I AM OPERATING IN THE COAST COUNTRY

With my headquarters at Eagle Lake, Colorado County, Texas.
For The purpose of Selling Farm Lands

If you have a good tract of land of any size that you wish to dispose of quick, list it with me and I will find you a cash buyer, no matter how many others have failed. I make the sale of south Texas lands a specialty. Have purchased the Drummers Home Cottage, have moved my family here to live because we like the place, people and surrounding country. Will do all I can for the upbuilding of this city and section of country. I make farm lands a specialty and do not have any side issues such as loans, cattle, insurance or banking. I have an organized force in the north working for me all the time bringing in purchasers. I know the power of advertising, when, how and where to use it to the best advantage. My sales of south Texas land last year amount to in round numbers, over one million dollars. About two years ago I subdivided and sold out and brought in new settlers for about thirty thousand acres of land in Colorado and Wharton Counties owned by Mr. John Lindholm. I have sold out of the King pasture in Nueces County, Texas, about forty thousand acres during the past four years and have placed settlers on these lands who are successful and they are my best friends today which will demonstrate that I can do business and at the same time treat my purchasers fairly. I do not want one cent of commission until I make the sale and give both the buyer and seller a square deal, with no third party mixed up in the trade to cover up profits. During the past two years I have furnished most of the purchasers for the lands, acreage and town lots for the Alamo Beach family health and pleasure resort. You will find my office opposite the Southern Pacific station in the Drummers Home Cottage. If you wish to list your land call on me or write me stating what you have and naming your very lowest price. I will go and look your property over and if I think I can sell it I will accept it for sale, providing you will give me the exclusive sale of it in writing. Do not look for me on the streets but come direct to my office. I am subdividing and offering for sale in small tracts a Caney Valley plantation, the richest soil that I know of that does not overflow.

Fidelity Immigration Company.

Mr. Francis Potter, Editor of the Herrington Kan. Sun, who made a trip South in January, says:

"One is agreeably disappointed in the sort of land men that you meet down here. 'Nobla man' in this party has been annoyed for a minute by importunities to invest. Every question has been answered fully and courteously, every opportunity is given the intending investor to find out all he wishes to know, not from real estate men alone, but from the inhabitants and farmers themselves. Mr. Herbert D. Hurd, vice-president and manager of the Fidelity Immigration Company, a Texas corporation, with offices at Kansas City, Eagle Lake, Chesterfield and Houston is a special example of this sort of land seller. He has been with our party nearly all the way and not only the writer, but every member of the party, is indebted to him for courtesies and kindnesses that have added very materially to our trip. It makes no difference whether you are an intending investor or just a tourist; his quiet courtesy is just the same. He never importunes you to buy land, but is always ready to show or tell you about his propositions if asked. We are told he closes more deals than any other man in this section of the country, so it appears that his plan works well."

He says he believes the worms have been doing damage to the rice for several years, and that the rice men have just learned the cause of the trouble, heretofore believing that the rice was blighted.

BURGER BROS.

Mr. Wm. Falen of Kansas came in the first of the week for a few weeks' visit. Mr. Falen recently purchased a farm near Eagle Lake in arriving in the morning. He came down at this time of the year to learn the climate of Texas in the summer. Mr. Falen expects to move here a little later on, and will make further land purchases in this section.

"Uncle Tom" Roberts, our county commissioner, tells us that we were incorrectly informed as to no attempt being made to repair the bridge at Garwood. He says every effort is being made to have permanent repairs made, and that the Garwood bridge will be placed in condition just as soon as possible.

Old Time Southern Darkey. The following item clipped from an exchange pays a deserved tribute to a worthy class the old time southern darkey: "An unnamed hero, who deserves more than passing notice is the negro, who at peril of his own life, rescued from the flood four white children up the river, beyond West Dallas, and saved their lives by lashing them to the limb of a tree and remaining with them until boats came to their relief. Many brave and sympathetic hearts beat in black bosoms, and to accuse the negro race as a whole of the sins of the few is as unjust as it is cruel."—Laredo Times.

