Mrs. Mentor Northingtons at the St. Joseph Infirmary in Houston where she has been dangerously ill with appendicitis. She went to Houston a week or ten days ago to have her youngest daughter treated for asthma and was taken suddenly ill herself. For several days this week her life was despaired of, but we are glad indeed to note that she is better now and is improving rapidly. Her sister, Mrs. Whatley, has been in Houston with her. Her mother, Mrs. Ed Rand, who was in California, was telegraphed for and is now at the infirmary in Houston.

One of the most enjoyable entertainments of the season was the dinner party given Wednesday evening by Mrs. C. R. Barbe complimentary to Miss Jaquelin Bruce. The guests were Miss Jaquelin Bruce, Mr. Henry Hahn, Miss Nina Byars, Mr. W. Tarkington, Miss Christine Davis, Mr. Walter Brown, Miss Editha Martin, Mr. Bruce McCarty, Mrs. Thornton and Mrs. Horace McRee. After a most delightful turkey and salad course dinner, daintily prepared by the charming hostess, Mr. Walter Brown rendered a number of beautiful vocal selections and Misses Bruce and Davis some sweet violin and piano duets, which were highly pleasing to all in attendance. The evening was delightfully spent and will long be remembered as one of the most pleasing social events of the season by all who were fortunate enough to be present.

Mr. Max Conner leaves Saturday morning for Thompson's Switch, where he will remain during the remainder of the rice season assisting Mr. Lee Hughes in gathering his rice crop at that place. We learn that Mr. Fred Ahlers who is now at that place will return to Eagle Lake about the 20th and will work at the sugar refinery during the grinding season.

Robbed in Houston.

J. W. Benz of Eagle Lake reported to the police at 12:30 o'clock this morning that he had been robbed out of $20 in currency in a saloon.

His statement of the affair is that he was in the place drinking with several other men when one of the party shouted that the police were about to raid the establishment and all of them ran into a back room. The lights in the room were immediately turned out and it was then that Benz discovered that he had been touched.

Mounted officers were sent out to make an investigation, but up to a late hour no arrest has been made. Houston Post.

MUSIC-CLOTHES

There's as much difference between a "TRAYLOR" suit and the majority of clothes built today as there is between the famous Thomas Orchestra and the "LITTLE GERMAN BAND."

The discords of the little band are no more jarring to the musically sensitive soul than are the poorly built clothes to the particular dresser.

There's a distinct element of tone and individuality to the "Traylor" kind, they are characterized by the best of faste impress one with a sense of elegance and are universally pronounced by dress critics—"THE BEST ON EARTH."

The mere mention of "TRAYLOR" in connection with clothes is "MUSIC TO THE EAR."

Our Reason! for this sale; Many of our friends are sceptical about this sale, and wonder why we are offering such unheard of values at this season of the year. Still you read in last issue, also in this issue, where a number of good responsible men say that they have attended the sale and consider the goods new and up-to-date, and at the lowest prices ever offered in Eagle Lake, which is true.

We have come to Eagle Lake to stay and are offering these values to get people to come to our store, so we can get acquainted with them, show them what we have to sell, and tell them our methods of doing business, so we can get their future trade.
