R. Barbe, and Miss Walker of Altair, who is the guest of Mrs. J. J. Whittier, and was greatly enjoyed by the large crowd present. About twenty couples participated and quite a large number of on-lookers were present. The music was furnished by the Moberg brothers' orchestra.

The Christian Aid Society met Wednesday with Mrs. Bessie Dunbar, four visitors and nineteen members being present. One new member was received. The ladies decided, that owing to the proximity of the dates of their intended Halloween party and election day dinner, they would abandon the party and give all their effort to the success of the dinner November 3rd. Oysters will also be served during the day and at night. The society will meet next Wednesday with Mrs. J. B. Stewart at the J. F. Platter residence. Our public weigher, Mr. T. W. Davis last Wednesday informed us that up to that day only 850 bales of cotton had been shipped from Eagle Lake. At the same date last year more than 1500 bales had been shipped. Mr. John Hilmann of Muskogee, Oklahoma, spent several days in the city this week. The members enjoyed the two piano selections given by Miss Fannie Williamson and Miss Ruby Watts. Delicious sherbert and cake were served and the meeting adjourned to be with Mrs. J. B. Stewart on October 15th.

Our worthy Methodist pastor, Rev. J. D. Worrell, was about the sickest mortal in Weimar last week, and he had enough to make him feel so. He had made all arrangements for the big revival to begin Friday night, with Rev. John E. Green in charge, when he learned at the last minute that a telegram which he sent to Bro. Green several days previous had miscarried, and Bro. Green not receiving same concluded he was not wanted, and had gone ahead and made arrangements to put in the time in a revival at Desoto, Mo. The telegram to Bro. Green to come to Weimar had been sent to him at Alice, Texas, where he was holding a meeting, but he never received same, and the message has not yet been located. Bro. Worrell's feelings in the matter can better be imagined than described. It is a distinct disappointment to the pastor, church members and many others interested in the meeting, but same cannot be helped. —Weimar Mercury.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Cheatham of Rock Island were in the city Sunday.

Baring has this week received a carload of Buggies, Hacks, Surreys, Run-a-bouts, etc. Get his prices before you buy.

Weimar this week lost one of its leading business firms—the Gates Mercantile company, the firm having decided to move to Valera, Coleman county, where Mr. Gates possesses extensive land interests, and there engage in business. With the mercantile company will go Mr. H. C. Thomas and Mr. D. L. Allen, who will continue to act as managers in the new field. Mr. Gates also contemplates moving his family either to Coleman or Waco at an early date. This news will be received with genuine regret by the citizens of this community, who have numbered these estimable families among our best people, and for whom they entertain the sincerest admiration and friendship. Any community would be blessed to secure them as citizens. Wherever they decide to locate, they will ever have the best wishes of all our people.—Weimar Mercury.

A Predicament

Many a man has found himself "within the grasp" of an embarrassing predicament through his false ideas of economy and the lack of knowledge or indifference to the subject of Clothes. He has paid a stiff price for a "ready-made" that looked well on the surface, but like beauty, was only "skin deep".

A "TRAYLOR" Creation extracts the wearer from every possible Clothes predicament.

The "TRAYLOR" label in a Suit of Clothes stands for "through and through" tailoring quality and removes every doubt of inferiority.

Worth while inspecting our beautiful display of Autumn and Winter materials.

Prices $12 to $50.
