C. P. Hoyt was up from the Lake city last Saturday and Sunday on a visit to the home folks.

Mrs. W. H. Smith and Mr. J. F. Tomlinson of Bonas came up on the Santa Fe Tuesday evening and left same night for a visit to Houston.

We are sorry to note that Mrs. W. Little, Sr., is dangerously ill at her home in this city, and hope that she will soon be strong and well again.

Store Closed Saturday.

Our store will be closed Saturday on account of Jewish holidays. Will be open at 6 p. m. Saturday. J. NATHAN & SON.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Boyd expect to move to Victoria as soon as Mr. Boyd finishes gathering his rice crop here. He will establish a dory and transfer line at Victoria.

The Lakeside Sugar Refinery Company's large sugar mill at Lakeside is in splendid shape to commence operation when the season opens up. Up to date, we are informed, that the cane crop is the best in years.

Mr. H. S. Lundy, a former business man and banker of Rock Island, passed through the city Tuesday en route to Rock Island for a week's visit. Mr. Lundy is now making his home in Missouri.

Mr. Hart preached an instructive sermon Sunday morning on the Life of Moses. Mr. Morgan gave a good talk on Piety at Home Sunday night at the Episcopal church Mrs. H. W. Rayner sang beautifully, "Jesus Lover of My Soul."

The Guild met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. P. H. Burger, ten being present. It was decided to have the bazaar the week before Christmas. The hostess served delicious ice cream and dainty cakes.

Notwithstanding the rain and mud, the "S. A. D." girls met Wednesday with Miss Ina Westmoreland, nine being present. The meeting date being earlier on account of so many of the girls leaving for the various schools. The evening was spent in guessing the names of "important men," Miss Neva Dean winning the first prize, a pretty pin. Miss Bessie Yates capturing the booby. After the contest a delicious salad course was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Myra Walker. The next meeting will be with Miss Williamson October 7th.

Store to Close Saturday.

Our store will be closed all day Saturday, September 26, on account of Jewish New Year. We will be open Monday morning with a full line of special bargains for that day. DAILY BROS.

The HEADLIGHT learns that Mr. P. M. Womock of Houston has leased the Kirby land near Eagle Lake, and that he will put a considerable acreage in alfalfa. Mr. Womock, so we understand, will engage in the hog business on an extensive scale.

Mr. Ben Bader Wednesday purchased the home of Mr. W. J. Putnam, near Mr. Mooney's place, for $1,550. Mr. Bader and family will move into their new home on October 1st. Mr. Putnam is yet undecided as to his future plans. Should he remain in Eagle Lake he will rebuild.

Hon. John N. Simpson of Dallas, republican candidate for governor, was advertised to speak here Thursday night, but did not fill his engagement. We learn that he cancelled all of his speaking appointments in this section and returned to Dallas. Though this place is overwhelmingly democratic, Mr. Simpson no doubt would have been greeted by a large crowd and given a good hearing.

City Marshal Vineyard tells us that Wm. McCarty, alias Wm. Carter, has been arrested by Sheriff Winston and is in jail at Richmond, charged with giving bogus checks. McCarty will be remembered by some people in Eagle Lake, having been here several months ago when, so Mr. Vineyard tells us, he gave Mr. Brosig a check which he has been able to retain as a souvenir. P. S.—Bill is no relation of the HEADLIGHT.

The members of the Methodist Church are looking forward with a great deal of pleasure and satisfaction to the beginning of their big revival meeting on the first Sunday in October. The services of Rev. John E. Green, a noted evangelist, known to many as the ex-railroad engineer have been secured, and a glorious meeting is in prospect. Rev. Green has visited Weimar before, and those of us who heard him preach know that he is an exceptionally fine speaker, an earnest, consecrated, christian gentleman, one whose work can only result in good. Our people will turn out in great crowds to hear him.—Weimar-Mercury.

Mrs. B. C. Smith of Bonas was in the city Wednesday en route home from a visit to Richmond.

Mrs. H. Cheetham and daughter, Miss Nellie, of Rock Island spent Wednesday and Thursday in the city.

Store Will Close.

My store will be closed on Saturday, September 26th., until 6 p. m. on account of Jewish New Year. H. NUSSBAUM.

Daily Bros. will on October 1st move their stock of goods into building recently vacated by Mr. E. L. Mooney, and after that date the building vacated by Mr. Daily will be for rent.

Our congratulations are extended Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McEwen on the birth of a fine son, their home on the 12th inst. Mrs. McBride was formerly Miss Julia Spaulding of Colmar, sister of Mrs. Hurff, and has often visited in Eagle Lake.

A number in the large plantations have, raised the rent on cotton and corn lands according to the Houston prices. Eagle Lake correspondents from $4 per acre to $4.50 and some others are renting at $5. In most cases, the correspondents say, the land owners are in a position to work their own land, and unless they rent at advanced figures, will put all their hired labor.

In a letter from Mrs. J. F. Hurff received this week by the editor, she says: "My boy is just fine and pretty as a picture." Mr. and Mrs. Hurff have recently bought a home in Corsicana and says they are there to stay. Their many friends here will be glad to learn they are doing so well, and that prosperity and happiness may ever be with them is the HEADLIGHT's sincerest wish.

The Christian Ladies' Aid met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Frazier, twelve members and three visitors being present. One new member, Mrs. McClanahan, was received. The Bible lesson, 20th Chapter of Acts, was read by Miss Cleo Flowers. The ladies will give a Halloween party October 31st at residence of Mrs. Rather. Several entertainments for the autumn months were suggested. Mrs. Peterson closed the meeting with prayer. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Ford. Mrs. Frazier served cake and the best punch that was ever concocted. For the finale, Mrs. Peterson delighted those present by giving two highly appreciated recitations.
