

Eagle Lake Headlight.

Bruce W. McCarty Editor and Prop.

"NOTHING EXTENUATE, NOR SET DOWN AUGHT IN MALICE."

One Dollar Per Year, In Advance

VOLUME VI.

EAGLE LAKE, TEXAS, SATURDAY JUNE 20, 1908.

NUMBER 8.

Headlight Flashes

Items of Local Interest Gathered and Condensed by the Headlight Reporter.

Mr. J. J. Potter of Nada was in the city Wednesday.

Mr. Geo. McLain was in the city on business Wednesday.

Miss Nina Byars left Saturday for a few days visit to Glen Flora.

Mr. C. L. Comp of Nottawa was in the city on business Monday.

Master Lester Mersfelder of Glen Flora visited relatives here this week.

Messrs. O. M. Bakke and J. W. McCarty of Sugarland spent Sunday in the city.

Mr. J. W. Harrington returned Tuesday morning from a business visit to Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Lee of Lasie returned Monday from a visit to relatives in Austin.

Mr. C. F. Lehmann of Hallockville was a business visitor in the city Monday morning.

GIN FOR SALE - at Ramsey, 6 miles from Eagle Lake. Apply to J. R. Alley at Ramsey.

Mr. August Suager came in from San Antonio Tuesday afternoon for a visit to relatives.

Mr. J. C. Habermacher of Shiner is spending the week in the city with Mrs. W. A. Thatcher.

We are glad to see Mr. O. Green on the street again after a long and severe spell of sickness.

Eagle Lake Steam Laundry, Phone 130. Call us up and we will send for your laundry bundle.

Messrs. J. E. McDonald and L. H. Shinn were business visitors to Houston the early part of the week.

Mrs. M. S. Adels and little daughter, Densie, Rowena, or Beaumont, are the guests of Mrs. B. Burg.

Attorney Whit Boyd of Columbus was in the city Wednesday en route for a visit to the oil fields at Markham.

Mrs. A. Mersfelder returned to her home in Glen Flora Wednesday after a pleasant visit to relatives here.

FOR SALE - New five room cottage on two large lots. Also three good building lots at $25 each. Call phone 25.

Miss Mattie Lee Jones returned to her home in Temple Monday after a pleasant visit to her sister Mrs. W. L. Bishop.

FOR RENT - The John Tatters residence in this city is for rent. For further particulars see E. A. Toliver.

Notice. The partnership heretofore existing between A. E. Wilson and T. L. Smith, Jr., in the practice of Civil Engineering, has been dissolved and the undersigned will in future give his personal attention to the business.

T. L. SMITH, JR.

Mr. Sam Little was in Weimar Sunday to see his best girl.

Mr. W. H. Able of Garwood was a business visitor in the city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Saenger of Houston spent a few days in the city this week.

Mr. Sam Monroe of Houston was in the city on business Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. John Tatters came up from Houston and spent Tuesday and Wednesday in the city.

Mr. Max Schindler of the Monte community was a business visitor in the city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rathner spent a couple of days in Luling last week.

Mr. Glenn A. Herbert of Columbus was in the city Tuesday en route to Sealy.

Order your 4th of July suit from Traylor, the tailor. Style fit and quality guaranteed.

Why don't you try a few lines ads in this paper next week? Tell the people what you have to say.

Mr. Albert Hahn came down from Columbus Tuesday afternoon for a few days' visit to relatives and friends.

Mr. W. E. Brown left Tuesday night for a visit to his old home in Holly Springs, Mississippi. He expects to be absent several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Vincent have moved from Mart to Lumbago, Texas. Vincent has instructed us to forward her paper to the latter place.

PIANO FOR SALE - A good piano for sale at a bargain. For particulars see Mrs. R. S. Simmons, Bonus, or Fox Stephens, at the First National Bank.

Mrs. Mentor Northington and two interesting children spent Tuesday in the city with relatives while en route home from a visit to Houston and Galveston.

You can save money on lumber, shingles, millwork, etc., by sending us your house or barn bill for our estimate.

