Putting in Block System.

The Sunset's block system crew is now working between Lissie and this place. The block system of this road is now completed between New Orleans and Lissie, and is expected to be completed into Eagle Lake within a few days.

Baptist Revival Continues.

The revival being conducted at the Baptist church by Bro. Clapp of Wharton continues with much interest manifested. The services will continue over Sunday. No further announcements have been given this paper for publication.

Mr. N. B. Ives of Houston, formerly of this place, was in the city yesterday, packing his household goods preparing to move them to Houston where he has decided to make his permanent home. Mrs. Ives is at present visiting at her old home in Iowa, where she has been for the past two months.

How's business with you my friends? If not fully up to your anticipation something must be going wrong. To remedy conditions get in line and let the people know what you want through the columns of the HEADLIGHT, the paper that reaches more readers each week in this community than any other paper in the whole world.

The expense of the fall term of district court totaled $150.00. Only one man received a penitentiary sentence, he being the negro who killed his wife near Eagle Lake, and he was so grateful that he did not receive the death sentence that he publicly thanked the jury for their leniency. He is in jail at Columbus, awaiting the coming of the penitentiary authorities. —Weimar Mercury.

Why don't you try a few liners ads in this paper next week? Tell the people what you have to sell.

The dance Wednesday night was enjoyed by about a dozen couples. The music was furnished by the Moebes brothers orchestra.

Elsewhere in this paper will be found printed the New York Herald's election forecast, which shows the election of Taft. Let us hope that the results will not be according to the Herald's forecast.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen.

One sorrel, blaze face mare, about 15 hands high, branded M on left hip. When last seen was near Eagle Lake about two months ago. Will pay $5.00 reward for any information leading to recovery of animal, or will pay $10.00 for return of the mare to Thatcher's livery stable.

W. S. CURRY.

Rev. McDonald, the Christian church pastor at Eagle Lake, spent Sunday here and preached at the local Christian church to very good congregations. He is a well-informed young man, conscientious in his work, possesses a splendid delivery, and his sermons were thoroughly enjoyed by all in attendance.—Weimar Mercury.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Howard invites you to be present at the marriage of her granddaughter.

Elizabeth Howard Young to Mr. Walter Fletcher Brown.

Wednesday afternoon, the eleventh of November.

One thousand nine hundred and eight.

At Home.

Covington, Tennessee.

The HEADLIGHT was opposed to Gov. Campbell and at the primary scratched his name and voted for an obscure man from an obscure town, because it did not sanction Campbell's administration, but now that Campbell is the democratic nominee, it will vote for him.

Just like every man should who participated in the primary. You can't afford to scratch Campbell's name if you participated in the primary, for then you pledged yourself to support the nominees of that primary. Don't be a traitor to your party, but vote a straight democratic ticket.

Sheriff W. E. Bridge of Columbus was a visitor in the city Thursday.

Headquarters for what you need.

Mr. Barrow's Finger Cut Off.

While working on the brick building under construction on Main Street Wednesday Mr. V. N. Barrow had the misfortune to cut the first finger of his left hand almost off. In cutting a piece of plank with a knife the knife slipped with the above result. The finger was hanging only by the skin, but Dr. Norris put the parts back together again and it is thought that amputation of that member will not become necessary.
