FILED SUIT AGAINST S. P.

A gang of fifty-one convicts was brought in at noon Monday to be used as cane cutters in the cane fields at Bonus. From Monday's Houston Chronicle we learn that the convicts reached Houston from Weldon over the I. & G. N. at 3:30 p. m. and through some misunderstanding with the Sunset railroad the car of convicts was left in the yards of Houston all night, leaving there for Eagle Lake at 11 o'clock Monday morning. The transfer agent T. P. Bishop has filed suit against the Southern Pacific railroad for damages in keeping the car and convict in the Houston yards all night.

TO OPERATE LIGHT PLANT

Hon Geo. Herder of Weimar, president of the Farmers & Merchants State Bank, was a business visitor in the city this week. Mr. Herder stated to the HEADLIGHT that he will take over and operate the electric light and water plant on the first of the year. Mr. A. H. Koennecke giving up his lease on the same. Mr. Koennecke will continue to operate the ice plant and fan service. A new corrugated iron building with cement floor is being erected by Mr. Herder at the stand-pipe from which place power for the electric lights will be furnished after the first of January.

DAIRY MEN BUY COWS

Mr. W. H. Griffin has this week sold his dairy cows to Oleson Bros., and has retired from the dairy business. Mr. S. S. Neblett this week also sold his dairy cows to Mr. A. E. Deats and also retired from the business. The Oleson Bros. will engage in the dairy business on a larger scale at their home about two miles west of town, and Mr. Deats has also entered the dairying business in a larger way at his home north of the city.

SOLID CARLOAD OF JELLY

The Schuhmacher Grocer Company last Monday received a solid carload of jelly. The car contained 50,000 pounds and was shipped from Granite City, Illinois. Mr. Middleton, manager for the Schuhmacher Company, stated that the larger part of the car was sold before its arrival here.

GIVEN THE DEATH PENALTY

The negro, Albert Varner, who was arrested in Wharton county, charged with assault upon Mrs. Bent Campbell here in October, pleaded guilty in the district court at Seguin Monday, and the death penalty was given him. The time for the execution has not up to this time been set. A jury was selected, and lawyers were appointed to defend the negro, but he pleaded guilty as charged and asked the "mercy of the court." The negro appears to be of unsound mind. But he has proved that he is a dangerous character. A number of witnesses from here went to Seguin Monday, among them being City Marshal H. S. Vineyard, T. L. Smith, Joe Frazier, J. C. Townley, Max Connor and others.

PRESENTED WITH SILVER

The Ladies of the Maccabees of Eagle Lake Hive observed Thanksgiving Day with a social meeting, from 3 to 5 o'clock, for the members of the order and their children. Refreshments, consisting of chicken, ham sandwiches, pickles, several different kinds of salads, pies, cakes and coffee, were served to all present. As a token of appreciation for her services, the members of the Hive presented their Record Keeper, Mrs. W. B. Smith, with a beautiful set of silver knives and forks.