CONSUMER'S LUMBER CO., Houston, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. H. Dennis of Wharton spent a few days in the city with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Anderson this week while en route home from a visit to Houston.

City Marshal H. S. Vineyard returned Monday from a week's visit to his family whose spending the summer at Ingleside. Mr. Vineyard tells us that the grape crop in that section is almost a failure this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus T. Rayner of Sugarland left this week for New York where they will take a steamer for an extensive European tour.

Mr. J. S. Douglass and family of Gonzales came in last week for a visit to the family of Mr. Frank Douglass. Mr. Douglass, who is cashier of the Gonzales State Bank, returned home Monday, but his family remained for a longer visit.

Mr. James Hopkins of Garwood was here on business Saturday. He says the town of Eagle Lake is losing money in trade every day, because the people of the Garwood and Nada sections can not cross the river to come to this place to make their purchases. He says it is reported that the bridge will not be put in condition before fall, and if such is the case, the rice farmers of that section will be compelled to haul their rice to Rock Island and ship their rice from that point to the mills here.

Miss Nixie Storey, a popular young lady of Lockhart, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. P. Via.

Mr. W. L. Bishop came up from Waco Sunday and spent the day in the city with his family, returning same night.

LOST - Child's Roman gold ring, with heart on top and letter "D" on same. Finder will please return to this office and receive reward.

Mr. Ralph Nathan came over from Yankum last Friday night and is in charge of the business of L. Levytsky & Co. during Mr. Meyer Nathan's absence.

Mrs. J. A. Dean and daughter, Misses Neva and Celia, left last week for Lexington where they were called on account of the serious illness of a relative.

The Birmingham News of June 11th. contained a fine half-tone photo of Miss Nantie Duncan of Egypt, who attended the reunion as Maid of Honor. Forrest's Cavalry Corps.

We learn that Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hahn will move to Houston next month, where Mr. Hahn will engage in the general brokerage business. He has but very best wishes for success.

Messrs. O. E. Linderholm, Chas. Fetrow and G. M. Jackson of Chesterville were in the city on business Tuesday. They report that rice prospects in the Chesterville community are as fine as could be expected.

STRAYED - From Eagle Lake May 27th, bay mare, weighed about 900 pounds; mane clipped; rough built, endgate rod brand. Finder please notify E. D. HAVENS, Lissie, Texas.

The House of Correct Dress. You have always been interested in good tailoring and it is worth your while to see our line of clothing and samples. Beyond a doubt, they are the swell of the town in this town. We have a way of tailoring a suit that puts snap and life right in it, and what's more, we make it the way you want it, and make it to fit.

GREY REDFORD, Merchant Tailor.

To the Public: We want to thank our friends and customers of the Eagle Lake Butcher Co. for all past favors and patronage extended us. As announced in last week's Headlight and a dissolution notice of this issue, a deal was made when Mr. E. E. Reed of Houston purchased our interests and with Mr. Castellaw retained the business continues under the same name.

We trust the same courteous treatment (for which E. E. is not) will be extended the new management and feel sure you will have in Mr. Reed and his family a valuable acquisition to Eagle Lake.

E. E. Johnson, Max Conner, Eagle Lake, Texas, June 12, '08.

Miss Nixie Storey, a popular young lady of Lockhart, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. P. Via.

Mr. W. L. Bishop came up from Waco Sunday and spent the day in the city with his family, returning same night.

LOST - Child's Roman gold ring, with heart on top and letter "D" on same. Finder will please return to this office and receive reward.

Mr. Ralph Nathan came over from Yankum last Friday night and is in charge of the business of L. Levytsky & Co. during Mr. Meyer Nathan's absence.

Mrs. J. A. Dean and daughter, Misses Neva and Celia, left last week for Lexington where they were called on account of the serious illness of a relative.

The Birmingham News of June 11th. contained a fine half-tone photo of Miss Nantie Duncan of Egypt, who attended the reunion as Maid of Honor. Forrest's Cavalry Corps.

We learn that Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hahn will move to Houston next month, where Mr. Hahn will engage in the general brokerage business. He has but very best wishes for success.

