Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Carothers went to Houston Monday afternoon to see Annie Russell in the "Stronger Sex" at the Prince Theater same night. They returned home Tuesday night.

Very few families have undergone the experience that fell to the lot of Mr. Fritz Kollman of Frelsburg. His son Tom came home Oct. 28 with a case of typhoid fever, since which time four other members of his family, Albert, Miss Leona, Elzie and Hettie have had a case of this dreaded disease. At this writing Tom and Albert are up, Miss Leona is improving, Elzie still has high fever, while Hettie was but recently taken with the disease. Haynie underwent a siege of this disease in our own family, we can and do sympathize with Mr. Kollman. —Weimar Mercury.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Armstrong of Chicago spent a few days here the early part of the week, the guests of their relatives, Mesdames Callison, Frazar, Wagner and Baker. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong are most pleasant people and made many friends during their short but delightful visit to our little city.
