 o'clock dinner party at her home at Lakeside Thursday evening. The table was beautifully decorated in bride's roses and ferns, with a boutoniere at each plate. The elegant dinner was served in five courses, the guests being Mr. and Mrs.
M. E. Guynn, Miss Anne Byrd and Miss Jaquelin Bruce.

We are pleased to add the name of Mr. Chas. Banning to our subscription list this week.

Mr. C. L. Miller left Wednesday afternoon for Sugarland, where he will be night watchman at the Sarnia sugar mill.

The HEADLIGHT's subscription list continues to grow all the time, and this week having added the names of J. R. White and Miss Helen Cusby of Rock Island.

Dr. Will Beard spent last week in Brownsville and has about decided to locate there and practice dentistry, though he does not expect to move there until the latter part of next month.

Mr. Oliver Snyder, division superintendent of the Santa Fe at Temple, has been tendered a reception there by the citizens.
Several hundred took part, and the speechfest was followed by a banquet.

There will be a local talent play in the Norris Hall, on Friday night, June 5th, given under the auspices of the Cemetery Association. The cast of characters and synopsis of the play, which is "Rebecca's Triumph," will be found printed elsewhere in this paper.

Her many friends in Eagle Lake were pained to learn of the death of Mrs. Mittie Miller, wife of W. S. Miller, which occurred at her home in Columbus last Monday morning. Mrs. Miller was a daughter of the late Thos.
J. Oakes. She was 35 years of age and a native of Columbus vicinity. No one in the city of Columbus has often comforted the distressed or assisted the afflicted than has Mrs. Miller.
She possessed those attributes of character that endowed abiding fidelity to her. Her demise is deeply deplored. She was buried at the side of her parents at Oak Fellows last Tuesday.

Messrs. Seth Cooper and Branian Frost attended the Maifest in Bellville Thursday.

Mrs. George Best of Columbus came down Thursday afternoon for a visit to Mrs. W. A.
Dallas.

Mrs. Ella Guynn, Mrs. Waugh and Mr. H. P. Hahn returned home from Columbus Thursday afternoon, where they had been to attend the funeral of Mrs. Mittie Miller.

Mr. Chas. Woodward has our thanks for some fine, large white onions, which he presented us last week.

Mr. Woodward's brother on his ranch at Woodward, near Cayula. Mr. Woodward's brother has one hundred acres in onions, which he is now shipping to the markets.

LISSIE NEWS NOTES.

Miss Roth Thomas will return this week from Houston where she has completed a course in dressmaking.

Mr. Dan Keeley is in El Campo placing engines for the Tips Engine Co.

The painters and decorators are at work on J. M. Lee's new residence. It will soon be ready for occupancy.

Arthur Stallinger and Ed. Fair-left Tuesday for Los Angeles, California.

Mr. M. G. Calvert of Eagle Lake was in town one day last week.

Mr. Hayes Stephens of Eagle Lake was a business caller here Wednesday.

School closed Friday. The teacher, Miss Sarah Drake, gave a picnic for the children and parents, which was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. J. M. Everett's mother, Mrs. Coleman of Edna, came to see for a visit.

Mr. May was here two days last week tooling plans.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Wheeler spent Monday afternoon in Eagle Lake.

Messrs. Wheeler, Ferrell, and Ashley are busy baling and shipping hay.

Mr. May was here two days
last week tooling plans.

CHESTERTOWN NEWS
Mrs. J. E. Lowery and children of Smithville are visiting their cousins, Mrs. G. M. Jackson and Mrs. J. Brower.

Miss Lepore Fulford spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at Eagle Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Felt and friends of Sealy, were in Chesterville on Tuesday looking over the rice farms.

Miss Ola Jackson of Smithville, Texas, is here visiting her sisters the Messdames Brower, Jackson and Brower.

On next Friday night, May 22, a home talent play entitled "The Spinners Club" will be given at Chesterville schoolhouse.

The costumes and situations are exceedingly funny. Admission 25c. Come and enjoy a "good laugh." Refreshments will be served after the play.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Felt and
friends of Sealy, were in Chesterville on Tuesday looking over the
rice farms.

Seeding of rice in this vicinity is about finished and the pumpkin season has commenced practically in earnest. The stand of early rice averages only four with all the late seeding not developed. There will be a slight increase in acreage over last year with a larger percentage of new seed and a good harvest condition than usual. The farmers on Chesterville prairie are very hopeful, and a repetition of last year's crop and prices will put them in fine shape financially.

Mrs. Manta of Glen Flora is visiting Mrs. J. Brower.