Messrs. O. E. Linderholm, Chas. Fetrow and G. M. Jackson of Chesterville were in the city on business Tuesday. They report that rice prospects in the Chesterville community are as fine as could be expected.

STRAYED - From Eagle Lake May 27th, bay mare, weighed about 900 pounds; mane clipped; rough built, endgate rod brand. Finder please notify E. D. HAVENS, Lissie, Texas.

The House of Correct Dress. You have always been interested in good tailoring and it is worth your while to see our line of clothing and samples. Beyond a doubt, they are the swell of the town in this town. We have a way of tailoring a suit that puts snap and life right in it, and what's more, we make it the way you want it, and make it to fit.

GREY REDFORD, Merchant Tailor.

To the Public: We want to thank our friends and customers of the Eagle Lake Butcher Co. for all past favors and patronage extended us. As announced in last week's Headlight and a dissolution notice of this issue, a deal was made when Mr. E. E. Reed of Houston purchased our interests and with Mr. Castellaw retained the business continues under the same name.

We trust the same courteous treatment (for which E. E. is not) will be extended the new management and feel sure you will have in Mr. Reed and his family a valuable acquisition to Eagle Lake.

E. E. Johnson, Max Conner, Eagle Lake, Texas, June 12, '08.

Miss Nixie Storey, a popular young lady of Lockhart, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. P. Via.

Mr. W. L. Bishop came up from Waco Sunday and spent the day in the city with his family, returning same night.

LOST - Child's Roman gold ring, with heart on top and letter "D" on same. Finder will please return to this office and receive reward.

Mr. Ralph Nathan came over from Yankum last Friday night and is in charge of the business of L. Levytsky & Co. during Mr. Meyer Nathan's absence.

Mrs. J. A. Dean and daughter, Misses Neva and Celia, left last week for Lexington where they were called on account of the serious illness of a relative.

The Birmingham News of June 11th. contained a fine half-tone photo of Miss Nantie Duncan of Egypt, who attended the reunion as Maid of Honor. Forrest's Cavalry Corps.

We learn that Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hahn will move to Houston next month, where Mr. Hahn will engage in the general brokerage business. He has but very best wishes for success.

Messrs. O. E. Linderholm, Chas. Fetrow and G. M. Jackson of Chesterville were in the city on business Tuesday. They report that rice prospects in the Chesterville community are as fine as could be expected.

STRAYED - From Eagle Lake May 27th, bay mare, weighed about 900 pounds; mane clipped; rough built, endgate rod brand. Finder please notify E. D. HAVENS, Lissie, Texas.

The House of Correct Dress. You have always been interested in good tailoring and it is worth your while to see our line of clothing and samples. Beyond a doubt, they are the swell of the town in this town. We have a way of tailoring a suit that puts snap and life right in it, and what's more, we make it the way you want it, and make it to fit.

GREY REDFORD, Merchant Tailor.

To the Public: We want to thank our friends and customers of the Eagle Lake Butcher Co. for all past favors and patronage extended us. As announced in last week's Headlight and a dissolution notice of this issue, a deal was made when Mr. E. E. Reed of Houston purchased our interests and with Mr. Castellaw retained the business continues under the same name.

We trust the same courteous treatment (for which E. E. is not) will be extended the new management and feel sure you will have in Mr. Reed and his family a valuable acquisition to Eagle Lake.

E. E. Johnson, Max Conner, Eagle Lake, Texas, June 12, '08.

Miss Nixie Storey, a popular young lady of Lockhart, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. P. Via.

Mr. W. L. Bishop came up from Waco Sunday and spent the day in the city with his family, returning same night.

LOST - Child's Roman gold ring, with heart on top and letter "D" on same. Finder will please return to this office and receive reward.

Mr. Ralph Nathan came over from Yankum last Friday night and is in charge of the business of L. Levytsky & Co. during Mr. Meyer Nathan's absence.

Mrs. J. A. Dean and daughter, Misses Neva and Celia, left last week for Lexington where they were called on account of the serious illness of a relative.

