F. W. Shannon made a motorcycle trip to Weimar Sunday, returning Monday. The distance is about sixty-five to seventy miles by wagon road, by way of Eagle Lake, and rode it in a fraction under four hours. Exactly one gallon of gasoline was consumed in this distance, and had the roads been in normal shape only about half this amount would have been used.—Wharton Spectator.

Mrs. Florence Westmoreland, aged 55 years, and the wife of Charles Westmoreland, died Sunday night at 11 o'clock at her home, 1916 Washington avenue. Death was caused from spinal meningitis. Mrs. Westmoreland was reared in Birmingham, Ala., but has resided in Texas for the last 39 years, the latter five having been spent in Houston. In addition to her husband she is survived by her mother, Mrs. McKee of Eagle Lake, Texas, and eight children, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Alton, Mrs. Paul Busse, Mrs. W. L. Hillin, Miss Tracie Westmoreland, and two sons, Bennie Westmoreland of Houston and E. R. Westmoreland of Lockhart.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon from the residence, followed by interment in Glenwood cemetery. Rev. T. J. Freeman of the First Baptist Church officiated. The funeral was private.—Houston Chronicle.

The Dixie Theatre will on Saturday night give a special program. Aside from the regular three rolls of films, the special Buffalo Jones Conquest of the Animal Kingdom will be given, also Pathe hand colored trick film, the world's series championship baseball game, and five hundred feet of selected parts of Ben Hur. For the special entertainment an admission price of 20c and 10c will be charged but on all other occasions the price of 10 and 5 cents remains the same. The Dixie Theatre's manager this week changed the film service. The service that he has been getting out of Houston was not what he expected it to be, so he at once canceled his Houston contract and made arrangements to get a higher grade of films from Dallas. This extra film service comes a little higher and the express charges are more, but the Dixie Theatre is making every effort to give its patrons the best service possible.

market, and in contracting for the Dallas service, has secured the very best films in Texas. The people of Eagle Lake will appreciate the high class pictures that Mr. Moore has contracted for. The fine player piano at the Dixie is appreciated by the patrons, and the beautiful illustrated songs by Miss Bessie Jean Moore are a charming feature of the program. Miss Moore possesses a soft, sweet voice and plays her own accompaniments. Don't miss the big program at the Dixie Saturday night; also a fine program on for tonight.

The pastor and members of the A. M. E. Church, colored, take this method of thanking our white friends for their kindness in helping to raise $139.95 on our new church building. We Sympathize.

It is most discouraging to those who would like to see and help beautify Kingsville, to have cows and pigs and hogs running around our streets, breaking in and ruining lawns and shrubbery. How can we put oleanders, palms, or even trees out with assurance as long as the town cow roams at large. Many who have started out in this direction with enthusiasm have given up for this very reason.—Kingsville Record.

Mr. O. E. Duddleston this week received the appointment from Washington as superintendent of experimental work in Colorado county. Mr. Duddleston says on account of the lateness of the season, matters along the experiment farm lines will have to be rushed and he advises that all who are taking the work under his direction to make hasty arrangements and confer with him without further delay.

"How to Spread the News."

It has been said that three of the quickest ways to spread news are to telegraph, telephone, or tell a woman. A good newspaper like The Headlight is better for the people, because it tells the public at large in a full, impartial and accurate manner of local happenings.

The Christian Aid Society met last week with Mrs. Roberts, fourteen being present. Bro. Otis Hawkins was there and led in prayer. The February Tea given by Mrs. E. P. Newsom brought in $4.60, though the afternoon was stormy. After enjoying cake, gelatine, whipped cream and fruit the Aid adjourned to meet Thursday of this week with Mrs. R. S. Simmons. Owing to a funeral and threatening weather only ten were present, but the meeting was instructive, and most pleasant. Mrs. Cook read 17th Chapter of John and Mrs. Thomas closed with prayer. The luncheon served during the social hour consisted of wafers, asparagus tips with French dressing, potato chips, pear salad and coffee. The meeting next week will be with Mrs. Eggers.—Contributed.