The Cradle of the Deep.

There must have been a pretty big catch of politics out in Iowa this season. At any rate, Jonathan P. Dilliver, of that State, is a rather big man-physically-and he says he has his fill of them.
He made the statement recently, in talking to the Philadelphia bankers.

"I've been warned," he said,
"not to talk politics, but I assure you that the warning was superfluous. I've had all the politics that I want for a while. I'm saturated with them. In fact, I never knew but one person who knew of anything as tiresome as politics."

who came East for the months of July and August. "Brought up so far inland, she naturally started out with a blanketing for seafood, but she had been completely flushed when she stopped in New York on her way home.
She was there taken out to dinner by her fiancé, who suggested as a tip of the hat to her.

"Shall we begin with some clams?"
"Clams?" cried the Sumner Girl. "Don't say clams to me.
I've eaten so many lately I rise and fall with the tide."

WHOOING COUGH.
"In February our daughter had the whooping cough. Mr. Lane, of Harland, recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and said it gave his customers the best of satisfaction.
We found it as he said, and can recommend it to anyone having children troubled with whooping cough," says Mrs. A. Goss, of Durand, Mich. For sale by all druggists.

The President's Revelation.
While President Roosevelt was holding an open air reception at Syracuse, a tall negro pushed his way forward through the crowd and eagerly grasped his hand.

"Yo' n me war bo'n on the same day, Mistah Roosevelt!" the darky enthusiastically said, his shining black face almost clef from ear to ear by a grin.

"Do lighted, indeed, to hear it!" warmly responded the President taking a fresh grip on the black hand and laughing heartily.

"So you and I were born on the same day? Well, well!"
"Yo' an fo'ty-seven years old, suh?"

"I am," was the quick answer.
"An' yo' war bo'n on October 17, 1857?"

"Yes."

"Ya-as, suh!" then exclaimed the darky shaking over all with rapture; "ya-as suh, Mr. Roosevelt yo' an' me is bote twins!"

VALUED NAME AS GOLD.
H. G. Stewart, a merchant of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, says: "I tell my customers when they buy a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills they get the worth of that much gold in weight. It afflicts with constipation, malaria or biliousness." Sold under guarantee at Caldwell's drug store, 25c.

From the Lulling Signal.

In the Oliver Contest Query of Houston, "What Is a Baby?" Mrs. Jennie Clarke of Luling won $70 as a prize, which is to be applied on the purchase of a piano from the Oliver Music Co., of Houston. As she does not wish to purchase another piano, we are informed that she will give this credit slip amounting to $70 to any person, free, wishing to purchase one, who will call by the 10th of May. The following lines limited to twenty-five words was her answer to the query:

God's wonderful masterpiece,
The dearest gift of love, Sweet messenger of hope, joy and peace,
To win fond parents for heaven above.

Cone Johnson.

No man ever went before the people in a political campaign and came away wearing more laurels than Hon. Cone Johnson. Fearless, forceful, courteous, but convincing in argument. His campaign as a candidate for delegate at large was a most remarkable one and tens of thousands of people will remember the speeches of the man with a smile that won't come off.
The political sands of old Smith county have taken on a new insurre, and the boyhood home of James Stephens Hogg has made good again. "Van Zandt sends me a card to tell you."

"The luckiest day of my life was when I bought a box of Buckle's Archives Salve," says Charles F. Dillman of Tracy, California. "The salve cured me of an annoying case of itching piles, which had troubled me four years, and that wanted no other treatment." Sold under guarantee at Caldwell's drug store.

Don't let the world think you are a member of a social club whose rules forbid the use of a smile. If you're a fan or an ache, if you're down on your luck, if you've not been quite as successful as you think you should have been, or if your business affairs don't run smoothly each and every day, just bear in mind, "there are others," smile up, take another hitch in your energy belt, and you will feel a heap sight better for it. Keep smiling!—Happgood's Opportunities.

THE MOST COMMON CAUSE OF SUE-FERING.
Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease, for the reason that it is the most common of all ills, and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that Chamberlain's Liniment will afford relief, and make rest and sleep possible. In many cases relief from pain, which is at first temporary, has become permanent, while in old people subject to chronic rheumatism, often brought on by dampness or changes in the weather, a permanent cure cannot be expected; the relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost—25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by all druggists.

"Frank Gould says the rich have their troubles."

"I suppose they do, but they are not like the troubles of the poor."

"What's the difference?"

"The troubles of the rich are brought on by themselves. The troubles of the poor are usually shoved on them."—Bryan's Commoner.
