Woes Of An Editor.

"A man who owns eighty acres of land and has brains enough to till it, makes the lot of country newspaper men look like the last sad remnants of a Dutch lunch. The farmer has the best of it all around. He is as independent as an express company. He doesn't have to write a soulful obituary over some peak-headed bloke who kept on display an exhibit of cut plug profanity that would make the efforts of a steamboat mate seem like a mere trifle of the worth League. He doesn't have to go into raptures over the beauty of an open-faced bride with a cast of countenance that would blow out the gas. The farmer isn't required to lie until his back teeth fall out about the sterling manhood of a groom with ears like a cauliflower plant and the brain power of a shoat. He doesn't have to run a piano contest for the most beautiful young lady in the community, make everybody sore about the winner, and then print a 75-cent half-tone of the beauty that looks like a tin type of a kitten at the age of thirteen. There is nothing in the farmer's curriculum that obliges him to paint the local soprano as a heaven-sent songster. He isn't called upon to paint the virtues of a prominent citizen who earned his money by collecting notes with a draw shave. The farmer can express his opinion of the new Methodist preacher in a firm and loud voice, on the four corners, and if the printer ventures to express the view that the preacher ought to be chasing a curycow over a milch cow instead of filling a large room with thin ozone and misinformation, he will lose subscribers so fast that he won't be able to keep a cold storage egg. The farmer doesn't have to impress a chaste kiss on the moist nose of his foreman in order to keep him from getting drunk on press day, neither does he have to get somebody to go on his note when the 'devil' carelessly feeds a pair of pipe tongs thru the cylinder press or the rats chew off the lining of a new set of rollers. If the editor takes two days off in fishing his patrons call him a loafer and take their job work to the other office. If he works until he is bowed over like a fat man with cramps people say he is too stingy to hire extra help. If he contributes $2 to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and wears a boiled shirt on Sunday, the banks call in his note; and if he refuses to dig up for the Woman's Relief Corps supper he is branded as a miser and avoided as if he had the hives."—Wilson County Citizen.

How Long Does a Dream Last.

To the dreamer it often seems to last for hours, but, as a matter of fact, it is more likely that what appears to be the longest dream imaginable may in reality have lasted but a single second.

Yesterday afternoon, said a doctor, I called to see a patient, and, much to my satisfaction I found him sleeping soundly. I sat by his bed, felt his pulse without disturbing him, and waited for him to awaken. After a few minutes a dealer's cart with a clanging bell turned into the street, and, as their first tones reached me, my patient opened his eyes.

Doctor, he said, I am glad to see you, and awfully glad you woke me, for I have been tormented by a most distressing dream that must have lasted for several hours. I dreamt that I was sick, and that my boy came into the room with a string of most horribly sounding bells and rang them in my ears, while I hadn't the power to move or speak to him. I suffered tortures for what appeared to be interminable time, and I'm so glad you woke me.

The ringing of those bells for one second had caused all that dream, and just at the waking moment.—Ex.

RICE FARMERS! The Cushman Binder Engine

4 Horse Power Saves The Use of 3 Mules and After Harvest Serves For All Power Purposes on The Farm.

Mr. F. C. Boyden, Nottawa, says:

"The Cushman engine put on my binder for the first time. It was a perfect operation, 8 mules pulling binder where it took six before, and an extra driver. It is the only practical binder engine I have yet seen."

Mr. C. O. Brown says:

"It is giving perfect satisfaction. I could not ask for an engine to work any better. Three mules pull the binder without any trouble. It makes rice cutting easy, and because of the uniform speed of the cycle does better work than with the mule driven machine."

Mr. C. L. Comp, Nottawa, says:

"The Cushman is undoubtedly a perfect success."

INVEST THE PRICE OF ONE MULE IN ONE OF THESE ENGINES AND SAVE ITS COST IN SIXTY DAYS.

Engine can be seen at our garage, or working at Nottawa on farms of C. O. Brown, Mr. Deyo or Mr. Egnus.

Nottawa News Notes

Mrs. Freeman received word Tuesday that her father, Mr. Hawkins of Otterbein, Indiana, is dead. She will not go home until fall.

Mrs. J. R. Caylor is home from Indiana, much improved in health.

A. W. Caylor and A. F. Day began threshing Monday. Rice is of a good quality.

Mr. Leverage and family of East Bernard took dinner with W. G. Darby and family Sunday.

Mr. Welch of Eagle Lake put in some scales for Darby & Reed this week.

In a letter to the editor, Mr. John H. Brooks, one of the best newspaper men in South Texas, but who has retired from newspaper work, says: "Sure enjoy reading the HEADLIGHT. You certainly get out a splendid paper. Keep up the good work." While we naturally appreciate the compliment, coming from Mr. Brooks who knows just what a newspaper should be, it is doubly appreciated.

Dr. Werblum, optician, who will be in Eagle Lake, at Dr. Fitzgerald's office August 21st and 22nd, makes regular visits here. He guarantees his glasses to enable one to read and do close work without tire or strain on the eyes, also to relieve headache and all ailments caused by eyestrain. He carries the latest improved seamless bifocal lenses, also the latest in Shur-On nose-glasses.

The interior of the HEADLIGHT office is being renovated and repainted. The new paper is not up to its standard this and next week you will know the reason. After next week the HEADLIGHT office, we believe we can say it without fear of contradiction, will be the neatest country printshop in this section of the state.

Mr. E. H. Little, who by the way works in the postoffice, and knows that the HEADLIGHT pretty generally covers this territory, says: "Since inserting my first locals am getting lots of inquiries regarding the Oliver which goes to show that the HEADLIGHT is being read."

Invitations have been received in Eagle Lake to the marriage of Miss Helen Gordon to Mr. James Harcourt Wooten, both of Columbus, which will occur in that city on Tuesday evening, August twenty-ninth.

Dr. P. T. Gordon and family are expected home Sunday from their summer visit to their old home in Yorkville, South Carolina.

Don't forget that you have a Local Agent for The Oliver Standard Visible, call and see him.
