Happy New Year 1909!

New Year's Days are mile-posts that mark epochs in the lives of men and institutions. New Year's Day 1909 is the third such mile-post this bank has passed. It was organized in November 1906 and in the short period of its corporate existence has grown into one of the largest country banks in South Texas. It is proud of this record and thankful to its friends and customers who have made it enviable record possible and in offering the Season's Greetings, it wishes to say that its methods and policies will remain unchanged.
