There was a man in our town. And he was wondrous slow. He drove a fat gray horse around Where ere he wished to go. But old things now have passed away. Behind the R. M. P. It's just because you're deaf.

And if you want to hear some speels, Just talk to Comp about automobiles. Mrs. DeWitt, our neighbor so bright, Gave voice to a saying That I think just right. She says, "When you're troubled About little things, That worry you greatly And from which trouble springs—

Forgoget it! When neighbors say things That you'd rather not hear, That make you feel sad, And that make a fuss, Just go right along and smile. If you can— And forget it!

Minnesota Visitors Here. Messrs. S. J. Stayboldt and O. Wallin of Minneapolis, Minn., visited Messrs. Kolberg and Anderson at Satsuma Ridge Friday and Saturday. Mr. Stayboldt was here to inspect and report on several lots of land purchased by himself and some Minnesota friends out on the Texas Cattle Land Company's tract. Both visitors were greatly pleased with location, soil and prospects for orchards and crops. They expect to have their property here improved with a view to making it their home within the next year or two.

Our congratulations are extended Mr. and Mrs. Will Bricker of Chesterville on the arrival of a fine boy at their home last Saturday.

Two new ordinances passed by the city council are published in this issue. Both are good ones and especially so is the ordinance making it a penalty to spit on the sidewalk. Some of the "terbacker" chewers are liable to get into trouble if they are not a little careful.

Visit Harry's Soda Fountain everything clean and sanitary.

It Is Better To Have An Insurance Policy

and not need it, than to need it and not have it. You never can tell what may happen from one day to the next—a sudden fire, and perhaps you and your loved ones are homeless, with your property destroyed. Guard against such misfortune by taking out fire insurance. Costs you little and saves you many a heartache. See us about it before it gets too late.

EAGLE LAKE INSURANCE AGENCY.

A dog belonging to Mr. Wm. Kotzebue which was thought to be mad, was killed on the square by City Marshal Vineyard Tuesday afternoon. The dog had, before coming to town, bitten Mr. Kotzebue's little five year old boy, Leslie, in the cheek and in the neck, had also bitten a calf at Mr. Kotzebue's place and killed about twenty-five chickens in the yard. After coming to town the dog had several fights with other dogs on the street. Mr. Kotzebue left the following day for Austin taking his little son for treatment at the pasture institute. He also carried the dog's head to Austin with him for examination. City Marshal Vineyard asks this paper to say to all owners to keep their dogs tied up for at least ten days or two weeks, that all dogs seen on the streets acting the least suspicious will be promptly killed. A card received this (Friday) morning from Mr. Kotzebue, states that the doctors hadn't examined the dog's head at the

Texas Corn

Texas is a world's force in agriculture. Withdraw our farm products from the market and the people of two hemispheres will go hungry and shiver with cold. Out of the soil and from the air our farmers take annually nearly a billion dollars of wealth. In growing the land the Texas farmer walks 150,000 miles per annum, which is equal to traveling around the globe 11,200 times.

The chief products of Texas in order of their value, as estimated by the Federal agricultural department for 1910, are cotton, corn, wheat, oats, hay, rice, potatoes, etc. Cotton as the leading product is far ahead of its rivals. Corn occupies second place without challenge. Wheat and oats have been disputing for third place, but the separation this year is so pronounced that there can be no longer any controversy over their respective positions.

An examination of our cereal products dispels the idea that Texas is a one-crop state. In 1910 we harvested 232,000,000 bushels of grain. Although a bushel of oats weighs less than a bushel of any other grain, yet there is some significance in the total quantity of all cereals produced. Our cereal belt is following closely behind the plow as it turns the virgin soil, and we have so far found no geographical limitation placed upon it by nature.

Our corn acreage in 1910 was 5,800,000 and production 181,250,000 bushels and it had a farm value of $114,200,000. This corn was raised in 129 days, making an average production of approximately 1,000 bushels per acre. We raised 30.4 bushels per acre at a farm value of $12.35 per acre. The corn crop of 1909 and 1910 will purchase the railroad of Texas using the railroad commission's valuation on railroad property.

This giant industry has scarcely begun its development in Texas and the possibilities of extending the corn area and increasing the yield per acre present a wide field for enterprising farmers and there are millions of acres of idle land in the corn belt.

DAILY BRO'S. Extraordinary Stock Reducing Sale! Will Last Two More Weeks

IN order to give all an opportunity to take advantage of our great sale prices, and for the benefit of those who were so busy with farm work that they could not attend sooner, we have decided to continue our sale for two more weeks. We are more than pleased with our sale. It has been one of phenomenal success, and the reason is clear. It is because when Daily Bros. advertise a sale the people have confidence in our advertising, and they know they will get the season's best merchandise at sale prices, and not be handed some odds and ends and old shelf-worn goods at sale prices. We have never before done such a big business as we are enjoying during this sale. The reason given above tells the tale. Remember, we carry the nicest, cleanest and freshest stock of merchandise in Eagle Lake and everything goes in this sale. Don't forget, this sale will last two more weeks.

We have this week received a big shipment of Men's Summer Wash Suits and Pants, neat, new and nobby patterns—they all go in this sale at SALE PRICES.

Don't forget the place, Daily Bros., where you get clean, crisp merchandise at SALE PRICES.