The Birmingham News of June 11th. contained a fine half-tone photo of Miss Nantie Duncan of Egypt, who attended the reunion as Maid of Honor. Forrest's Cavalry Corps.

We learn that Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hahn will move to Houston next month, where Mr. Hahn will engage in the general brokerage business. He has but very best wishes for success.

Messrs. O. E. Linderholm, Chas. Fetrow and G. M. Jackson of Chesterville were in the city on business Tuesday. They report that rice prospects in the Chesterville community are as fine as could be expected.

STRAYED - From Eagle Lake May 27th, bay mare, weighed about 900 pounds; mane clipped; rough built, endgate rod brand. Finder please notify E. D. HAVENS, Lissie, Texas.

The House of Correct Dress. You have always been interested in good tailoring and it is worth your while to see our line of clothing and samples. Beyond a doubt, they are the swell of the town in this town. We have a way of tailoring a suit that puts snap and life right in it, and what's more, we make it the way you want it, and make it to fit.

GREY REDFORD, Merchant Tailor.

To the Public: We want to thank our friends and customers of the Eagle Lake Butcher Co. for all past favors and patronage extended us. As announced in last week's Headlight and a dissolution notice of this issue, a deal was made when Mr. E. E. Reed of Houston purchased our interests and with Mr. Castellaw retained the business continues under the same name.

We trust the same courteous treatment (for which E. E. is not) will be extended the new management and feel sure you will have in Mr. Reed and his family a valuable acquisition to Eagle Lake.

E. E. Johnson, Max Conner, Eagle Lake, Texas, June 12, '08.

Miss Nixie Storey, a popular young lady of Lockhart, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. P. Via.

Mr. W. L. Bishop came up from Waco Sunday and spent the day in the city with his family, returning same night.

LOST - Child's Roman gold ring, with heart on top and letter "D" on same. Finder will please return to this office and receive reward.

Mr. Ralph Nathan came over from Yankum last Friday night and is in charge of the business of L. Levytsky & Co. during Mr. Meyer Nathan's absence.

Mrs. J. A. Dean and daughter, Misses Neva and Celia, left last week for Lexington where they were called on account of the serious illness of a relative.

The Birmingham News of June 11th. contained a fine half-tone photo of Miss Nantie Duncan of Egypt, who attended the reunion as Maid of Honor. Forrest's Cavalry Corps.

We learn that Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hahn will move to Houston next month, where Mr. Hahn will engage in the general brokerage business. He has but very best wishes for success.

Messrs. O. E. Linderholm, Chas. Fetrow and G. M. Jackson of Chesterville were in the city on business Tuesday. They report that rice prospects in the Chesterville community are as fine as could be expected.

STRAYED - From Eagle Lake May 27th, bay mare, weighed about 900 pounds; mane clipped; rough built, endgate rod brand. Finder please notify E. D. HAVENS, Lissie, Texas.

The House of Correct Dress. You have always been interested in good tailoring and it is worth your while to see our line of clothing and samples. Beyond a doubt, they are the swell of the town in this town. We have a way of tailoring a suit that puts snap and life right in it, and what's more, we make it the way you want it, and make it to fit.

GREY REDFORD, Merchant Tailor.

To the Public: We want to thank our friends and customers of the Eagle Lake Butcher Co. for all past favors and patronage extended us. As announced in last week's Headlight and a dissolution notice of this issue, a deal was made when Mr. E. E. Reed of Houston purchased our interests and with Mr. Castellaw retained the business continues under the same name.

We trust the same courteous treatment (for which E. E. is not) will be extended the new management and feel sure you will have in Mr. Reed and his family a valuable acquisition to Eagle Lake.

E. E. Johnson, Max Conner, Eagle Lake, Texas, June 12, '08.

Miss Nixie Storey, a popular young lady of Lockhart, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. P. Via.

Mr. W. L. Bishop came up from Waco Sunday and spent the day in the city with his family, returning same night.

LOST - Child's Roman gold ring, with heart on top and letter "D" on same. Finder will please return to this office and receive reward.

Mr. Ralph Nathan came over from Yankum last Friday night and is in charge of the business of L. Levytsky & Co. during Mr. Meyer Nathan's absence.

