MOONEY & DALLAS

The bazaar of the Baptist Ladies' Aid Society was a success. Their sales amounted to about one hundred dollars, and their net profit was ninety dollars. The society had planned a bazaar several weeks before-hand, and though the day was dreary, their efforts were rewarded with the above result. The society has been a very important factor in building our new house of worship, putting in the pews, carpeting the aisles and pulpit, and putting in the electric light fixtures. They have recently finished paying off a thousand dollar note, and are planning to pay off the last one, which will free the property of the Baptists of Eagle Lake from debt. Their meetings are held every Friday afternoon, the time being spent in reading and studying the Scriptures, business and social conversation. Any church and pastor would be proud of such a band of consecrated, energetic women. The pastor lifts his hat to each one, wishing each a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. We would rejoice if every lady member of the church was an active member of our Ladies' Aid Society. A pastor has no greater helpers than a band of active, consecrated women.—PASTOR.
