Couldn't Walk!
"I used to be troubled with a weakness peculiar to women," writes Mrs. Anna Jones, of Kenny, Ill. "For nearly a year, I could not walk, without holding my sides. I tried several different doctors, but I grew worse. Finally, our druggist advised Cardui for my complaint. I was so thin, my weight was 115. Now, I weigh 163, and I am never sick. I ride horseback as good as ever. I am in fine health at 52 years."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic
We have thousands of such letters, and more are arriving daily. Such earnest testimony from those who have tried it, surely proves the great value of this vegetable, tonic medicine, for women.
Cardui relieves women's sufferings, and builds weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a trial. It should help you, for it has helped a million others. It is made from pure, harmless, herb ingredients, which act promptly and surely on the womanly organs. It is a good tonic. Try it! Your druggist sells it.
Write for: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Free Leaflet, and for a Free Trial Bottle of Cardui Tonic.

WAS THE ROTTENEST EVER NEW AGENT AT SUNSET

"The man from the West" was here Monday night playing the rottenest test full and it is just about the worst in the world. It was awful. It was fierce—even painful! There was not a person on the stage displaying the least bit of talent. There was not an actor or actress in the bunch, and the same play has been presented here over and over again under different names—but always a trifle better than this last.

that Eagle Lake gets all the "real rotten" shows on the road. First the carnival, then "The Man on the Case," then the "Shuck" show—then the climax of rottenness was reached in "The Man From the West."

FINED FOR BOOTLEGGING

Francisco Irella, the Mexican arrested here by City Marshal H. S. Vineyard on a charge of selling whiskey on Sunday without license, was tried at this term of court and his fine fixed at $500 and the costs in the case will amount to about an additional $100. The Mexican is now doing time on the county farm. A United States deputy marshal was here this week getting evidence in the case and the United States authorities will handle the Mexican as soon as he has worked out his fine in the state and county cases.

Selling whiskey without license is a pretty risky business and we are of the opinion that Francisco Irella will seek a different occupation when the courts get thru with him.

MISS LANDA ENTERTAINED

Miss Gertrude Landa entertained last evening with a beautifully appointed linen shower in honor of Miss Fannie Becker, whose engagement to Morris Finkelstein has been announced. The reception room was adorned with ferns and cut flowers, the color scheme being carried out in green and white; the bride-elect's chair being green and white with large maline butterfly bows caught to double hearts pierced by Cupid's arrow, which suspended above. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Minnie Landa on the violin and accompanied by Miss Kathryn Landa, the bride-elect entered, followed by Adessa Adels and Gladys Karp, drawing a cart laden with beautiful and costly linens. The hostess presented Miss Becker with a bride's book, in which all the guests were inscribed. Ices and cakes were served at the conclusion of the evening.—Houston Post.

THE VISITING ODD FELLOWS

Sheriff E. B. Mayes, Tax Assessor H. J. Lams and District Clerk W. C. Papenberg of Columbus; Geo. E. Carey and Chas. Herder of Weimar were here Monday having come down to attend a meeting of the local lodge of Odd Fellows. They readily admitted that Eagle Lake has a live "chain gang" that is proficient in degree work.

HALE AND HEARTY AT 93

Confirming the article in the HEADLIGHT of a few weeks ago, Mr. W. H. Rather who has been agent at the "Sunset" depot here for a long time was checked out and Mr. W. A. Moore of Luling checked in as agent. Mr. Moore does not come to us as a stranger, having commenced railroad work here twenty years ago as telegraph operator. He was also married here to Miss Lena Ratcliff, an Eagle Lake girl. His thirty days. Their many friends here will be delighted to see them again after a long absence, and we extend to them a hearty welcome. Mr. Moore comes to Eagle Lake from Luling.

THE HEADLIGHT $1 A YEAR

For ten days only you can get the HEADLIGHT one year for $1.00 or six years for $5.00. The offer begins to-day and positively closes on October 30th. No bills sent—must be cash in advance, and no back subscriptions settled for at this rate. All arrears must be paid before you can get this rate. The object of this reduction in subscription price for ten days is to raise money to put into new printing material. Every dollar raised during the subscription reduction will be spent for new material to enable us to get out a "better" paper. Act quickly for after October 30th you couldn't get the HEADLIGHT for $1.49—it will cost you $1.50.

NINE RODE THE GOAT

At the hall of Eagle Lake Lodge of Odd Fellows, Monday night, nine candidates were initiated into and made a part of that order. The attendance—including several visiting brothers—numbered more than fifty, while the work of the degree team was of the A1 quality, being very impressive and instructive. After the initiation and regular routine of work, the entire gang—we mean "chain gang"—present adjourned for a call meeting at Hanly's lunch room, where oysters and fish, with the necessary accompaniments, were served. Not until after the midnight hour did the last meeting adjourn, and many expressed the opinion that it was a good thing to be "Odd."

THREE NEW AUTOMOBILES

The list of Eagle Lake automobiles has this week been increased by three machines. Mr. M. G. Calvert has purchased a Maxwell run-about from G. A. Stoermer, and Agent P. L. Smith has sold two new five passenger, 1912 model E-M-F cars, one to Mr. Ad Adams and one to Mr. L. L. Morrison. Eagle Lake is fast becoming an automobile town, and we are of the opinion that there are already more machines in Eagle Lake now than all the rest of Colorado county together. We learn that two new Overlands will be here shortly and that a number of citizens of Eagle Lake and vicinity are contemplating buying cars in the very near future.

MRS. BARBE ENTERTAINS

Mrs. C. R. Barbe gave a delightful "500 afternoon" at her home on State Street last Saturday afternoon complimentary to her nieces, Misses Editha W. Martin and M. Webb Sterkx of Louisiana. The guests present were: Mesdames H. W. Rayner, C. H. Brosig, J. S. Bruce, W. D. Walker, J. J. Whitley, W. E. McRee, M. E. Guynn, H. Fritzgerald, J. Dromgoole, R. S. Simmons, H. E. Carey, E. A. Eignas, L. L. Morrison, W. T. Chester, J. M. Callison, J. H. Owen, L. V. Duncan; Misses Ella de la Houssaye, Myra Walker, Christine Davis, Sallie Jones, Ruth Westmoreland, Fannie Greenlay of San Antonio and Editha Martin and Webb Sterkx of Alexandria, La. The first prize, a veil pin, was won by Mrs. W. D. Walker, and the booby, a gold safety pin, by Mrs. Owen. The refreshments were chicken salad, stuffed eggs, chipped potatoes, stuffed olives, crackers and iced tea.

CHARGED WITH MULE THEFT

Deputy Sheriff Will Ransom of Fort Bend county was here Tuesday. Mr. Ransom came to identify a negro now in the Columbus jail. The negro is Sam Smith and was arrested here several months ago by City Marshal H. S. Vineyard on a charge of criminal assault upon a negro girl. The deputy sheriff after visiting the jail in Columbus stated that Smith is the man he is looking for and that his real name is Tom Byars. He says Byars is wanted in Fort Bend county on a charge of theft of a mule; that he was arrested on this charge and placed in a calaboose at Fulshear but cut out and made his escape. He will be turned over to the authorities of Fort Bend county as soon as the authorities in this county are through with him.

LEE HUGHS IS OPERATED ON

Mrs. Sam H. Little and baby visited Schindler's last week.

Mr. Lee Hughes spent Tuesday and Wednesday in the city. He is just out of the hospital at Houston where he underwent an operation. Some time ago he injured his hip on the saddle while riding a horse and blood poison set in, but after submitting to the operation he is getting all right again. His many friends throughout this section will be glad to learn that he will soon be entirely well.
