Mrs. E. P. Newsom left Tuesday for Lockhart in response to a message announcing the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. A. G. Reynolds, of typhoid fever.

Mr. V. A. Oden left Monday morning for a trip down the Cane Belt road. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Marie, who is spending the week with relatives in Glen Flora.

Mr. E. E. Reed has leased his house, the John Tatters place, to Mr. Oscar Stacker, who will occupy same just as soon as the present occupants, Mr. Largent's family, can secure another place.

Sam H. Little, assistant postmaster at Eagle Lake, was in Weimar Friday afternoon. He says he was here on postoffice business. Guess so. We did see Postmaster Seydler and Sam talking on the street corner. Weimar Cor. Colorado Citizen.

Mr. E. W. Carothers visited relatives in Columbus this week. Mr. Spence Clements of Lane City was a visitor in the city Sunday.

Messrs. Sam H. Little and Will Matthews were Sunday visitors to Weimar.

Mr. Robt. Schrafft of Notaway was a business visitor in the city last Saturday.

Miss Ethel Griffith of Lane City has been spending the week in the city, the guest of Miss Janie Cross.

Mrs. S. O. McCarty and little daughter, Mary Maud, of Eagle Lake are visiting Mrs. McCarty's parents, Judge and Mrs. Volney Ellis—Lockhart Post.

A negro preacher named Ferguson from Eagle Lake, had his leg broken in Floresville last week by jumping off a wagon when the team started to run a way.

Mrs. W. B. Smith and children returned Monday morning from a few weeks' visit to relatives in Kamepey. Mr. Smith went over to Sealy Sunday evening to meet them on their return.

Miss Anne Harrison Byrd left Tuesday afternoon for her home in Baltimore, Md., after an extended visit to her aunt, Mrs. Bruce. Miss Byrd made a great many friends during her visit here who regret to see her leave.

Miss Mae Leokie, one of Range's charming young ladies, spent Monday night in the city en route for a visit to Ray City. Miss Leokie has often visited Mrs. Huff when she resided in Eagle Lake and has a great many friends here.

Mr. F. C. Schack had one of his hands badly cut in a separator out on the Eagle Lake Rice Irrigation Company's rice farm Tuesday afternoon. He came to town and Dr. Fitzgerald dressed the wound, taking a number of stitches in the hand.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Baar left Tuesday morning for LaGrange, the former to look after his farming interests in Fayette county, and the latter en route to St. Louis via the "Katy," to inspect and purchase a superb stock of fall millinery.—Weimar Mercury.

Sandy McDade vouches for the following: He noticed his dog running rabbits in the cotton patch every day, and the rabbits always disappeared at about the same spot, so one day last week he went to that part of the patch where the rabbits invariably got away and there found a cotton stalk with a hollow in it, from which he pulled out five rabbits. Who can beat this? Don't all answer at once. Sandy lives on Hon. Joe Dick Wooten's plantation, and is a truthful "nigger."—Alleyton Cor. Colorado Citizen.

Mrs. W. A. Thatcher left Monday for a visit to relatives in Youkum.

Mrs. Ed. Ernst left Sunday afternoon for a week's visit to her home in Springfield.

Everybody in Kansas the other day, writes: "My husband, James L. H. believes he owes his life to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery. His lungs were so severely affected that consumption seemed inevitable; when a friend recommended New Discovery. We tried it, and its use has restored him to perfect health." Dr. King's New Discovery is the King of throat and lung remedies. For cough and colds it has no equal. The first dose gives relief. Try it! Sold under guarantee at Calvert's drug store, 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

The Girl For Him.
A scotchman, wishing to know his fate at once, telegraphed a proposal of marriage to the lady of his choice. After spending the entire day at the telegraph office he was finally rewarded late in the evening by an affirmative answer.

"If I were you," suggested the operator, "I'd think twice before I'd marry a girl that kept me waiting all day for an answer."

"Na, na," reported the Scot. "The lass who waits for the night rates is the lass for me."—Everybody's.

DIARRHOEA CURED.
"My father has for years been troubled with diarrhoea, and tried every means possible to effect a cure, without avail," writes John H. Zirkle of Philippi, W. Va. "He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy advertised in the Philippi Republican and decided to try it. The result is one bottle cured him and he has not suffered with the disease for eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well, and although sixty years old, can do as much work as a young man." Sold by all druggists.

An Age of Bigness.
"Sir, 1,764 people were injured in the United States on last Fourth of July."

"What of it?"

"Doesn't that figure startle you?"

"Not a startle. I would have guessed it at treble your statement."

"Figures in all lines is getting too durned big in this country," complained the party of the first part as he moved away.

"Got so you have to kill off half the population to arouse a little passing interest."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

CHRONIC DIARRHOEA RELIEVED.
Mr. Edward E. Harty, with the United States Express Co., Chicago, writes: "Our General Superintendent, Mr. Quake, handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy some time ago to check an attack of the old chronic diarrhoea. I have used it since that time and cured many on our trains who have been sick. I am an old soldier who served with Rutherford B. Hayes and William McKinley four years in the 23rd Ohio Regiment, and have no ailment except chronic diarrhoea, which this remedy stops at once." For sale by all druggists.
