THE 92ND. ANNIVERSARY.

Of the I. O. O. F. of America Celebrated Here Wednesday.

The local Odd Fellows and Rebekahs celebrated the ninety-second anniversary of the of first lodge of Odd Fellows in America here on Wednesday, the occasion being one that will long be remembered in Eagle Lake. Many visitors were here for the occasion and the attendance would have been much larger but for the inclement weather. Visitors were here from Rock Island, Columbus, Weimar, Schulenburg and other places.

The following was the program rendered:

1. March.......Orchestra
2. Violin Solo.......Miss Jewell Vineyard.
3. Piano Solo.......Miss Mildred Davis.
4. Music.......High School Choral Society and High School Orchertra.
5. Prayer by Chaplain.......Rev. Oscar Ferrell.

16. Piano Solo.......Miss Beatrice Faber.

Benediction by Chaplain.......Rev. Oscar Ferrell.

At six o'clock in the evening adjournment was made to Mr. Hanly's restaurant where a sumptuous banquet awaited them. Covers were laid for one hundred and seventy-five and the following menu was temptingly served:

Roast Pork Loin
Roast Beef Loin [illegible]
Banana Ice Cream Cake
Coffee Cheese

The banquet was indeed a pleasing number on the program and was heartily enjoyed. Three long tables were erected and at each place was laid a souvenir, three golden links—the emblem of Odd Fellowship—tied with a bow of pink and green ribbon—the emblems of the Rebekahs.

As a caterer, Mr. Hanly's equal will be hard to find for everything in the menu was served in a most appetizing manner.

After every one had eaten heartily of the delicious banquet spread which Mr. Hanly had temptingly prepared, Toast Master and Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Fox Stephens, called for a toast from Mr. W. E. Lenhart on "Odd Fellowship." Mr. Lenhart responded, making a most excellent talk.

Mr. B. F. Johnson of Schulenburg was next called. He said that this occasion was indeed a happy one to him and he regretted that this happiness should be marred by the toast master calling on him for a speech. However, he made a nice talk.

Mr. H. E. Carey was called and responded with an excellent talk. Mr. Carey is a good speaker, in fact he might well be called an orator, though this is merely one of his side lines. His words on the benefits of Odd Fellowship were listened to with marked attention.

Mr. Henry J. Laas of Columbus was called for but he said he was no public speaker and it was one thime he was glad that he wasn't as he had a particular friend present who was very fond of talking that he would introduce. He introduced Prof. Scott of Columbus who made one of the finest talks of the evening. Prof. Scott said that a true Odd Fellow, one who lived up to its teachings, was all that the Master would have him to be.

Sheriff Bruce Mayes was then called on by the toastmaster. He said he never made but one speech in his whole life but that was a grand success." It was when Mrs. Mayes consented to "take him for better or for worse."

Mr. W. M. Willliamson was the next speaker of the evening. He touched on the benefits from Odd Fellowship and the beautiful lessons taught by it.

The toastmaster then called the oldest friend that he had in Texas, Uncle Charlie Bronson of Columbus. But Uncle Charlie declined, saying that he was too full for utterance.

The next speaker called was, "Bob of 626 who is not red headed either." Mr. R. E. Walker responded, making a fine talk that brought forth hearty laugh- [illegible]

Bro. Nash of Missouri was the last speaker at the banquet. He said he wouldn't talk much for if he did he'd expose the order. Mr. Nash said Odd Fellowship had made a great change in his life, that he had never been a church member before he became an Odd Fellow and prior to this time he had never known his duty to his fellow man and to his Master.

The exercises at the opera house began promptly at eight o'clock. After several musical numbers, Hon. P. P. Putney delivered a fine address, assuring the visitors that they were welcome, that whenever Odd Fellows celebrate visitors were always welcome.

The principal speaker of the evening was Hon. J. R. Wooten of Columbus, who delivered one of the finest addresses ever heard in Eagle Lake, his subject being "Am I My Brother's Keeper?" Mr. Wooten's references to the Eagle Lake of many years ago, when he was one of its citizens, brought back fond memories of the good old days gone by to the hearts of many of the older citizens. Mr. Wooten is universally popular in Eagle Lake. He is loved by all the older people and "Joe Dick," as he is known to them, will ever find a hearty welcome in his old home town—Eagle Lake.

The anniversary address was delivered by Rev. G. W. Story of Houston, who was the last speaker of the evening.

The celebration was a most [illegible] will long be remembered here.

Rev. G. W. Story of Houston, accompanied by his wife, was here Wednesday and was one of the principal speakers at the celebration of the ninety-second anniversary of the establishment of the first lodge of Odd Fellows in the United States which was held by the local I. O. O. F. lodge here on that day. Mrs. Story was the guest of the Eagle Lake Daughters of Rebekah.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. H. Dennis and J. H. H. Jr., of Wharton, spent Sunday here, the guests of Mrs. Dennis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Anderson.

The editor and wife return thanks to Mr. W. E. Lenhart for an invitation to the splendid banquet given on Wednesday evening by the Odd Fellows.

We return thanks to Mrs. L. J. Burger for a bouquet of beautiful Easter lilies, which were grown in the yard at her home in this city.

Mrs. J. C. Jacobs of Cleveland and Mrs B. M. Anderson of Waco are visining Mrs. J. S. Woodward.

We are glad to see our old friend, Mr. John [illegible] on the streets again after a long spell of sickness.

We are making nothing but the best cream and cold drinks.

