LOCAL ITEMS

Miss Katie Becker is visiting her sister, Mrs. Henry Taylor, at Garwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sanford of Lissie were visitors in the city yesterday.

Miss Jewel Vickers, a pretty young lady of Glen Flora, is the guest of Mrs. Walker Lowrey.

Mr. and Mr. Newton of Galveston are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Haynie Matthews at Matthews.

Boost your home town. Be a booster or move away. Move to just as old place as you want to Columbus.

Mrs. Chas. Kountze came down from Columbus yesterday for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Callison.

Rev. J. T. Tracy and family left today for their future home in Waelder. Our very best wishes go with them.

Look over this paper and then decide if it isn't about the best bargain you know of for one dollar a year. Just three more days at this price.

The HEADLIGHT extends its congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Breitkreutz on the arrival of a pretty little daughter at their home yesterday.

Mr. J. M. Hodges and family of Garwood moved to Eagle Lake this week, he having accepted a position with Mr. J. R. Thatcher in the express transfer business.

Mr. W. Tarkington, who has been working at Sugarland for some time past, has moved from that place back to Houston, having been work as bookkeeper for the Magnolia Paper Company last Monday.

While going to Lissie in at early hour Wednesday morning in an automobile driven by Lawrence Watson, the car struck a cow in the road, throwing Mr. Bob Robson some distance to the side of the road. The car was not going at a great rate of speed and neither of the occupants was hurt other than considerably shaken up.

Agent T. L. Smith sold and delivered to Mr. A. W. Day at Nottoway Wednesday a 1912 five-passenger E-M-F car, which makes three cars for Nottawa. The E-M-F is a very popular car in this section. All the E-M-F's that have been sold by the Smith Auto Company are holding up splendidly and are giving good service. We learn that others at Nottawa are contemplating buying automobiles.

Don't overlook the opportunity to save money on your HEADLIGHT subscription. The one-dollar-a-year or six-years-for-five-dollars offer will last but three more days: Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. After Tuesday the price will be $1.50 a year and there will be no subscription reduction offered during next year. Renew your subscription now and pay up for a year or two in advance.

INVITATION IS EXTENDED

A cordial invitation is extended the people of Columbus to come down to Eagle Lake Saturday, November 4th, and see the circus as the show is only playing to the larger towns.

THE FIVE HUNDRED CLUB

The "Five Hundred Club" met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Warren D. Walker. Those present were: Mesdames Eignus, Chester, Carey, Smith, Guynn, Owen, Whatley, Barbe, McRee, Newsom, Simmons, John Matthews, J. M. Callison, Misses Martin, Sterkx, Sallie Jones, Cleo Baughman, Ruth Westmoreland and Myra Walker. The club prize, a hand embroidered towel, was won by Mrs. Smith and the guest prize, a silver hat pin, by Mrs. Callison. Delightful refreshments of fruit salad, sandwiches, marguerites, olives and iced tea were served. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. T. L. Smith.

Colorado county needs an experimental farm under governmental direction. If the people of this county—the banner county of Texas—will go after the matter with a vim and determination we can locate such a farm here. If Colorado County can raise $400, the state will donate the same amount and the government will donate $800, making $1600 which will start the experimental farm in this county which will be operated under governmental supervision. Let us work for an experimental farm in this county that we may show the people just what can be grown here in Colorado County—not in Hong Kong or Mexico—but right here in Colorado County.

Leave orders for piano tuning at Calvert's.

Notice To Tax Payers.

Jack Johnson Dead Broke.

Jack Johnson is in Europe now and the report reaches us that he is dead broke. A year ago Jack had $150,000.00, but he's a fair spender himself, and then he has a white wife who is an adept at ordering wine, big dinners, hats and other things. Jack went to France not long since to train for a fight with an Englishman; but England has a little more self-respect than Uncle Sam and refused to allow a prize fight between a negro and a white man to be pulled off on her soil. Jack expected to make a fortune in the fight to the extent of many thousand dollars, but the fight is off, and Jack's dead broke. The dispatches say he recently grew very angry with his white wife in a French cafe and slapped her. This naturally grates upon a white man's nerves a little, yet we are only sorry he didn't slap his spouse every day while he was in this country, as this would have meant the converting of Jack's carcass into a lead mine. According to reports, Jack spent several months in Honey Grove some twelve or fifteen years ago. At one time he served as motive power for the Signal's press, a place now filled by a gasoline engine, which does the work better and doesn't smell so loud. Anyway, we aren't a bit sorry that Jack's dead broke on foreign soil, and while cotton pickers are badly needed in this section, we trust nobody will pay Jack's fare across the big briny.—Honey Grove Signal.

More to Come.

Recently in Seattle in a cigar stand appeared the sign: "We give $15.00 for 1909 Lincoln pennies." No less a person was attracted by this than Judge Watson. He walked to the counter and laying down a penny triumphantly asked for $15.00. The clerk took the coin, examined it closely, asked if it were genuine, and after several minutes sighed and said he guessed it was good. "Certainly it is," answered the Judge. "Where's my $15.00?" "Where," said the clerk, "are the other 1,908 pennies?"—Life.

Faith In God.

What this country, aye, the whole world, is in need of is men who "fear the Lord." No man who lives in the constant fear of God is a dangerous person. What a world this would be if every human soul should live in a "Thou God seest me" attitude before the Lord. And that is exactly the way every son of Adam's fallen race (daughter, too) should spend his or her few fleeting days on this tottering old earth—Edgewood Enterprise.

Faith in God has been the world's most potent civilizer. The ancient people who knew not God were cruel and benighted, gross and fearfully superstitious. For many hundreds of years the history of the human family was simply a succession of wars and conquests, invasion stages and their consequent and collateral orgies of rapine, reprisals and butchery. Men's minds were given over to horrible conceptions, and their tangled mazes of gods of high and low degree were invested with attributes such as befit the low estate of the general intelligence. To the Hebrews the world owes its everlasting debt of gratitude for it was they who discovered the one and true God, the great Jehovah whose omnipotence compassed all and whose benignance warms every soul born into consciousness. And it was the Hebrews who through the mists of shadowy centuries, in the gloom of half-obscured states and despite the various and divers oppressions which befell them, preserved the faith and held fast to the truth which in the fullness of time was to make men free.—Dallas News.

The Fatted Calf.

The Prodigal had returned. "Father," he said, "are you going to kill the fatted calf?" "No," responded the Old Man, looking the youth over carefully. "No, I'll let you live. But I'll put you to work and train some of that fat off you."—EX.
