Fewer Laws and Better Laws.

We hear this cry from our citizens, and it is nearly all of our exchanges, and it is agitating the mind of Gov.
Colquitt grievously. We can have fewer laws and better laws, if our Solons will resurrect the wisdom of Zaleucus, a disciple of Pythagoras, and a law-giver of the Locrians 550 B. C.

Zaleucus framed the republic of the Locrians, which stood without alteration above two hundred years. He had the merit and glory of converting a band of outlaws (the Locrians) into the most virtuous and orderly of the Greek republics. One of his decrees was: That a Locrian, who proposed any new law, must stand forth in the assembly of his people, with a cord around his neck, and if the law was rejected, the proposer was instantly strangled.

If the wise decree of Zaleucus was embodied in our Constitution, we are confident that we would have "fewer and better laws."

Stomach Trouble Cured.

If you have any trouble with your stomach you should take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.
Mr. J. P. Kiffin of Edina, Mo., says: "I have used a great many different medicines for stomach trouble, but Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets more beneficial than any other remedy I ever used." For sale by all Druggists.

Uncle Bill's Philosophy.

"One time 'Uncle Bill' Bruner went up to a neighboring town.
He was never known as a smart dresser, and an acquaintance, seeing him there, said to him:

"'Uncle Bill, I am ashamed of you. How dare you come to this town dressed as you are."

"Oh," said "Uncle Bill," "what's the difference? Nobody knows me here."

A few days later both men were back at their home town.
"Uncle Bill" was still dressed in the same old hand-me-down suit.

"What," "Uncle Bill" he said, "I am ashamed to see you in this garb! Everybody knows that you can afford to dress better than this."

"Yes, that's just the point," said "Uncle Bill." "Everybody here knows that I've got money, so what's the use?"

Do you know that fully nine out of ten cases of rheumatism are caused by the muscles that become cold or chronic rheumatism, and require no internal treatment whatever? Apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely and see how quickly it relieves. For sale by all druggists.

The Farmers & Merchants State Bank will pay your state and county taxes for you.

The Lordly Texas Steer.

Western Texas has long been noted as the greatest cattle region of the Union. The day will come when it will be famous for the finer breeds of cattle as it is now for its immense herds of longhorns.

The above from the San Antonio Express 35-years ago column is now a fulfilled prophecy, as is known of all men, and as the Western Crap Reporter aptly remarks in his editorial of the 14th inst: "Once Sam has turned the blue ribbon to the Texas steer, the average price of Texas cattle is $4 per 100 pounds. Texas leads all Southern states in high prices of her cattle and heads the list of states on the grass food product. The Texas steer that owns steam now rides in palatial cars to the markets of the world and commands attention where ever he appears. This awkward animal which once roamed the plains and was herded by desperadoes with guns and spears has become transformed into a thoroughbred and now walks majestically in packing boxes, society chartered by proud owners with silk hats and fat bank accounts. The progress of Texas is recorded in the advancement of the Texas steer. This remarkable animal has survived yellow journalism, putified the caresses of sports' pools, overcome the jealousies of rivals and put down the prejudice of the consumer, and all this has been accomplished by pure blood and solid flesh, and he now faces the market as sound commercially as the bank of England. Texas is proud of her cattle, proud of her hogs and proud of her citizenship that has elevated our livestock industry to the top of the markets of the world." Lord-line View.

Medicines that aid nature are always most effective. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It allays the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Thousands have testified to its superior excellence. Sold by all Druggists.

On being asked what a nephew is, a little Boston school girl re- plied: "It is when your niece is a boy," a statement which would be hard to controvert.

Free Sample Aids Old Men

The sudden change from years of activity of both body and mind to the quiet of later years causes the human system to undergo many changes, chief of which is in the digestive system.

It becomes harder and harder to get the bowels to move promptly and regularly, and a consequence many elderly men suffer not only from the basic trouble, constipation, but from indigestion, headache, belching, sour stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar annoyances. It is first of all necessary to keep the bowels open and then to tone the digestive muscles so as to get them to again do their work naturally. A violent cathartic or purgative is not only unwholesome but harmful, and something mild will do the work just as well.

After you have got through experimenting with salts and pills and waters of various kinds, as only temporary relief at best, then try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a mild, gentle, pleasant-tasting laxative tonic that is especially adapted to the requirements of old people, women and children, and yet is effective enough for anybody. Your druggist, who has handled it successfully for a quarter of a century, will sell you a bottle for fifty cents and he will gladly send you a sample bottle free of charge.

This remedy is highly effective for all other forms of indigestion, for the cure of stomach liver and bowel trouble, and for all ailments like Mr. O. E. Wilber's of Boston, Ill., and Mrs. Carrie Collier's of Chicago, Ill., who are now well without it in their homes. They have tested it and know its great value to every member of the family.
Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family members. It is a pure, health-giving, non-toxic remedy free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and we will reply to you in detail.
For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address to Dr. W. R. Caldwell, 1,300 Caswell Building, Monticello, Ill.

Courtesy in the Home.

If you are a boor among your acquaintances they can severely laugh you alone; you can give the cold shoulder to the cad in the office or the works; you can escape the fool in the morning train; you can have a prior engagement if your pet aversion asks you to supper.

But your home people are under the inexorable necessity of living with you. A man sometimes gets the idea that he can handle that anything will be for his home people; he treats them as dead weight, he does not exert himself; he reserves his best for outsiders.

He says he likes to be hoiney at home; that is very well, so long as it does not mean being vulgar, he is a good fellow. But he is not a good fellow if he is hoiney at home, very well, too, if it does not mean thoughtlessness, Familiarity breeds contempt.
It is not easy to be constantly patient and profitable and pleasant to those whom you meet every morning.

The great test, take it often, the greater the dissembler. More secretary of character are revealed over the bacon and eggs than over the dessert.

There is no severer discipline in the world than that of the home, and most of us go down under it in this matter of courtesy.

Don't let us put off our manners when we get on our slippers. Let us be the more considerate when it is our own whom we consider. And just because our home life is private, and is screened off from public view, let us be the more scrupulous that we may be void of offense against the heart of love.

Behind many closed doors and drawn blinds there lie grim tragedies; and many of them may be traced to seemingly trivial slackness in the courtesies of love.

This is the rift that has made the music mute. Take care of the courtesies, and the grand passions will take care of themselves.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Solves a Deep Mystery.

"I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart," wrote C. B. Rader, of Lewisburg, W. Va., "for the wonderful double benefit I got from Electric Bitters, in curing me of both a severe case of stomach trouble and of rheumatism; from which I had been an almost helpless sufferer for ten years.
It suited my case as though made just for me." Kid dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters has no equal. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50c at Caldwell's Drug Store.

Ports from the shippers and railroads are out and show that during 1913 Texas exported 19,490 cars of garden truck and fruit. The peach shipments re- quired 4500 cars and brought the most money to the State. The onion crop was next, requiring 14,000 cars. The time is now when Georgia must give up her title as the leading peach grow- ing State of the Union and when the Gulf coast will surpass the South Atlantic seaboard in truck- ing.

writes Mrs. Wm. Hilliard, of Mountainburg, Ark. "I took Cardium on the advice of a friend, and it helped me so much.
Before taking Cardui I had had terrible troubles for five years, but since taking it, I am in good health.
I think there is some of the best advice in your book