Mrs. J. A. Dean and daughter, Misses Neva and Celia, left last week for Lexington where they were called on account of the serious illness of a relative.

The Birmingham News of June 11th. contained a fine half-tone photo of Miss Nantie Duncan of Egypt, who attended the reunion as Maid of Honor. Forrest's Cavalry Corps.

We learn that Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hahn will move to Houston next month, where Mr. Hahn will engage in the general brokerage business. He has but very best wishes for success.

Messrs. O. E. Linderholm, Chas. Fetrow and G. M. Jackson of Chesterville were in the city on business Tuesday. They report that rice prospects in the Chesterville community are as fine as could be expected.

STRAYED - From Eagle Lake May 27th, bay mare, weighed about 900 pounds; mane clipped; rough built, endgate rod brand. Finder please notify E. D. HAVENS, Lissie, Texas.

The House of Correct Dress. You have always been interested in good tailoring and it is worth your while to see our line of clothing and samples. Beyond a doubt, they are the swell of the town in this town. We have a way of tailoring a suit that puts snap and life right in it, and what's more, we make it the way you want it, and make it to fit.

GREY REDFORD, Merchant Tailor.

To the Public: We want to thank our friends and customers of the Eagle Lake Butcher Co. for all past favors and patronage extended us. As announced in last week's Headlight and a dissolution notice of this issue, a deal was made when Mr. E. E. Reed of Houston purchased our interests and with Mr. Castellaw retained the business continues under the same name.

We trust the same courteous treatment (for which E. E. is not) will be extended the new management and feel sure you will have in Mr. Reed and his family a valuable acquisition to Eagle Lake.

E. E. Johnson, Max Conner, Eagle Lake, Texas, June 12, '08.

Miss Nixie Storey, a popular young lady of Lockhart, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. P. Via.

Mr. W. L. Bishop came up from Waco Sunday and spent the day in the city with his family, returning same night.

LOST - Child's Roman gold ring, with heart on top and letter "D" on same. Finder will please return to this office and receive reward.

Mr. Ralph Nathan came over from Yankum last Friday night and is in charge of the business of L. Levytsky & Co. during Mr. Meyer Nathan's absence.

Mrs. J. A. Dean and daughter, Misses Neva and Celia, left last week for Lexington where they were called on account of the serious illness of a relative.

The Birmingham News of June 11th. contained a fine half-tone photo of Miss Nantie Duncan of Egypt, who attended the reunion as Maid of Honor. Forrest's Cavalry Corps.

We learn that Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hahn will move to Houston next month, where Mr. Hahn will engage in the general brokerage business. He has but very best wishes for success.

Messrs. O. E. Linderholm, Chas. Fetrow and G. M. Jackson of Chesterville were in the city on business Tuesday. They report that rice prospects in the Chesterville community are as fine as could be expected.

STRAYED - From Eagle Lake May 27th, bay mare, weighed about 900 pounds; mane clipped; rough built, endgate rod brand. Finder please notify E. D. HAVENS, Lissie, Texas.

The House of Correct Dress. You have always been interested in good tailoring and it is worth your while to see our line of clothing and samples. Beyond a doubt, they are the swell of the town in this town. We have a way of tailoring a suit that puts snap and life right in it, and what's more, we make it the way you want it, and make it to fit.

GREY REDFORD, Merchant Tailor.

To the Public: We want to thank our friends and customers of the Eagle Lake Butcher Co. for all past favors and patronage extended us. As announced in last week's Headlight and a dissolution notice of this issue, a deal was made when Mr. E. E. Reed of Houston purchased our interests and with Mr. Castellaw retained the business continues under the same name.

We trust the same courteous treatment (for which E. E. is not) will be extended the new management and feel sure you will have in Mr. Reed and his family a valuable acquisition to Eagle Lake.

E. E. Johnson, Max Conner, Eagle Lake, Texas, June 12, '08.

Miss Nixie Storey, a popular young lady of Lockhart, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. P. Via.

Mr. W. L. Bishop came up from Waco Sunday and spent the day in the city with his family, returning same night.

