

"Little HEADLIGHT locals do a big biz," remarked Mr. W. A. Green yesterday. "I've sold all the horses I had from that little three in a local and you'll either have to quit printing the ad or I'll have to buy some more horses." If you have any thing to sell that anybody wants to buy, or if you want to buy any thing that anybody wants to sell, well a small advertisement in the HEADLIGHT will bring about the transaction.

"Our baby cries for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. T. B. Kendrick, Basaca, Ga. "It is the best remedy we have for coughs, colds and croup." For sale by all Druggists.

Corn chops at Stoermer's.

While not as well attended as should have been, the organ recital at the Methodist church last night was greatly enjoyed and those who failed to attend certainly missed a musical treat.