Tried to Show Him. The colored boy was up in the children's court for the fifth time on charge of chicken-stealing. This time the magistrate decided to appeal to the boy's father, says the Woman's Home Companion: "Now see here, Aba," said he to the old darkey, "this boy of yours has been up in court so many times for stealing chickens that I'm sick of seeing him here!" "Ah don't blame you, sah," returned the father, "Ah's sick ob seeing 'im byah, too!" "Then why don't you teach him how to act? Show him the right way, and he won't be coming here!" "Ah has showed 'im de right way, sah," declared the old man earnestly. "Ah has suttently showed 'im de right way, but he somehow 'keep gittin' caught comin' 'way wid dese chickens!"

FOR A SPRAINED ANKLE. As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a week or more, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle faithfully, a cure may be effected in many cases in less than one week's time. This liniment is a most remarkable preparation. Try it for a sprain or bruise, or when laid up with rheumatism or muscular rheumatism, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which it affords. For sale by all druggists.

Reminded Her of Work. A high official in a telephone company tells this story about a telephone girl who was always late in arriving in the morning. Time and again the manager had pleaded with her to be more prompt.

Her tardiness continued until he was moved to desperate methods. "Now, Miss Jones," he said, one morning as he came to her exchange with a package in his hand, "I have a little scheme which I hope will enable you to arrive at the office in time. Here is a fine alarm clock for you. Promise me that you will use it."

The young woman promised, and set the alarm for the proper hour when she retired. At 7 o'clock there was a tremendous whirring from the alarm clock. The sleepy telephone girl rolled over in bed and said sweetly, and still asleep, "Engaged! Call again!"

Slippery. He was a new comer from the country, and had given a fairly large order. The courteous old senior partner was conducting him over the establishment, and the various improvements caused Mr. Giles' boundless astonishment. A table telephone interested him as much as anything. He had never seen anything of the sort before.

"It is a great convenience to us," explained the senior partner. "You see I can communicate with all our departments without moving from my seat here."

"My that's wonderful!" said Giles. "Can I try it for myself?" "Certainly!"

The visitor got himself switched on to the packing room. "Have Mr. Giles of Mudbury's goods been sent off yet?" he inquired.

Back came the answer. "No; we haven't packed 'em yet. We're waiting for a telegram from his town; he looks like a slippery customer."

Why She Troubled Again. A boy was sent by his mother to their next door neighbor with the following message: "Mother wants to know if you'd please to lend her your preserving kettle, cause as her wants to preserve?"

"We would with pleasure, boy," said the neighbor, "but the truth is, the last time we sent it your mother preserved it so effectively that we have never seen it since."

"Well," retorted the boy, "you needn't be so sassy about your old kettle. It was full of holes when she borrowed it; and mother wouldn't ha' troubled you now only we seed you bringing home a new one!"

A Victim of Precept. Prison Visitor (to convict burglar) You say you are now serving your fourth term for burglary?

Convict—Yes'm.

P. V.—Horrible! What could have induced you to repeat, for a third and even a fourth time, a crime whose fearful punishment should have made you recoil from even a thought of further like offending?

Convict—Ah, madam, it was the influence of a precept taught me in Sunday School.

P. V.—In Sunday school? Impossible!

Convict—Nay, madam. Even now I hear it, as it were the voice of memory urging me back to my boyhood: "If at first you don't succeed, try, try, try again!"

A Mother's Pride. A little boy living out on Quin by avenue appeared at school the other day with his ears matted back tight against his head by strips of court plaster.

"What's the matter with your ears?" inquired his teacher, who couldn't restrain her curiosity.

"Aw, there ain't nothin' the matter with my ears," said the boy. "It's my ma's stickup-ness. She's afraid I'll grow up with ears like a couple of sails and be a disgrace to all my folks."