It's Your Kidneys.

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles. An Eagle Lake Citizen Shows How to Cure Them.

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney [illegible] these trouble or they may lead to diabetes or Bright's disease. The best remedy to use is Doan's Kidney Pills. It cures all ills which are caused by weak or diseased kidneys. Eagle Lake people testify to permanent cures.

G. J. Short, west of railroad, Eagle Lake, Texas, says: "I was in a bad way with my back. Sharp twinges darted through me, especially severe when I attempted to stoop or make any sudden movement and even turning in bed was a tedious operation. My kidneys were out of order and I was annoyed by having to get up frequently during the night to void the kidney secretions. An acquaintance, hearing that I was in a serious condition, brought me the balance of a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, which he had been using. He said they were the best kidney remedy he had ever taken and would, no doubt, help me. I finished the contents of this box and found my condition so greatly improved that I procured a further supply at Calvert's Drug Store. The use of another box completed my cure and I have had no trouble from my back or kidneys since."

The HEADLIGHT is grieved to chronicle the death of one of its good friends, one of Eagle Lake's best citizens and one of our city's most prominent dry goods men, Mr. Ben Burg, who died at the home of his brother-in-law, W. S. Adels, in Houston at 2:15 o'clock Wednesday morning, after a long illness.

Mr. Burg was a good man; he held the respect and esteem of every one who knew him and his death is deeply regretted by the people of this entire section. He was a progressive, public spirited man, always ready and willing to assist in promoting and advancing any cause for the upbuilding and improving of his home town. He was a man that our city can ill afford to lose. Mr. Burg was a kind husband, a tender loving father and a good neighbor, and was idolized by his family. He is survived by a wife, a little daughter, Madeline Joyce, two small sons, a brother, N. Burg of New York, and a sister, Mrs. Celia Leibel of Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. Burg was prominent in lodge work, being a member of the Woodmen of the World, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and Sons of Herman, all of this city.

The funeral was held from the family residence of Mr. Adels in Houston at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Rabbi H. Barnstein officiating, with interment in the Jewish Cemetery. The pallbearers were: A. Kart, Andrew [illegible], Dr. [illegible], J. E. Roberts, J. Landa, Meyer Wagner and Abe B. Zindler.

Mr. Burg has long been a merchant of Eagle Lake and enjoyed a wide acquaintance throughout [illegible] the very highest of esteem by all who knew him.

Peace to his ashes!

The State of Texas, } Persuant to
County of Colorado } an order passed by the county commissioners' court in and for Colorado County, Texas, on the 20th day of April, A. D. 1911.

Notice is hereby given that the county commissioners' court of said county and state will convene and sit as a Board of Equalization on Monday the 8th day of May, A. D. 1911, the same being the second Monday in said month, for the purpose to receive all the assessment lists or books of the assessor of said county for inspection, correction or equalization and approval.

In testimony whereof, witness my hand and official seal, at Columbus, Texas, this 25th day of April, A. D. 1911.

JOHN HASTEDT,
Clerk County Court, Colorado County.

Mr. Anton L. Lundgren and Mr. Edward A. Clark of Temple are in the city in the interest of the Temple Life Insurance Company. Mr Lundgren lived in Eagle Lake some fourteen years ago, and says he was the first one to run a furrow in any of the [illegible] Lake, having cultivated sixty acres of prairie land near this place at that time. Growing rice on prairie land had never been thought of then.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Esser returned last night from their honeymoon trip to San Antonio.

Card of Thanks.

We take this means of thanking all who took part in or assisted us in any way with our local talent production, "Our Jim," last week, and we also thank all who attended for their patronage.

THE FIRE BOYS.

Hon. John Matthews of Matthews, one of the wealthiest planters and foremost citizens of this county, was married at the St. Anthony hotel in San Antonio Wednesday to Mrs. Maud Wilson, a prominent lady of Austin. Mr. and Mrs. Matthews are now in Mexico on a short honeymoon trip, after which they will be at home at Matthews.

Mr. Matthews is widely known throughout this section, having represented Colorado county in the thirty-first legislature, and is universally popular.

The HEADLIGHT extends its congratulations, and wishes Mr. and Mrs. Matthews a long life of happiness and prosperity.

Kicked By a Mad Horse

Samuel Birch, of Beetown, Wis., had a most narrow escape from losing his leg, as no doctor could heal the frightful sore that developed, but at last Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it completely. It's the greatest healer of ulcers, burns, boils, eczema, scalds, cuts, corns, cold sores, bruises and piles on earth. Try it. 25c at Calvert's Drug Store.

[illegible] house last night by the young men of Eagle Lake in compliment to Miss Myra Walker and Miss Gillifred Macy was a most successful and pleasant affair. The attendance was the largest seen at a ball in Eagle Lake for many years, forty-seven couples participating in the grand march which was led by Mr. John Beard and Miss Macy. The excellent music was furnished by the home orchestra. Delightful fruit punch was served throughout the entire evening, two charming little ladies, Misses Esther Westmoreland and Gene Welford presiding over the punch bowl. At 12 o'clock refreshments of chicken salad, saratoga chips, olives, cheese biscuits and flake crackers were served. There were a number of visitors present.

Mr. Henry J. Laas, our county's popular tax assessor, who was here Wednesday for the Odd Fellows celebration, handed us a renewal subscription for which we thank him.

Mrs. W. A. Thatcher is spending the week visiting her daughter, Mrs. [illegible], at [illegible]ham.
