NEW SPRING GOODS

Our big line of White Goods now open for your approval

Don't fail to pay our store a visit next week and examine our superb line of the famous La Suisse Embroideries—they win favor by their quality and beauty—they wear, not tear.

Our new spring line of low quader shoes for men, women and children is now in. Come and see our new spring goods.

B. H. DAILY

Mrs. Joan Tatters left yesterday for her home in San Antonio after a few days' visit to Mrs. W. E. Welford. While here Mrs. Tatters purchased a lot from Mr. Terry Balhorn, between the new Balhorn residence and the residence of Mr. Cearnal, and let the contract to Contractor Keith for the building of a home on same. As soon as the house is completed Mrs. Tatters will move back to Eagle Lake and make her home here.

Through the columns of your next issue, Father Montreuil wishes to express his satisfaction in the work accomplished during his last visit to Eagle Lake, and also in which the people of Eagle Lake have shown themselves. His next visit will be on the 5th, 6th and 7th of April. He hopes the people will attend in great numbers, not only to continue the work started but to offer encouragement by their presence to the visit of the Bishop early in the summer.

Respectfully,
N. L. BOUDREAU.

Mr. W. A. Hughes and son, Mr. Lee Hughes, were here from Richmond yesterday to attend the funeral of Mr. Dobbins.

We carry the celebrated Perina line Chicken feed.

To the Voters of Eagle Lake:

As it has been circulated to some extent in Eagle Lake that I have withdrawn from the race for the office of city marshal, I hereby correct the report, as I have not withdrawn and will be in the race to the finish, and hope to be the successful candidate. Your support and your vote will be highly appreciated.

J. T. CARNEY.

Father Montreuil, the Catholic priest, during his visit here last week, advised his people publicly to subscribe for and read the Eagle Lake paper. For his kind words the management of this paper returns thanks.

SEED RICE!

We have a limited quantity of carefully selected HONDURAS and JAPAN SEED for sale. It is a well known fact that good seed rice is very scarce and getting more so all the time. Those who anticipate needing seed will do well to secure their wants now. We are booking orders for spring delivery, the rice to be paid for when delivered. Write or 'phone us your orders.

Chesterville News

Messrs. O. B. Miller and Louis Larsen, who have been in Dexter, Mo., on business, returned Sunday night. They found plenty of snow and were glad to return to the South.

Mr. Adolph Anderson, who has been visiting relatives here for several weeks, returned last week to his home in Illinois.

Mr. Ernest Tubbs, who spent the greater part of the winter here, left last week for his home in Amarillo. Mr. Tubbs was called home on account of illness, and upon his arrival found his youngest son dead.

Misses Boykin and Wilson were Eagle Lake visitors last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Smith of Northway were the guests of Ray and Mrs. J. C. Smith last Sunday.

Miss Lelia Andrews, who was quite ill with grip last week, is much improved at this time.

The Needle Work Club met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. P. Salladay.

Chesterville is undergoing another revival. Rev. Perkins is preaching. So far, not a very large attendance.

Mr. Green and Mr. Wright arrived here last Saturday to take charge of the Wallace estate. Mr. and Mrs. Green will occupy what used to be the John Linderholm residence, and Mr. and Mrs. Wright the cottage west of it.

A crowd of twelve ladies drove out to the home of Mrs. Frank Kellison Wednesday afternoon, the occasion being Mrs. Kellison's birthday. They were treated to a fine roast turkey and numerous other delicacies. Mr. Kellison received a nice mission rocker, by which to remember the occasion.

Sunday dinners and suppers at Hotel Brown—extra menu—special rates to Eagle Lake people. Eat your Sunday dinner or your Sunday supper at the Hotel Brown.

The Mask Dance Tonight.

For the benefit of those who might not have understood the announcement in regard to the admission price for the children's mask dance tonight, the HEADLIGHT will say that Mr. L. E. Burttschell informs the paper that the dollar admission price is to adult male dancers. All under sixteen years of age are not charged. Children are charged nothing whether they dance or not. All ladies are admitted free of charge. Onlookers will be charged 50 cents. No one over sixteen years of age will be allowed upon the floor until after the masks are removed and the prizes awarded. Then, after that time, all will be allowed to dance regardless of age, and all gentlemen dancing will be charged $1.00. All ladies and all children under sixteen years admitted free, whether they dance or not.