LOST - Child's Roman gold ring, with heart on top and letter "D" on same. Finder will please return to this office and receive reward.

Mr. Ralph Nathan came over from Yankum last Friday night and is in charge of the business of L. Levytsky & Co. during Mr. Meyer Nathan's absence.

Mrs. J. A. Dean and daughter, Misses Neva and Celia, left last week for Lexington where they were called on account of the serious illness of a relative.

The Birmingham News of June 11th. contained a fine half-tone photo of Miss Nantie Duncan of Egypt, who attended the reunion as Maid of Honor. Forrest's Cavalry Corps.

We learn that Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hahn will move to Houston next month, where Mr. Hahn will engage in the general brokerage business. He has but very best wishes for success.

Messrs. O. E. Linderholm, Chas. Fetrow and G. M. Jackson of Chesterville were in the city on business Tuesday. They report that rice prospects in the Chesterville community are as fine as could be expected.

STRAYED - From Eagle Lake May 27th, bay mare, weighed about 900 pounds; mane clipped; rough built, endgate rod brand. Finder please notify E. D. HAVENS, Lissie, Texas.

The House of Correct Dress. You have always been interested in good tailoring and it is worth your while to see our line of clothing and samples. Beyond a doubt, they are the swell of the town in this town. We have a way of tailoring a suit that puts snap and life right in it, and what's more, we make it the way you want it, and make it to fit.

GREY REDFORD, Merchant Tailor.

To the Public: We want to thank our friends and customers of the Eagle Lake Butcher Co. for all past favors and patronage extended us. As announced in last week's Headlight and a dissolution notice of this issue, a deal was made when Mr. E. E. Reed of Houston purchased our interests and with Mr. Castellaw retained the business continues under the same name.

We trust the same courteous treatment (for which E. E. is not) will be extended the new management and feel sure you will have in Mr. Reed and his family a valuable acquisition to Eagle Lake.

E. E. Johnson, Max Conner, Eagle Lake, Texas, June 12, '08.

Miss Nixie Storey, a popular young lady of Lockhart, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. P. Via.

Mr. W. L. Bishop came up from Waco Sunday and spent the day in the city with his family, returning same night.

LOST - Child's Roman gold ring, with heart on top and letter "D" on same. Finder will please return to this office and receive reward.

Mr. Ralph Nathan came over from Yankum last Friday night and is in charge of the business of L. Levytsky & Co. during Mr. Meyer Nathan's absence.

Mrs. J. A. Dean and daughter, Misses Neva and Celia, left last week for Lexington where they were called on account of the serious illness of a relative.

The Birmingham News of June 11th. contained a fine half-tone photo of Miss Nantie Duncan of Egypt, who attended the reunion as Maid of Honor. Forrest's Cavalry Corps.

We learn that Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hahn will move to Houston next month, where Mr. Hahn will engage in the general brokerage business. He has but very best wishes for success.

Messrs. O. E. Linderholm, Chas. Fetrow and G. M. Jackson of Chesterville were in the city on business Tuesday. They report that rice prospects in the Chesterville community are as fine as could be expected.

STRAYED - From Eagle Lake May 27th, bay mare, weighed about 900 pounds; mane clipped; rough built, endgate rod brand. Finder please notify E. D. HAVENS, Lissie, Texas.

The House of Correct Dress. You have always been interested in good tailoring and it is worth your while to see our line of clothing and samples. Beyond a doubt, they are the swell of the town in this town. We have a way of tailoring a suit that puts snap and life right in it, and what's more, we make it the way you want it, and make it to fit.

GREY REDFORD, Merchant Tailor.

To the Public: We want to thank our friends and customers of the Eagle Lake Butcher Co. for all past favors and patronage extended us. As announced in last week's Headlight and a dissolution notice of this issue, a deal was made when Mr. E. E. Reed of Houston purchased our interests and with Mr. Castellaw retained the business continues under the same name.

We trust the same courteous treatment (for which E. E. is not) will be extended the new management and feel sure you will have in Mr. Reed and his family a valuable acquisition to Eagle Lake.